Rip-Roarin' Rallies

Freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors all have a great time competing against each other for the loudest spirit yell at the pep rallies. This is the time friends spend together to make some unforgettable memories. The cheerleaders, Tigerettes, and band members always put on a "winning" performance for the student body during pep rallies. Although there isn't as much time for these afternoon events as there used to be, we still continue to have loads of fun.

We love #??... The sophomores show their Tiger spirit by displaying signs for the sophomore members of the football team.

Show That Spirit... Nobody shows more spirit than our mascot, the tiger. Susan Thompson does a great job. Let's Go, Tigers!

Tigers are #1! The cheerleaders liven up the students at a pep rally. It's obvious; many students are trying to bring spirit back into B.C.H.S.

Seniors '97 ... Brock Goodwin, Jake Branum, Frank Brantley, Brandon Weekley, Josh Caldwell, Brian Penna, and Marcus Garrett show what they're made of at the first pep rally. The seniors always manage something cute for the pep rallies during their final year at B.C.H.S.*

Resting for the Big Game ... The football players relax and enjoy the pep rally before the game. With all the preparation for a game, a little time off is GREATLY appreciated.*

*Which pep rally was your favorite?
"The Homecoming pep rally because it got us all ready to win."*

-Byron Cox, 11

*What is your favorite thing about pep rallies?
"We can be ourselves through these controversial times."*

-Jamie McMillan & Michelle Davison, 11

Homecoming 1996 : Signs Of the Times

On October 3, 1996, Amanda Morris was crowned Homecoming Queen. The third of the four daughters of Brenda Morris and the late Kenny Morris, Amanda has accomplished a great deal during her career at Baldwin County High School. She is not only the Senior Class president, but she is also vice-president of the French Club and First Priority; she is also co-editor of the Balcoala. Amanda is a Key Club Favorite and represents the City of Bay Minette as a Delta Belle. She is involved in a number of sports and excels in them all. She played Varsity Soccer her junior year, Varsity Volleyball for two years, Varsity Basketball and Softball for three years, and has lettered all four years in Varsity Track. With all of these extracurricular activities she has maintained a 3.5 G.P.A. She is also an active member of her church youth group and choir at First Assembly of God.

Homecoming 1996 :

Signs Of the Times II

The underclassmen Homecoming Court for 1996-1997 consisted of three girls from the ninth, tenth, and eleventh grades. When examining this list of exceptional young ladies, you will find a volleyball player, a basketball player, two softball players, four soccer players, an N.H.S. president, and an ex-Frosty Treat employee.

Over in a Flash

Homecoming week was a time for everyone to let loose and have a little fun. Many students joined in by helping out with floats and other Homecoming preparations. Even the faculty participated, which made the week even more memorable.

Student Council helped keep the spirit alive by sponsoring Pride Week. On Monday everyone "flashed back to the eighties" and wore some really crazy socks. Twins were everywhere we turned on Tuesday. Wednesday was totally camouflaged. On Thursday students wore their Homecoming shirts, sold by Student Council. On Friday everyone had one last chance to show his or her spirit by wearing either orange, black, and/or white.

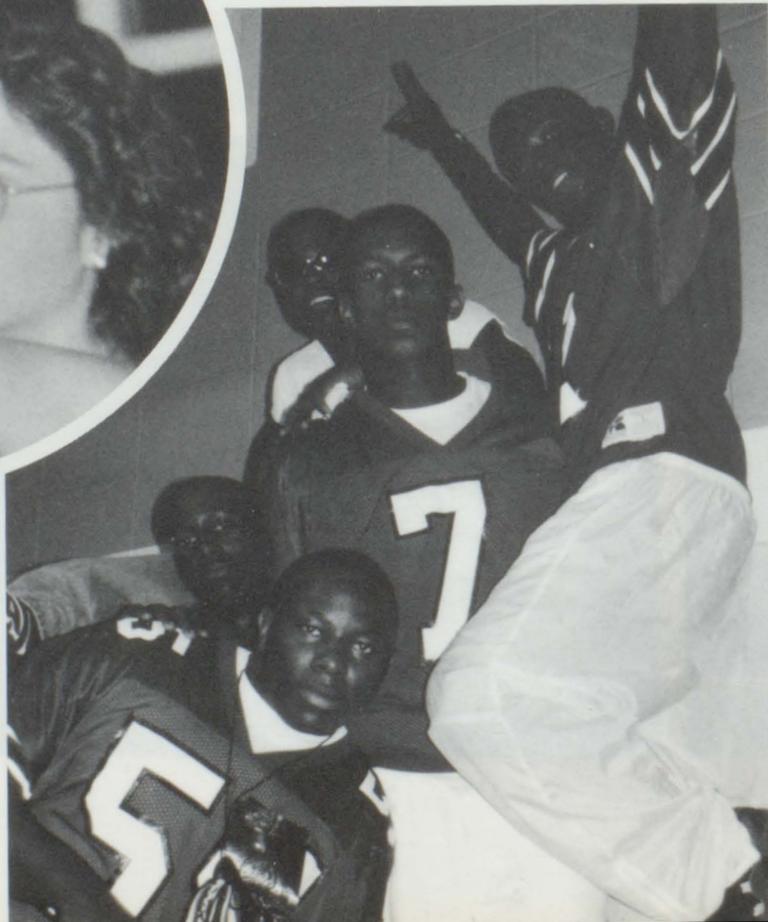

On Thursday before the parade, every class float was lined up and judged. The results were as follows: Seniors came in first place, juniors came in second, freshmen took third, and sophomores followed up with fourth. Regardless of the results, every float was spectacular.

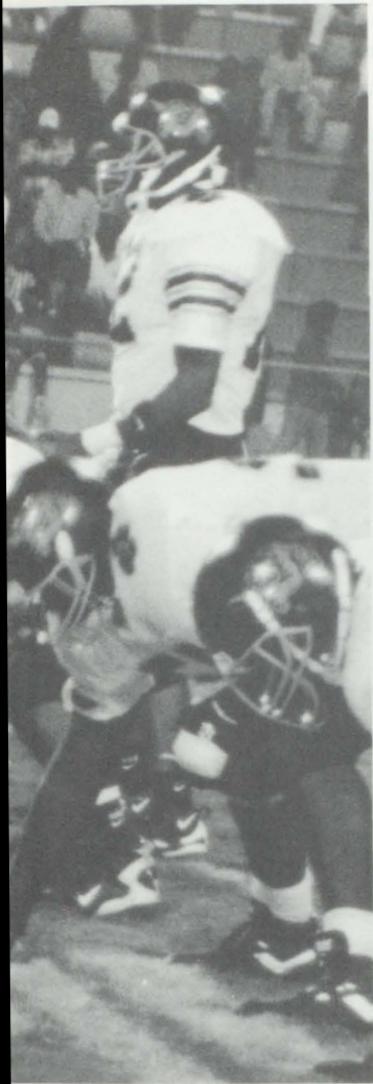

This week was on its way to a memorable close when the B.C.H.S. Tigers played the Homecoming game against the Choctaw County Tigers. Needless to say, the B.C.H.S. Tigers came out on top. The final score was B.C.H.S., 21; Choctaw County, 12.

How Much Longer?? ... Kevin Thompson and Brandy McDo well dance their last dance. Sometimes the Homecoming excitement is just too much to handle.

Proud to be a Tiger ... Mario Mims, Cordell Campbell, C.J. Bolling, Mike Mason, and Gary James stand up to show their pride at the Homecoming Pep Rally.

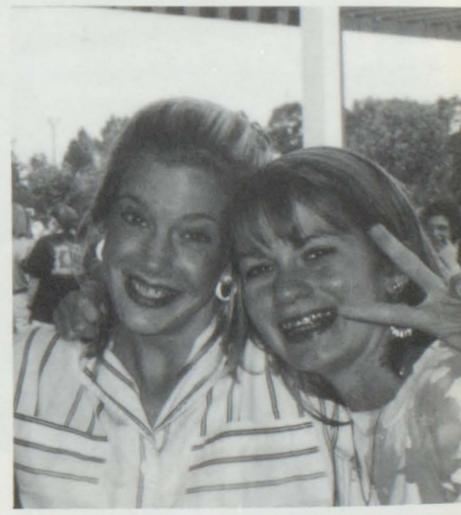

Don't give them an inch!... Throughout the Homecoming game our Tigers showed that there was NO way they were backing off the Choctaw Tigers. And at the end the hard work paid off ; the B.C.H.S. Tigers were on top (of course).

Way to go, Tigers!... Sarah Beth McDonald helps cheer the Tigers to victory. A little motivation can't do anything but make our players even better.

Ridin' in Style... Kiley Kolb, Bridget Boykin, and Kelly Bass lead the rest of the Homecoming Court. Mrs. Meredith needs to slow down if the other maids are going to catch up.

Cheezin' It... Jeanne Lee McMillan takes time to give smile while decorating her vehicle. Football wasn't the only competition during Homecoming Week!

We Did It

Our Way...

While drawing this layout, it seemed as though the page you see here was cursed. So many strange occurrences delayed its completion. From disappearing designs to phantom photos, the Yearbook Staff was baffled time and again by this page. So enjoy it! Much hard work went into it.

A variety of students inhabit the B.C.H.S. campus. All are individual, and they do their "own" thing. Take Sean Clark (also known as Seab) for example. In the midst of teenage drinking, he never touches a drop.

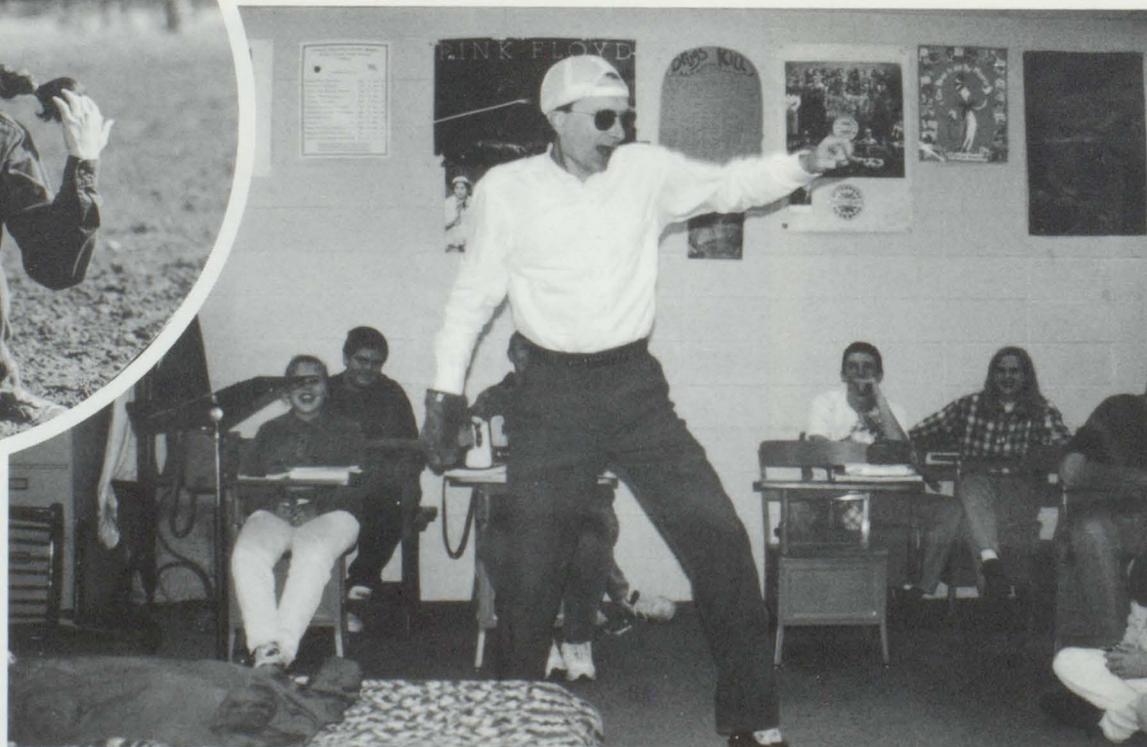

Sean isn't the only unique student at B.C.H.S. It would be impossible to showcase every special student. So here are just a few What's your sign? ... Signing is part of sophomore Jamie Mixon's life. She and Mrs. Whitely enjoy a private conversation during recess.

"Strait" out of the gate ... Not only is Candice Hastings great at ropin' doggies, she is a terrific artist and a massive George Strait fan.

Pun and Prose ... Grammar guru Marcus Willis uses various props that range from guitars to karate outfits to keep his English class interested.

Photosynthesis ... Look closely, and you'll catch Rachael Knight snapping this picture. You won't, however, "catch" her running track. She took third place in the 400 meter at State last year.

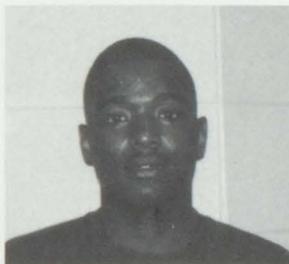

What is something you wish you hadn't done "your way"?

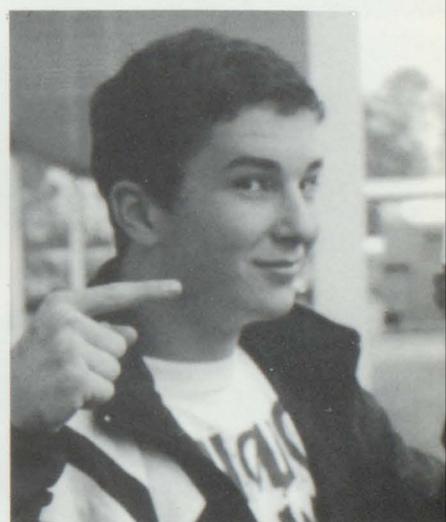

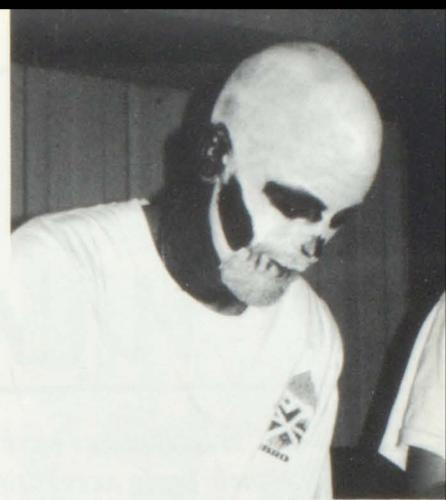

"Marched too fast in ROTC and passed out."

-Lanita Wells, 12

"Quitting the awesome soccer team."

-Mike Mason, 11

But there ain't nothing wrong with the radio! ... Here is Shane Sharp's version of self-expression complete with a heli-pad on the roof and gold spraypaint trim.

Can't Live WithOUT

B.C.H.S. students have different ideas when it comes to their basic necessities. Whether eating, sleeping, or just hanging around with friends, there are many things students can't live without.

Ahhh, How Cute!!... Jonathan Scott shows us how much he likes to snow ski.

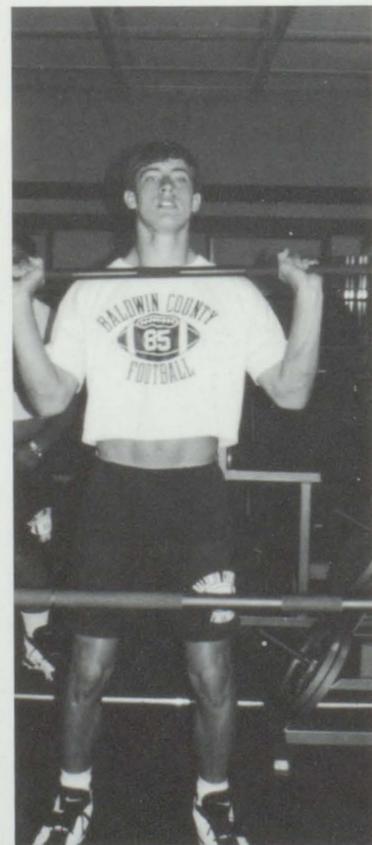

Topsy Turvey... Keith Mosley still looks like he's having fun even though he's taken a little tumble.

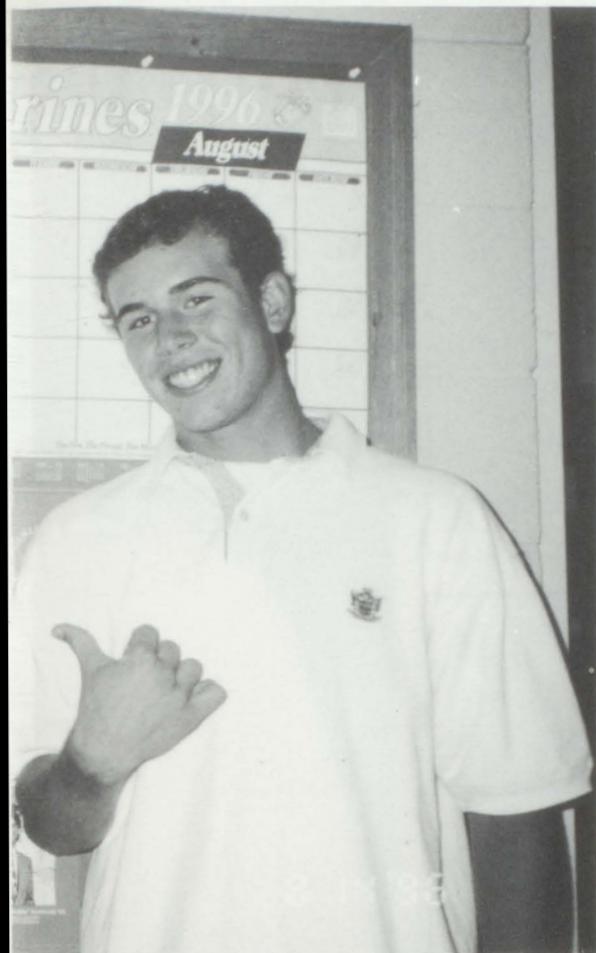

Up Close & Personal... Amity Rider is doing one of our favorite things, sleeping !!!

Listen and Learn... Marcus Armstead takes notes as he listens to the computer. This is hard work!

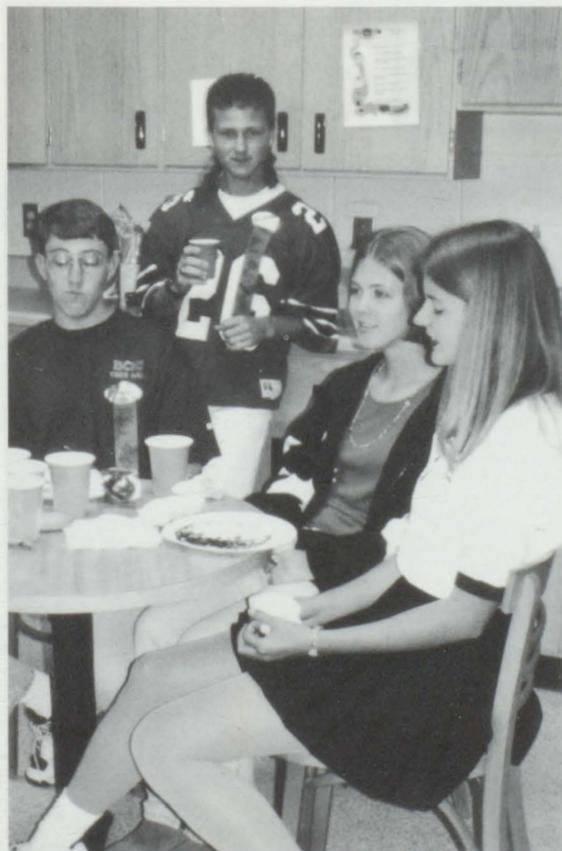

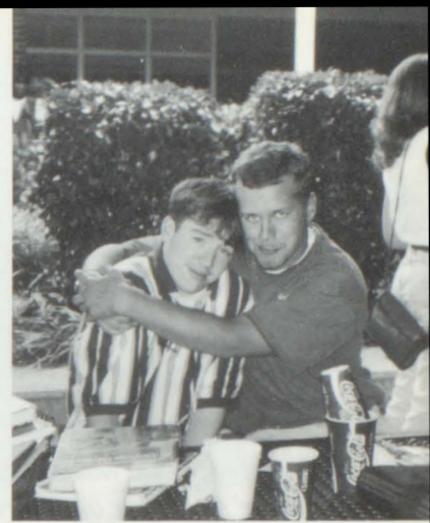

Work It, Baby!!... We love it when guys (like Bryan Wiggins) get hot and sweaty while lifting weights.

Dumb and Dumber ... Like Jeremy Phillips and Bill Biles many students can't live without getting out of class.

What a smile ... Anita Horace shows how much fun it is to be a Tigerette with one of her very often seen smiles.

Are you going to eat that ?? ... Eric Chastang stares longingly at the food left on the plates of Emilie Denmark, Jennifer Guy, and Brent Powell.

What's one thing in your life that you can't live without?

"Now, I could never live without Taco Bell. I'm not sure how we ever did."

-Leanne Stewart, 11th

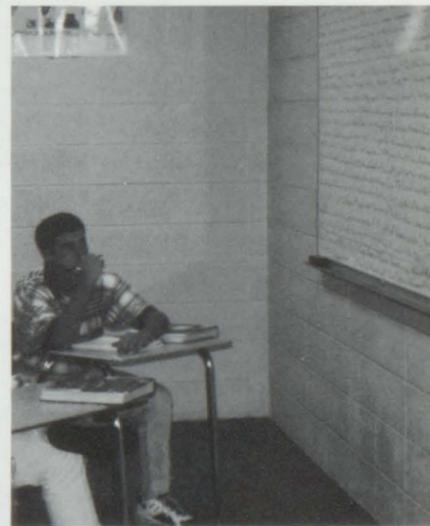

"I couldn't live without my Volkswagen Bug."

-Ben Denton, 10th

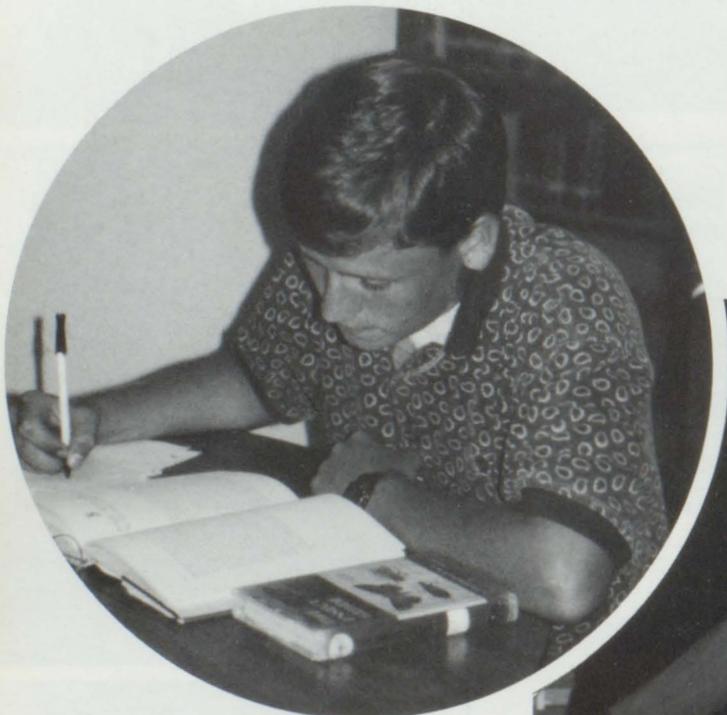

"The one thing in my life I couldn't live without is my teddy bears."

-Pateasa Ruffin, 11th

A Day in the Life ...

Everyday we wake up to the familiar sounds of our mother's voice or our alarm clock. Just like Fent Taylor, pictured in the side column, we get up, eat breakfast, brush our teeth and hair, get dressed and head out the door. A day in the life of almost every student at B.C.H.S. basically starts, goes, and ends differently. Each has his or her own routine, or maybe his or her own routine is not to have one. We make our way through these days with our different chores, jobs, activities, and pastimes. We struggle to keep up, keep going, and make the grade. And believe it or not, in spite of our rigorous schedules, we still manage to have fun.

Working Hard ... Homework is part of every student's life. Josh Martin spends some time in the library putting the finishing touches on his.

Lookin' Good ... Jenny Stewart makes sure her make-up looks just right before she heads to recess, the only time of the day that everyone is together.

What part of the day do you look forward to most?

"When the clock says 3:02 and I get to go home."

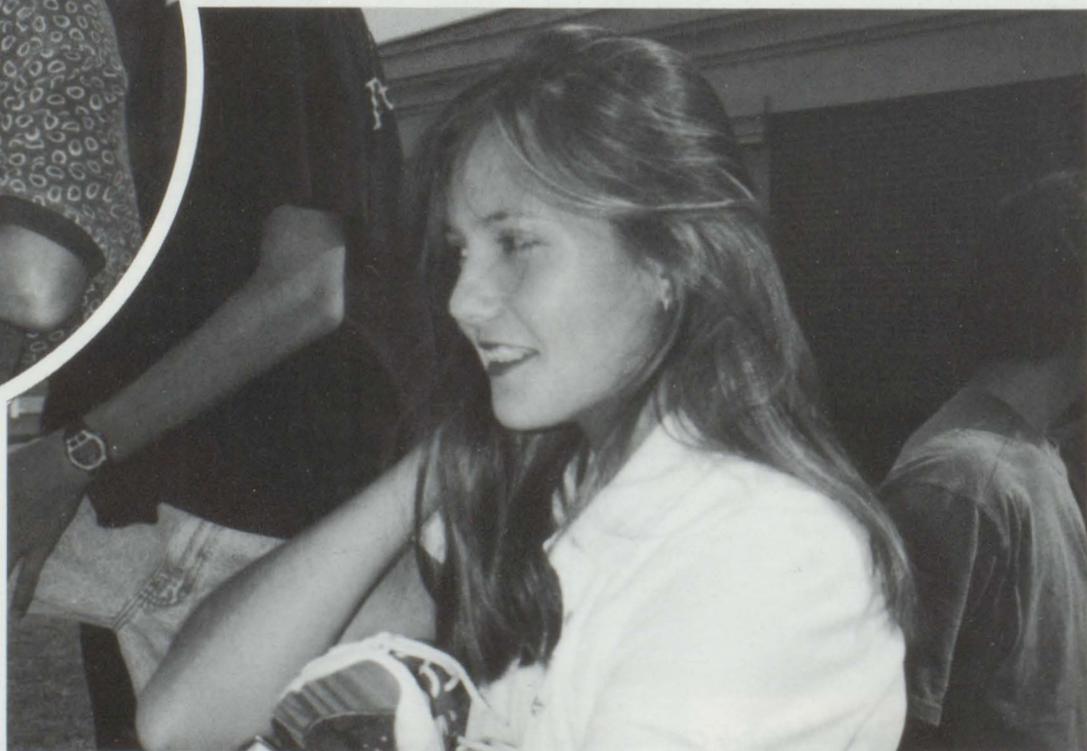

-Suzanne Hicks, 10th

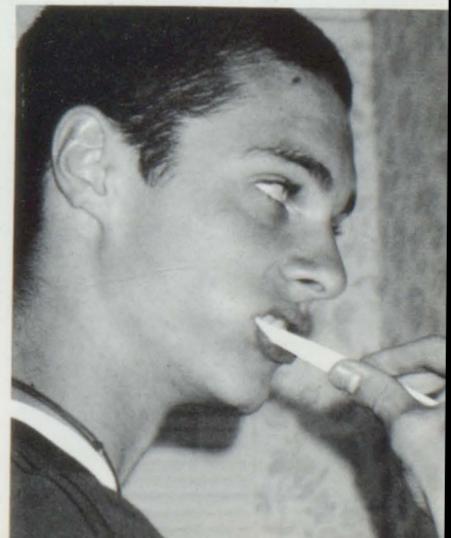

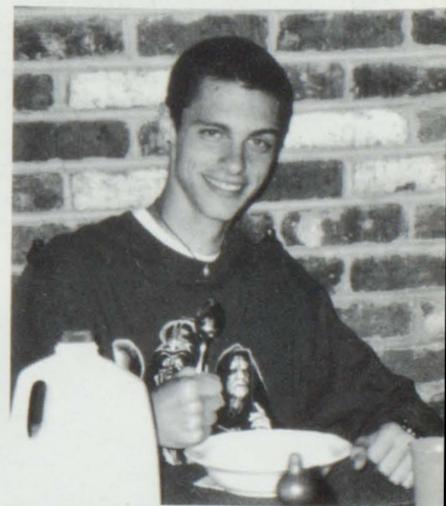

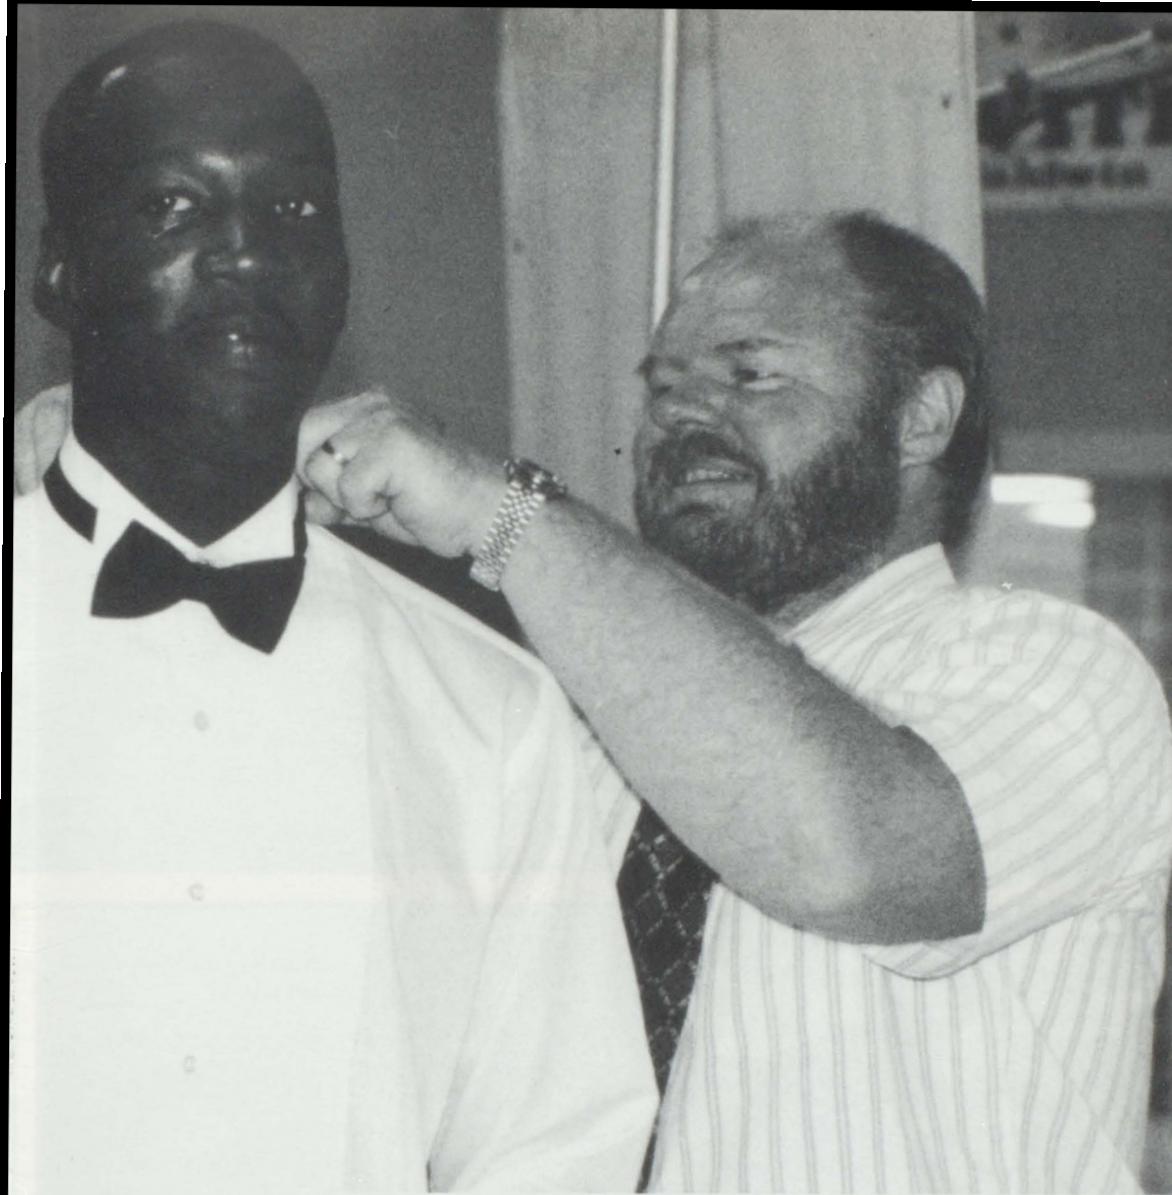

What's your favorite part of the day?

"I enjoy all parts of the day!"

-Mrs. Linda Brogden

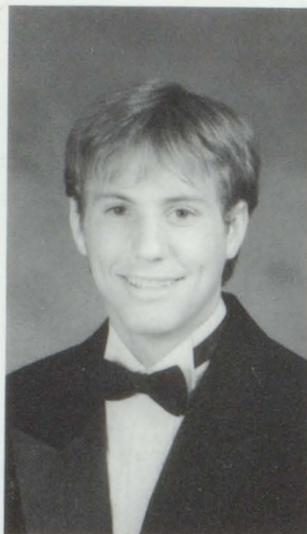

Just Right... An Olan Mills photographer makes sure Dwayne Koen looks perfect for his senior picture. It's all in the life of a senior.

That's Interesting... Do you think this class really knows what is going on? You can tell Chris Johnson is paying attention.

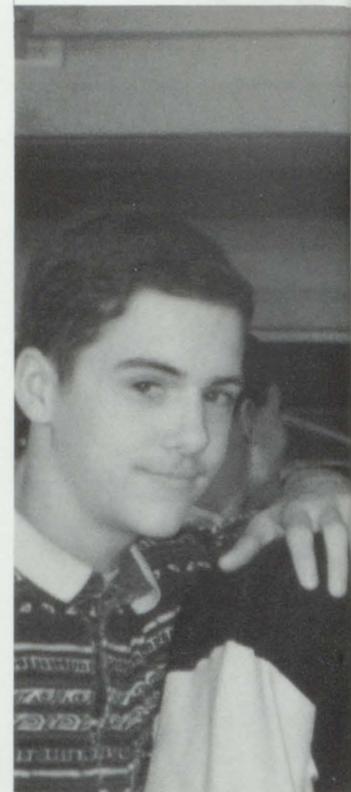

What You See is What You Get ...

Here at this school, we are what we are. We are unique. We stand together and stand strong for what we believe. We do not wear masks. We don't try to impress anyone. We please ourselves, no one else. We know that self-respect is the best gift that we can give ourselves. Truly, when you walk down these halls, what you see is what you get.

What teacher had the greatest influence on you?

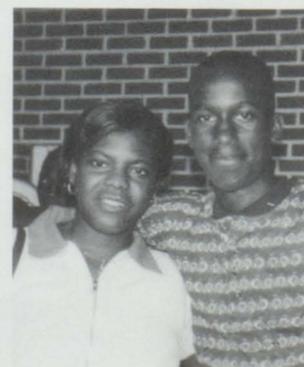

"My mom, because she's my mom!"
-Josh Caldwell, 12

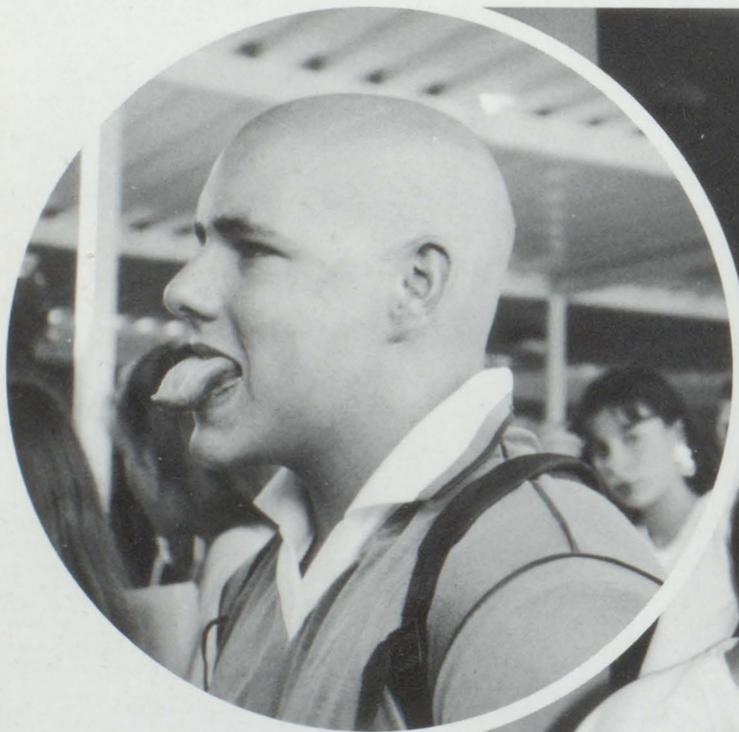

What do you like most about this school?

"Having fun with my friends."
-Kasey Cotten, 12

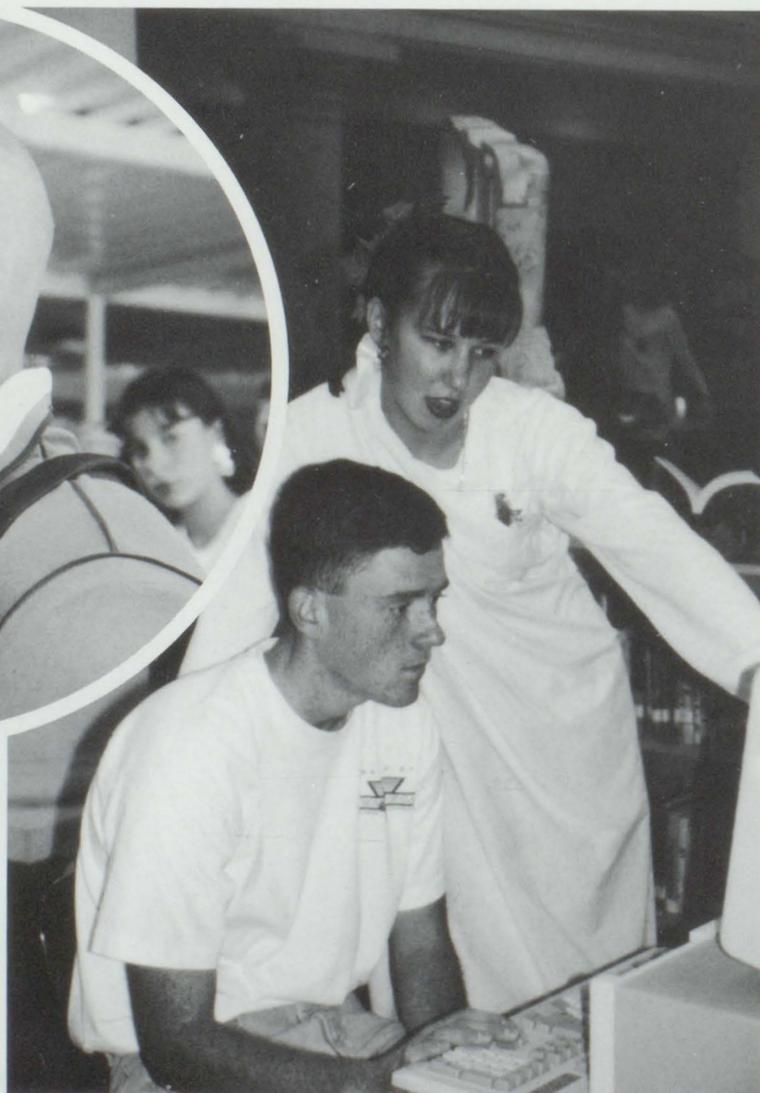

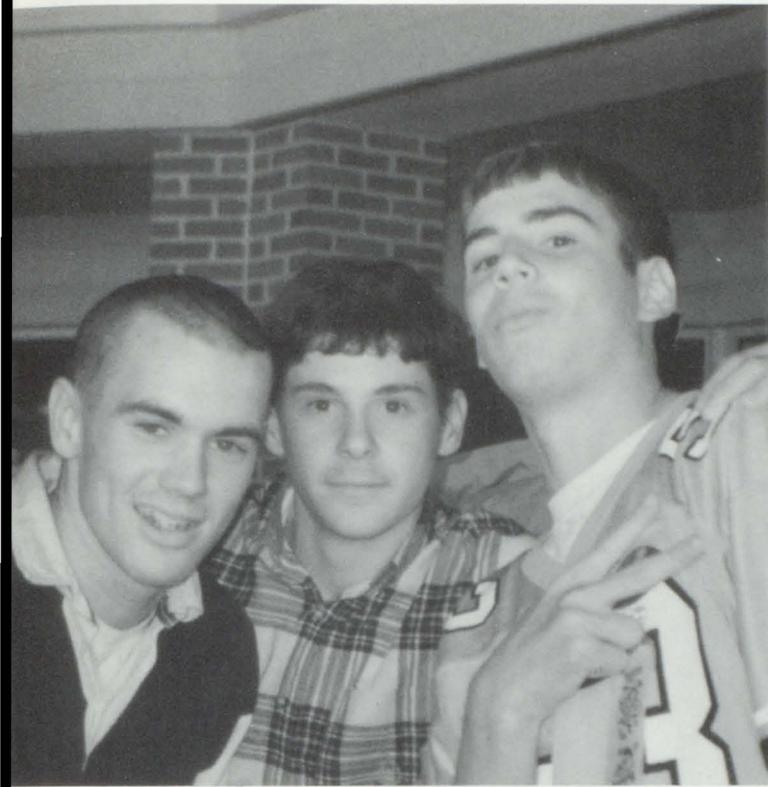

"The friendships I have gained."
-Carjetta Crook, 12

Girls know more!... Heather McKinley shows Brandon Weekley how to work the computers in the library. Girls are good for something.*

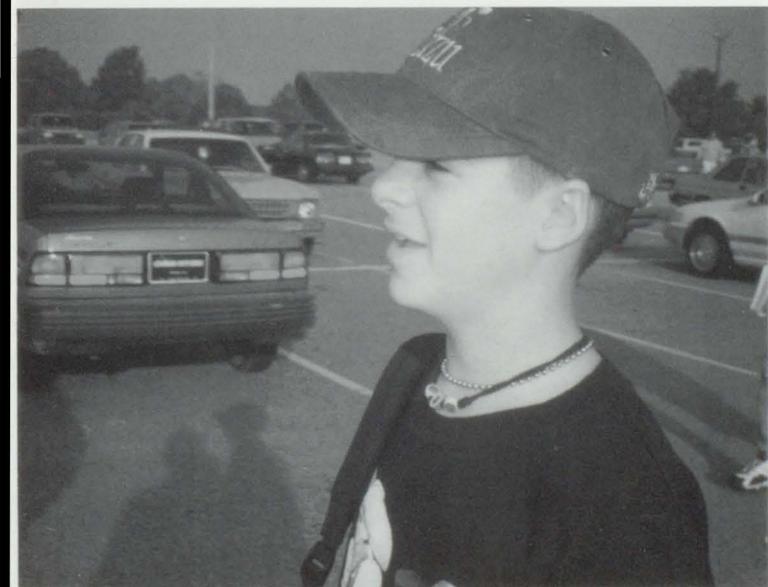

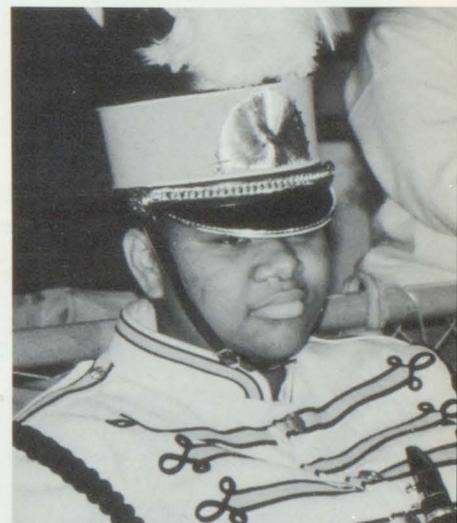

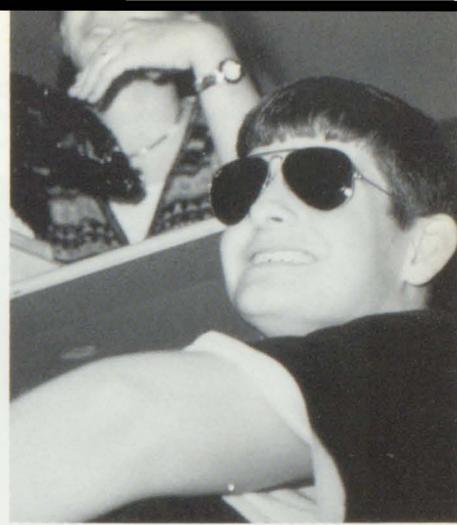

Aren't they cute?!? ... Chris Phillipy, Bucky Page, Micheal Dorough, and Jamie Lyles take time out to have fun.

What do you like about T.V. Production?

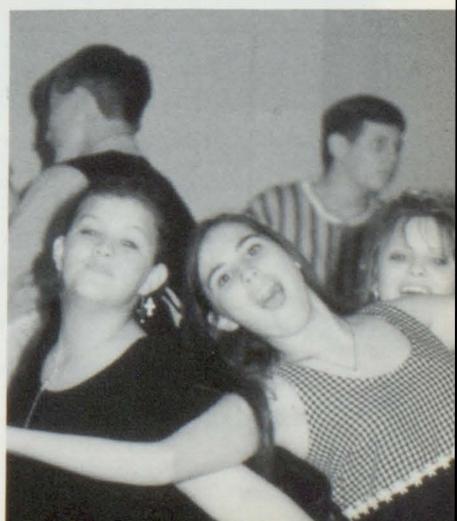

*"It's fairly easy and a lot of fun."
-Brian Aaron, 11*

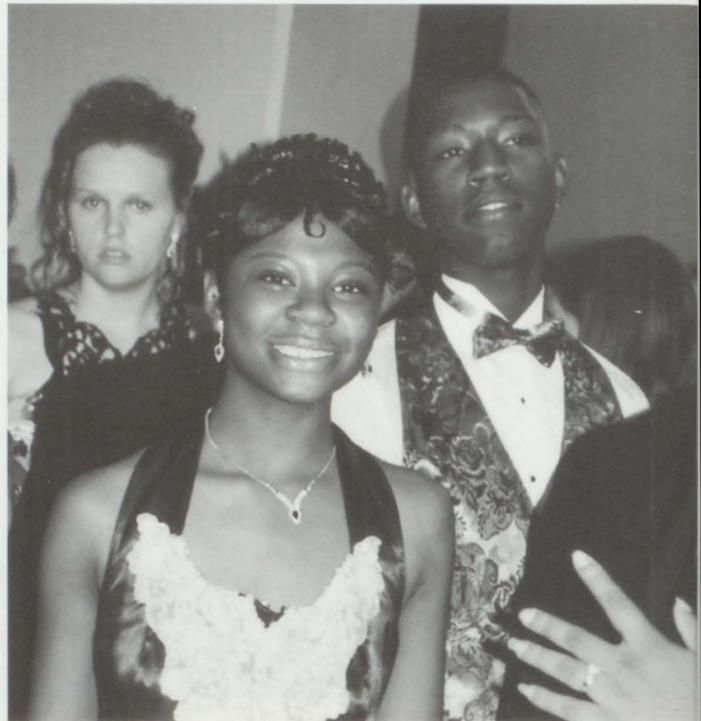

Homeward Bound ... Clay White is ready for 3 o'clock. Though many of us enjoy certain aspects of B.C.H.S., we are always anxious to get home.

Play it again, Ben ... Ben Yawn plays a classic tune after only a few moments of instruction.

A Perfect Fit

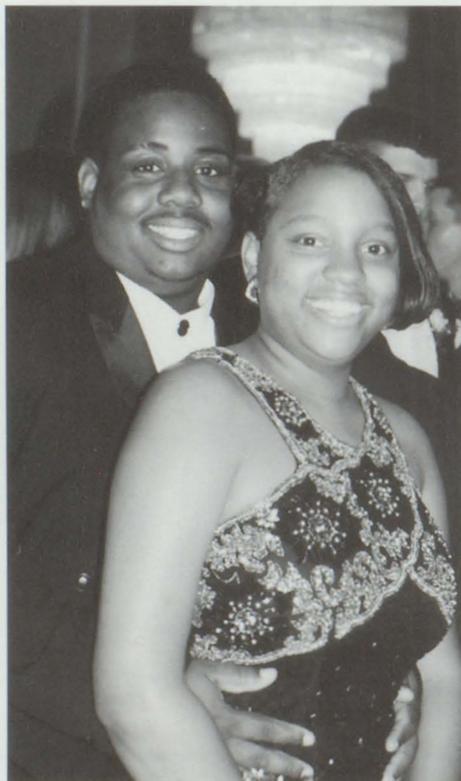

Look at me...Sherry Bryars and her date don't seem a bit nervous about showing off their moves on the dance floor

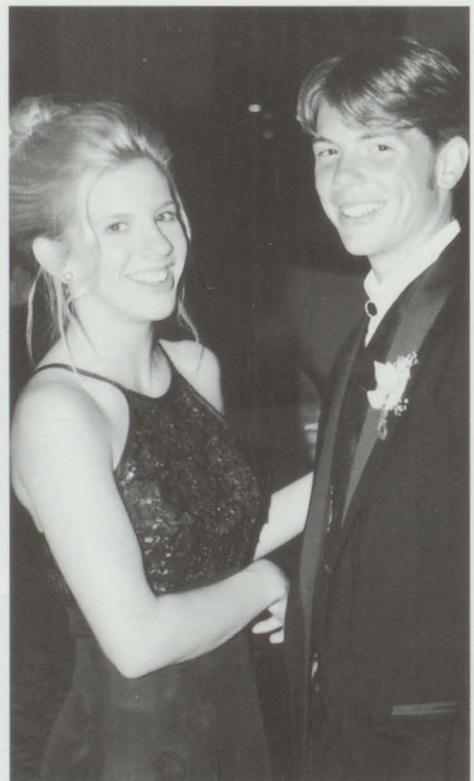

The Junior Senior Prom would not have been exciting if it were not for the Junior Class. They were required to sell magazines to cover the expensive occasion. The Junior Class hopes that next year's Prom will be just as exciting.

Picture Perfect...Bobby Stevens and Veronica Carter make a very cute couple, especially all dressed up at their Junior Prom.

Who's the guy...Mary Elizabeth Brogden shows up to her Junior Prom with an old friend? Or maybe not.

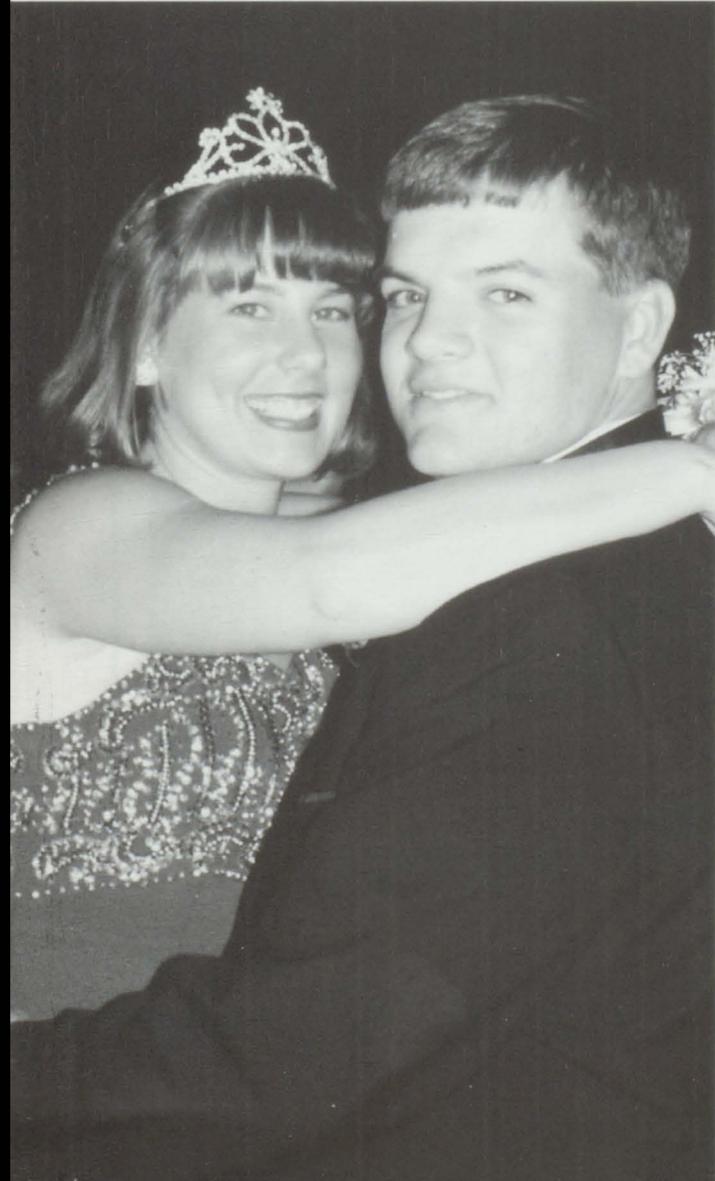

All eyes focused on... Something really weird must have caught Joey Whalley and Jessica Ethridge's attention to have stopped them from dancing.

Alone at last... The Prom always brings friends and couples closer together; Roy Mitchell and Shee Williams are just one example.

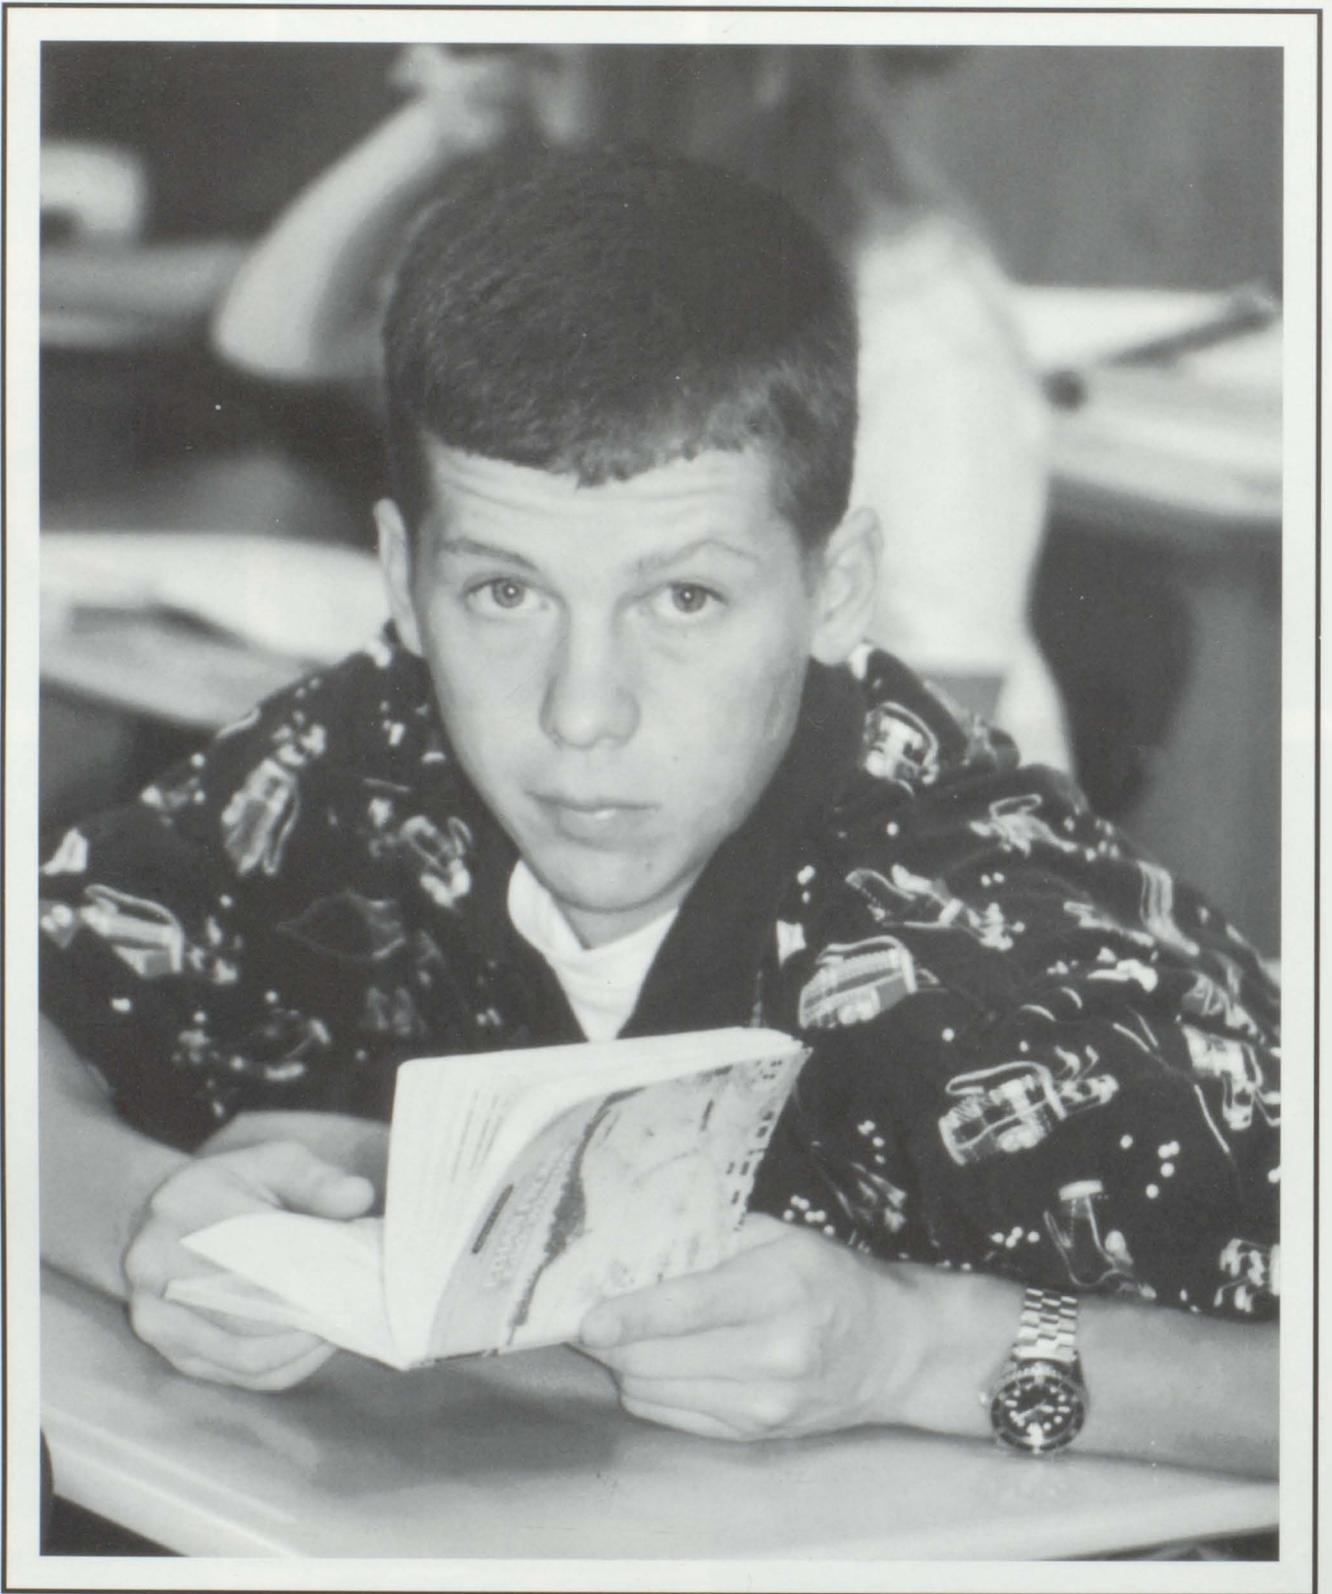

Wanna Dance... Sara Tanner urges David Rhames to get up and show his dancing skills but he seems a little too shy.

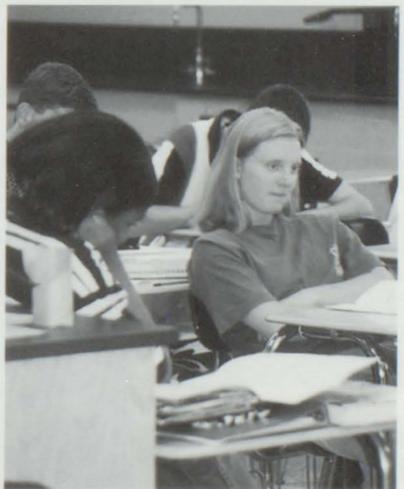

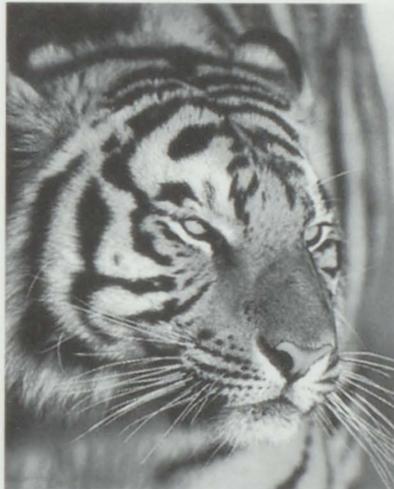

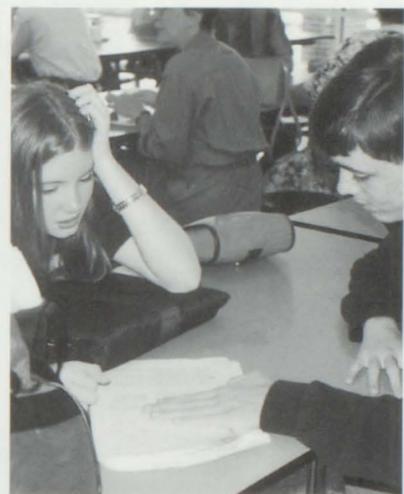

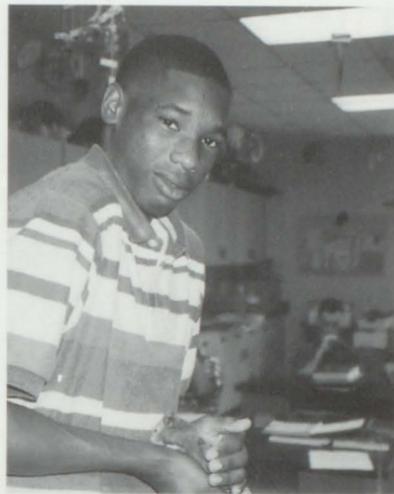

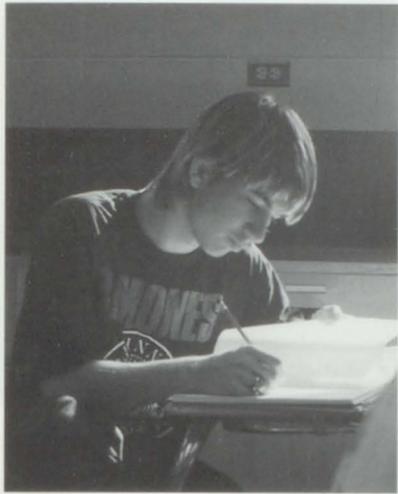

Looking Pretty... Shemeka Benjamin, Pateasa Ruffin, and Adrienne Williams get close for a picture while they wait in line.

Is this a dream?... Sometimes Prom can seem unrealistic. That's what Monica Helms and her date thought before they found out how much it costs to go to Prom.

In the spot light... It was Joe Hill's and Amy Bryars's night to SHINE, as they were crowned Prom Queen and King.

ACADEMICS: IT TAKES...CLASS

Graduation Carpe Diem!!!

In rain or in shine... Some eagerly look forward to it, and others dread it. For some, it means that carefree days of youth are gone forever, and for others it means that life is just beginning. All realize, though, that school has been a chance for us to become the individuals we are. Graduation is one night we will all remember; at least we all agree on that point!

Best in the class.. The Academic Honors students were Eric Chastang, Sarah DeWit, Brock Goodwin, Brooke Lovett, David Nall, Shane Sharp, Jennifer Helms, Melanee Robertson, Brooke Shackelford, and Heather McKinley.

xoxo.. Candi Huffaker shares last minute hugs and kisses with Hudz.

Welcome.. Salutatorians Brock Goodwin and Heather McKinley speak, despite the rain.

We are really excited... Long-time friends David Nall, Shane Sharp, and Jeff Brewton make a memory that will last a lifetime. Pictures last forever.

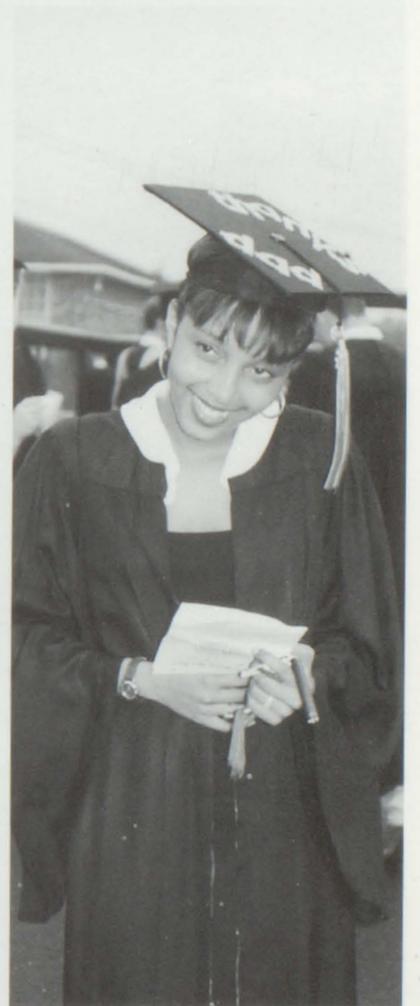

Leaders of the Pack... Hard work paid off for valedictorians Brooke Lovett, Melanee Robertson, Jennifer Helms, and for salutatorians Heather McKinley and Brock Goodwin.

My turn... Christina Brown is ready to get this rainy show on the road!!!

Step right up... Miss Ikner has the wonderful job of collecting fees. Chris Geck knows he won't walk until he pays up.

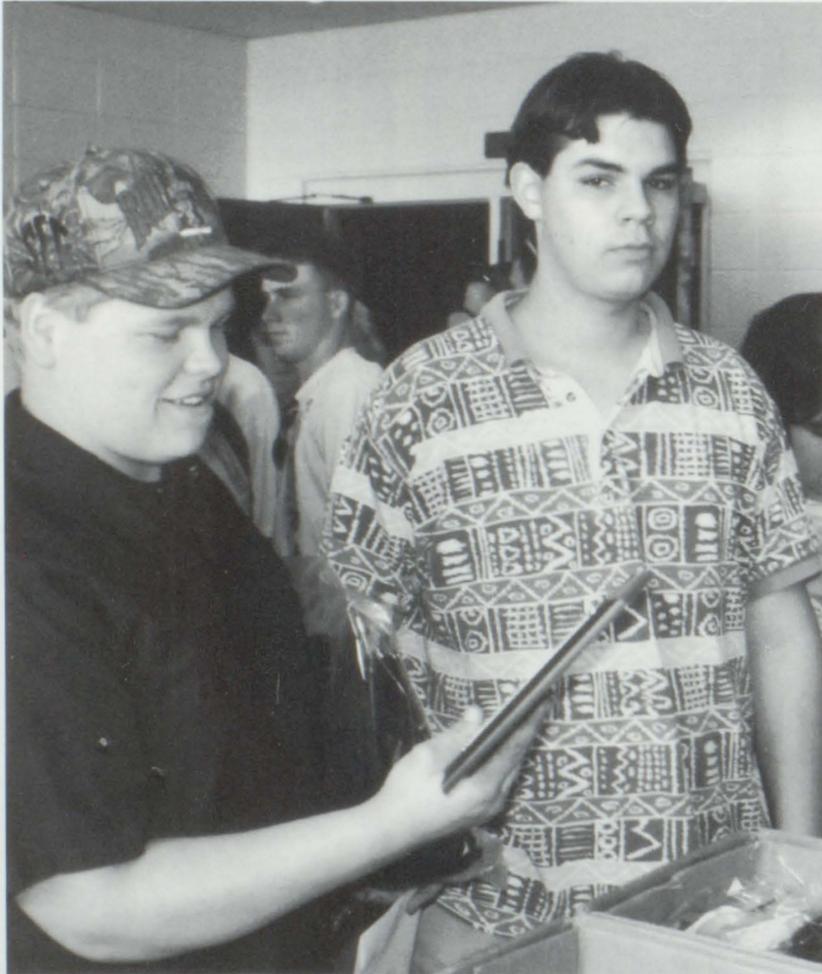

I'm ready, I'm scared... Tammy Palmer looks a little frightened about graduation; DaWanda Mims, however, looks as if she is READY to get on with life!

Thanks, Dad... Tasha Washington thanks her dad for helping make her who she is.

Graduation

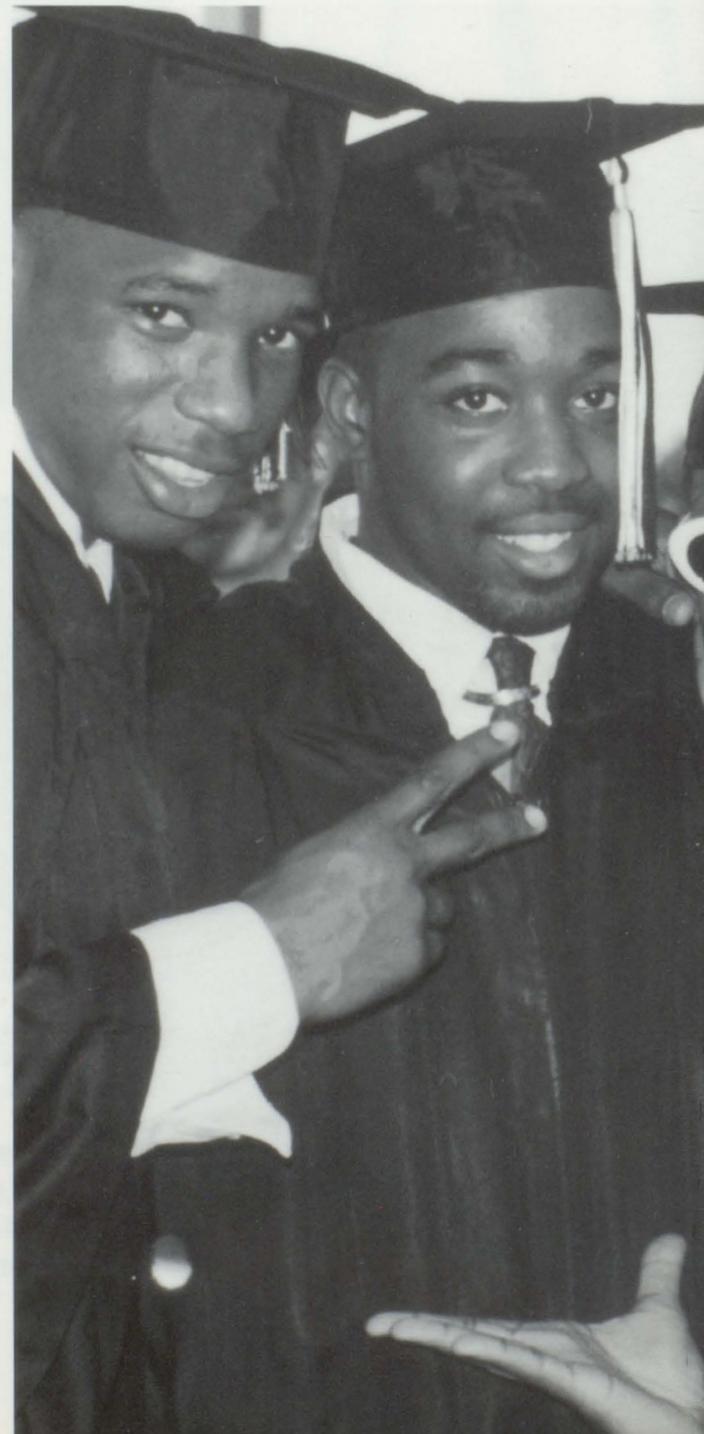

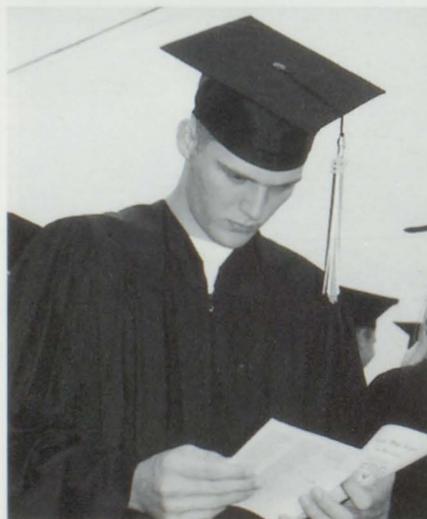

Rain, rain, go away... So it rained on Graduation night. Did it ruin the affair? OK, the band had to leave the scene. But did we "Go ahead on???" You'd better bet we did! Horray for the Class of 1997!!

We're ready... Jerry Shiver and Matt Jones pick up their caps and gowns. If they owe fees, the line stops here!*

2 Cool... Carlos English, Roderick Gaines, Marcus Armstead, and Jameel Gray are ready for the world. One problem...Is the world ready for them?*

I made it!!! Joey Norris checks just to make sure his name is on the program. He made it!!!*

Ready... Kasey Cotten, Carjetta Crook, Laura Craig, and Kim Cox wait (im)patiently to hear their names.

A little jittery??? Matt Rodgers finds Graduation a little scary.

Best buds... Marcus Garrett holds on tight to the friends he's made in school. Things like that are important!

Stacey? Tracey? Tracey? Stacey? and Jackie... They'll be friends forever, or is it obvious?

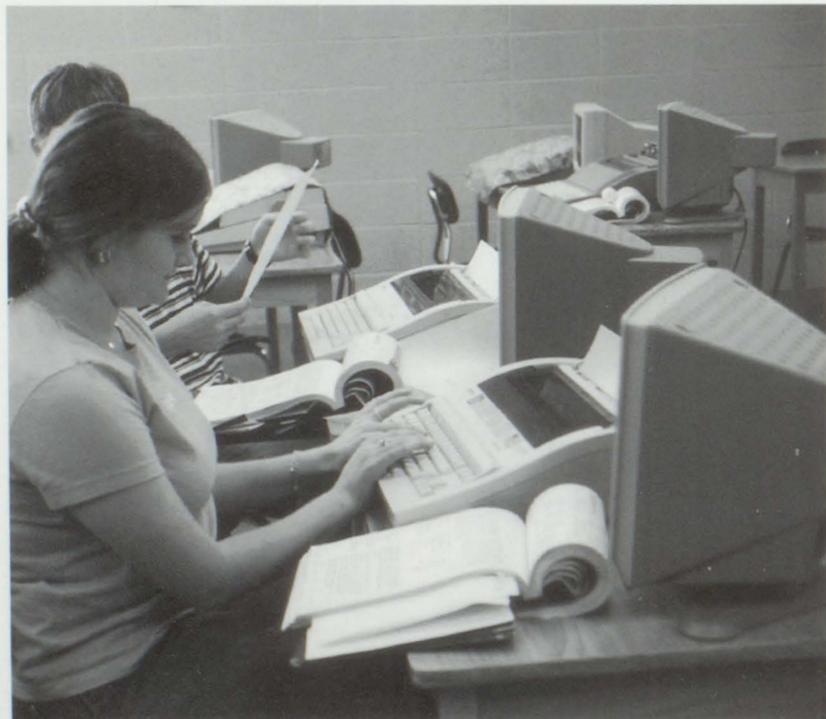

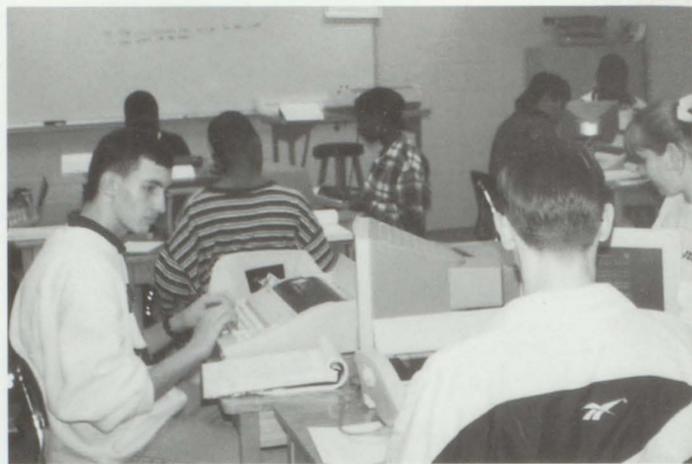

Show some leg!!! Jodie Overstreet dressed casually for this night. A hotter, wetter night would be hard to imagine!

Business Education

Years ago, business classes would have been filled with girls, not boys, who would go on to become secretaries. Today, business classes are required of all students entering high school. Because all jobs are in some way connected to computers and typing skills, business classes are busy as ever getting everyone ready for the world outside of school!

I'm almost finished!!! Albert Wasdin races the typing students' worst enemy---the clock. Trying to beat the timer can be really frustrating.*

Hey...St rla Byrd! You're not supposed to look at the home keys!!!*

That's it!!! Brandy Shiver will agree typing takes coordination.*

Ah-ha!!! Michelle Levesque has this all figured out. No problem!*

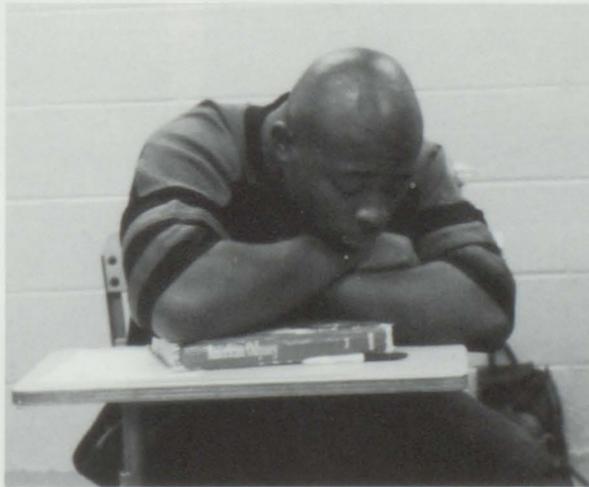

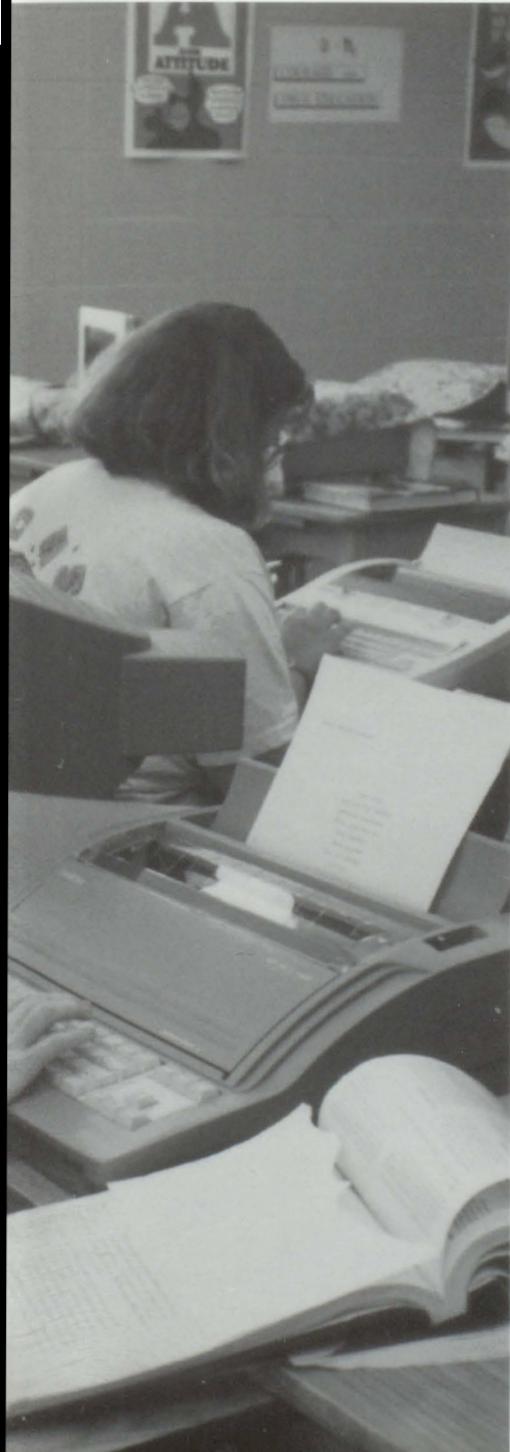

Is this right??? Coleman Jones just can't understand why he's coming up with the wrong answer, so Quinn Middleton steps in to help.

Social Studies

Who was Fulton? When did Hawaii become a state? Why did the United States join World War I? Did Hitler like ANYONE? Where in the world is Indiana??? These are the types of questions the Social Studies Department has to answer, and believe it or not, most students don't know the answers to them. Our hats go off to you, social studies teachers!

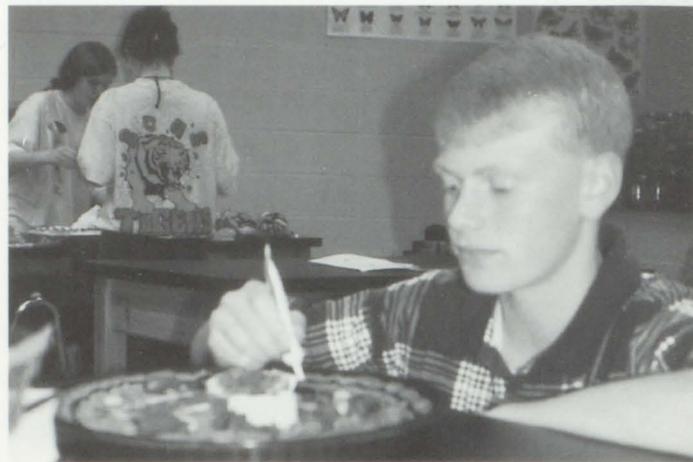

What do YOU think??? Daphne Hicks seeks reassurance from Kelly Glenn. Two minds are better than one!

NOW's not the time!!! Robert Johnson thinks he can get away with sleeping in class. Maybe he CAN!

Ready? Jamie Mixon, are you ready to give your English ruler report?

Math

Perfection...Lauren Bounds's project looks almost too good to eat. Who knew that a science project could look so good?

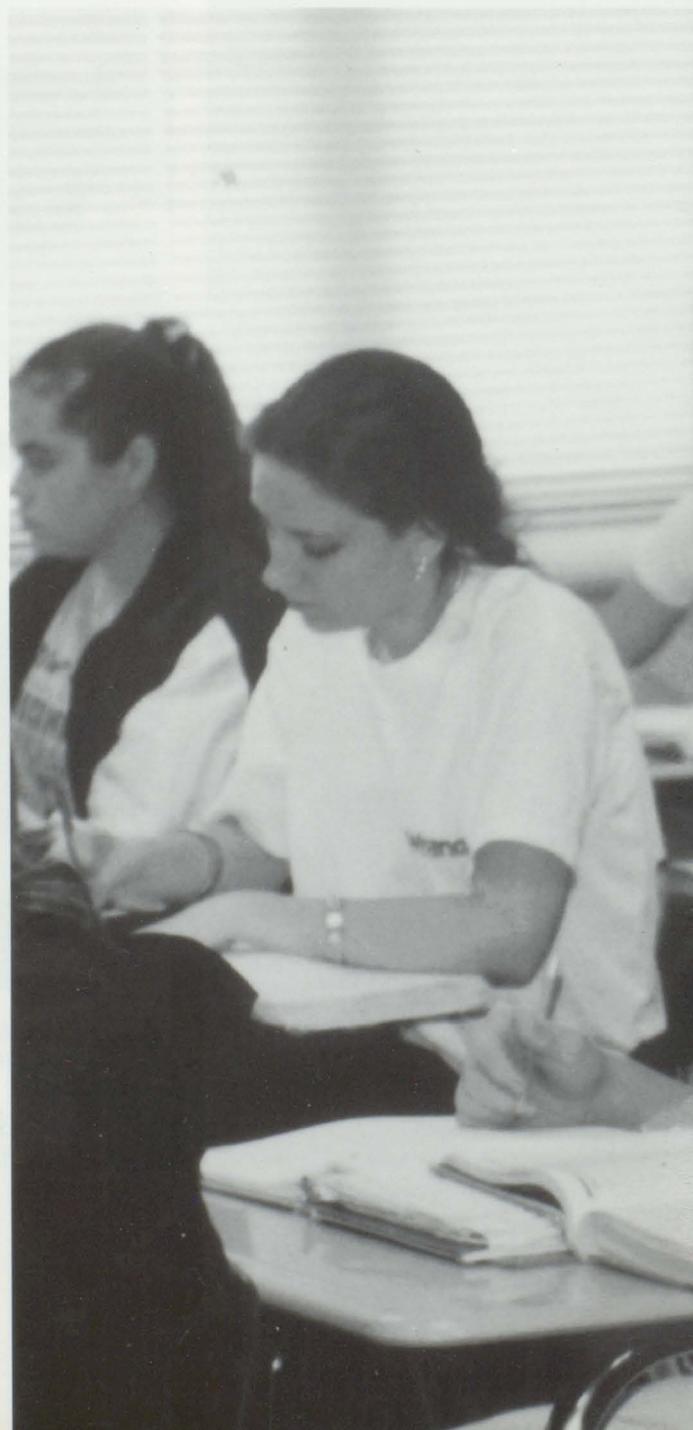

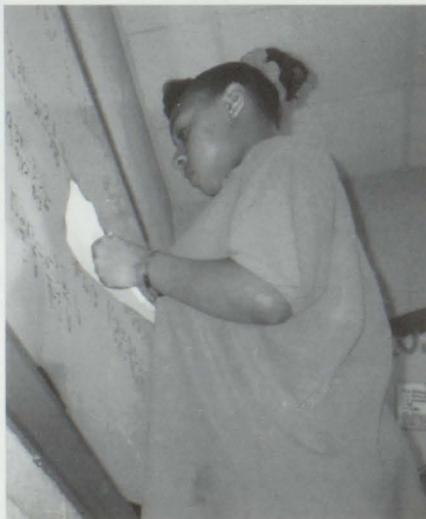

When it comes to deciding what courses are to be taken, math is definitely a must. Math is a subject that varies from accounting to Algebra III. It is everywhere we turn and will always be there, no matter where we go. It may be a pain now, but mastering it will pay off in the future.

Taking Notes...Kim Cushion writes down a few notes during math class. Paying close attention is important.

Always Something...Leland Harris doesn't look too happy. Any student should know; with math there is always homework.

Hope this is right...Tori Kyles diligently works out her math problem on the board. Learning which formula to use is always tough.

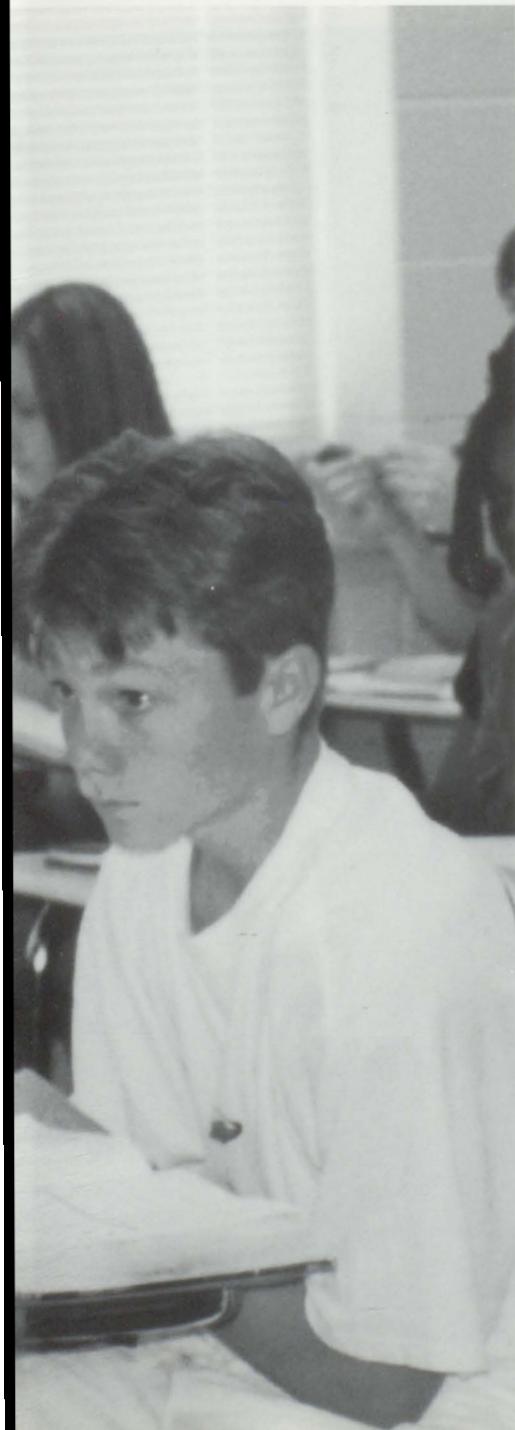

See Anything...Nicole Christiana studies the organisms under the microscope. You never know what you'll find growing in Mrs. Hayes's class.

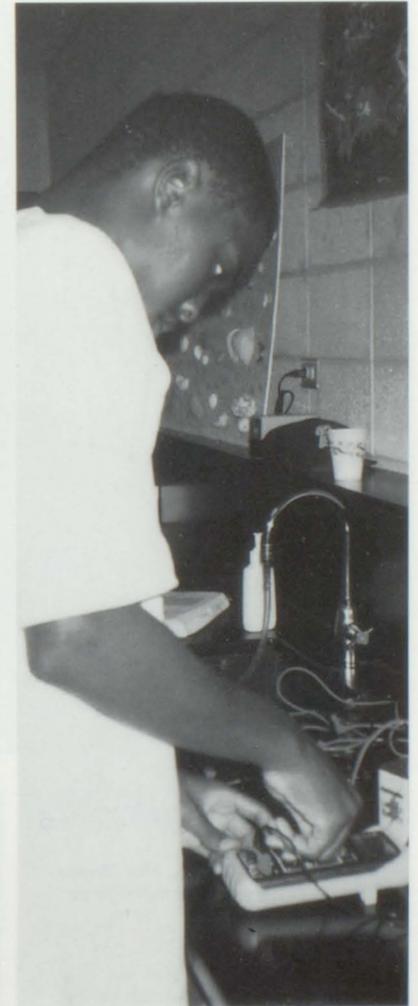

Science

There are so many fields of science available that there is bound to be something exciting happening. Physics students stay busy with all those equations and formulas. Human anatomy and marine biology students can't stop dissecting plants and animals. All sciences provide students with knowledge that will help them all their lives, no matter what field they enter.

MMM. Yummy...Sarah Reeves can't help but to think of lunch. What could be a better way to start the day off right?*

Fun in the Sun...Sara Smith, Miranda Powell, and Dana Owens play around while on a marine biology trip. Sculpting a sand turtle is definitely more fun than being in the classroom.*

Precision...Joseph Lamar connects wires with caution, one can never be too careful.*

Computers and Television

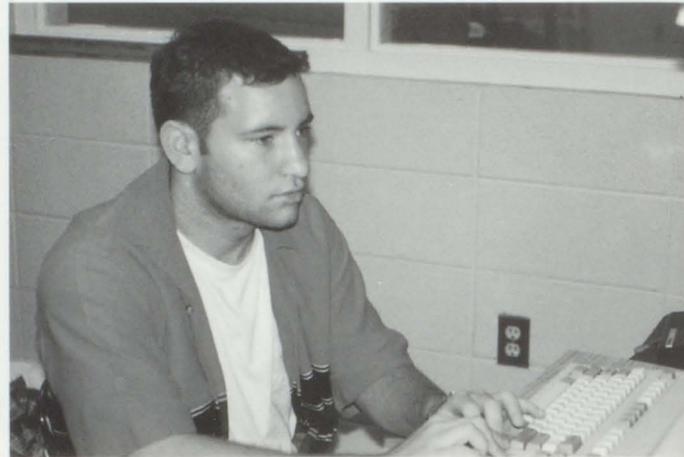

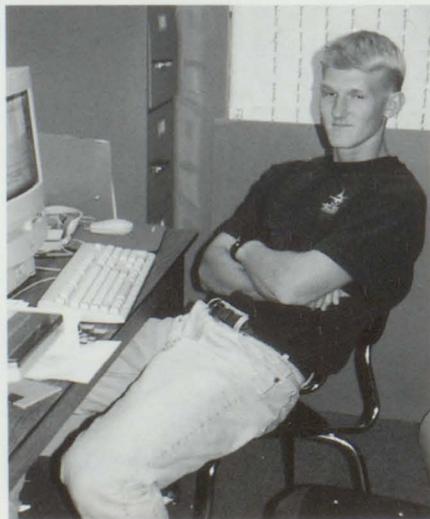

What now? ... Skipper Sullivan looks confused. Computers always have a way of catching even the most prepared student off guard.

Nice tractor... Jonathan Owens came up with this original idea for his O.C. project.

Smile, you're on Tiger T.V... Matt Thomas is focusing on various events to film for the morning announcements.

On strike... Aaron Prosser gives up. Computer Science definitely has its ups and downs.

Working women... Carjetta Crook and Nydia English can't even find the time for a picture.

Hey, Look!... Kiley Kolb can barely keep her composure. Computers can be exciting even though Dusty Franklin doesn't think so.

Work, work, work... Donna Brown works away at her work station. Going online is always a learning experience.

Decisions, decisions... Mary Langham can't seem to decide how to answer her computer questions. Computer Science isn't just fun and games.

This is life... Bill Biles sits back and plays some tunes. It's always nice to get away from it all.

Drivers' Education

Drivers' Education helps students prepare for the open road by teaching rules and regulations for safe driving. In our hectic lives, being able to drive well gives us one less thing to worry our parents about.

Listen up...These drivers' ed students know they'd better pay attention in class; nobody wants to fail drivers' ed.

Cruisin'... Carlos French relaxes as he finishes another simulated driver's test.

Get Ready. Get Set... Kristen Armstead gets ready for her next segment of simulated driving. Looks like fun!

Aloha!!! Jessica Hadley and Renee Stewart look festive in their outfits for their Hawaiian party. Experiencing different cultures is always a fun part of home ec.

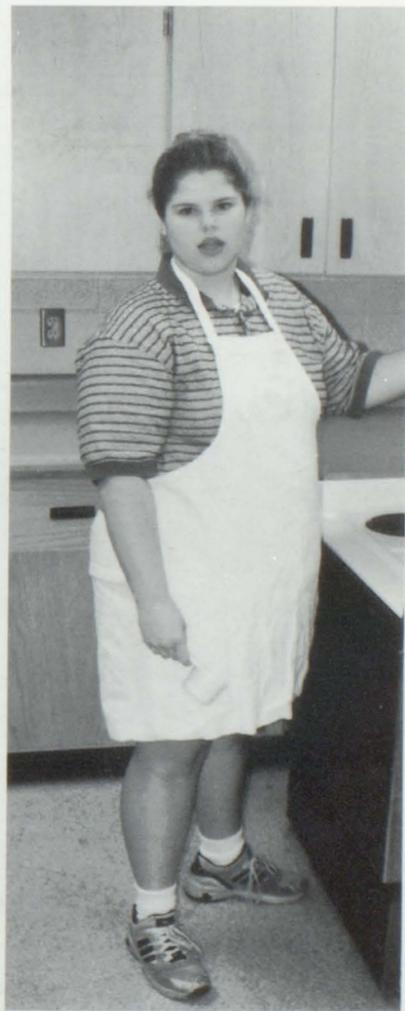

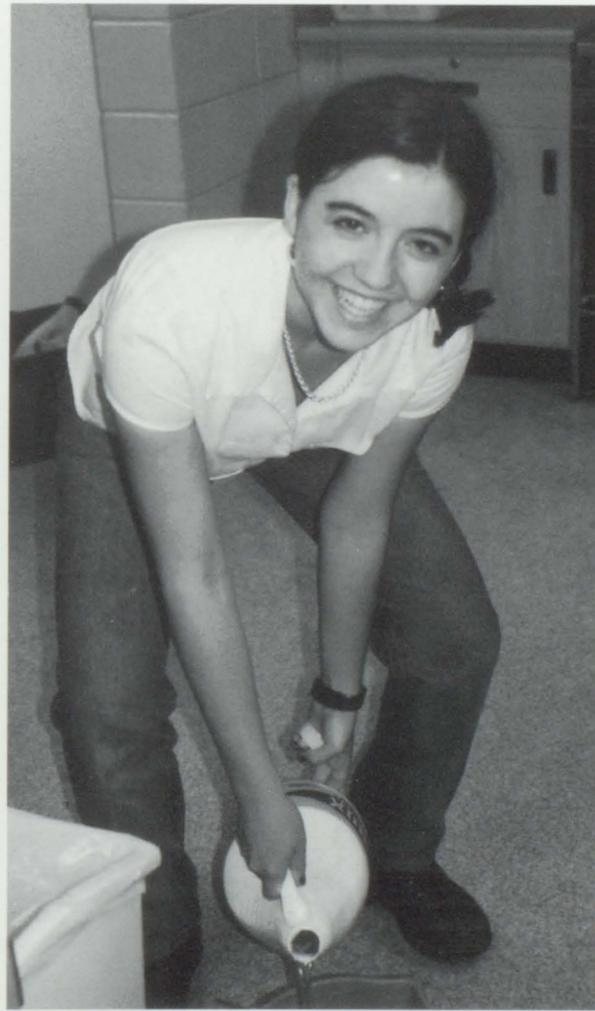

Got milk??? The best way to learn is by doing
We're ready to work!

Home Economics

Home Economics is a valuable class to take. Students learn how to take care of their family by learning to cook, sew, and clean properly. College is right around the corner and we'll all be out of the house soon, so now is the time to take this class.

Class dismissed...Rachel Hayles prepares to clean up the kitchen. It's not ALL fun and games!

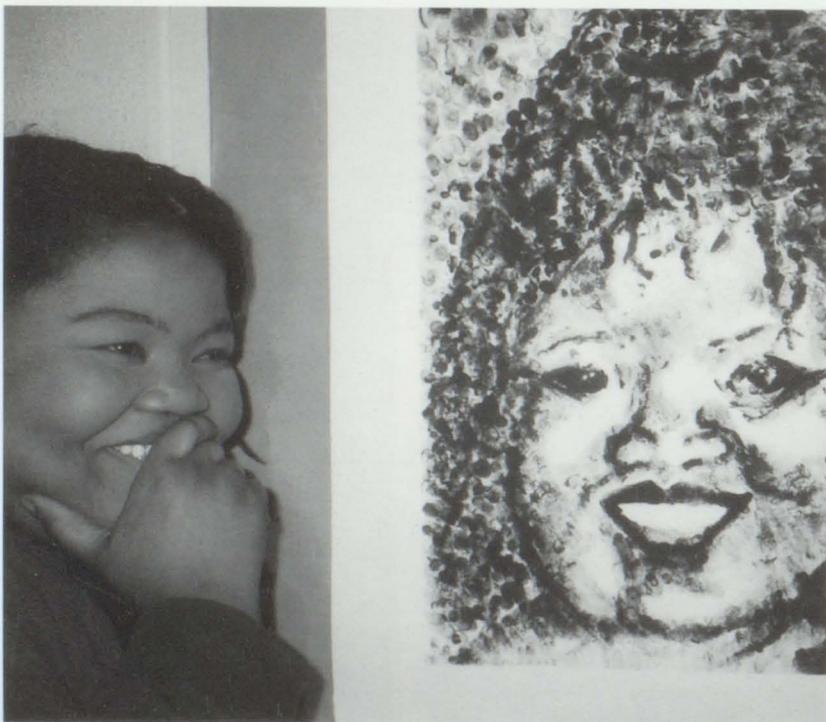

Is it done yet??? Jessica Owens gets ready to check out her masterpiece. Going into the kitchen is one of the best parts about home ec.

Art

This is how it's done... Mrs. Harris shows Candi Huffaker how to start her art project. Mrs. Harris is always there for helpful advice.

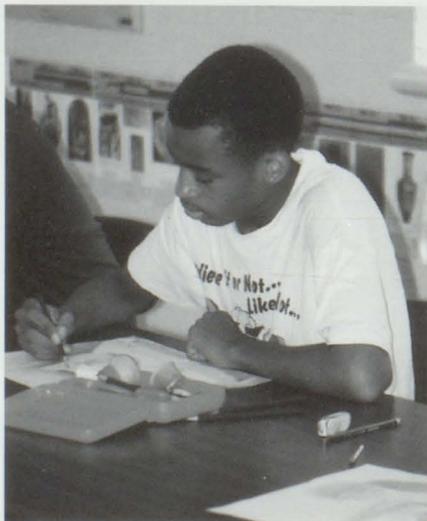

Art provides a way for students to put their ideas and emotions into a work of art. Hidden talents emerge where students never knew possible. Students take art for different reasons: for fun, to learn, or as a starting point for an artistic career. Mrs. Harris has miraculously transformed many students into talented artists. So give it a try! You never know, you could be the next Michelangelo!

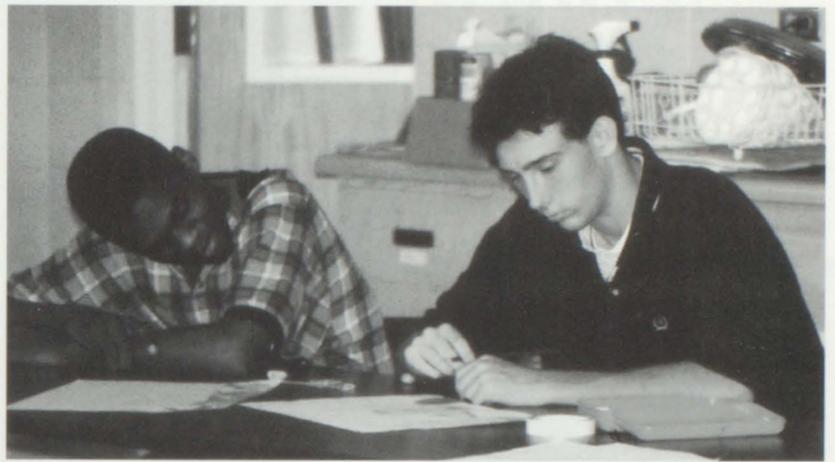

Mirror Images... Pam Marshall is shocked by her own talent. Only a teacher like Mrs. Harris can bring out a student's talent so well.

Congratulations!!! Rachael Knight straightens her first-place poster; it's gotta look perfect!

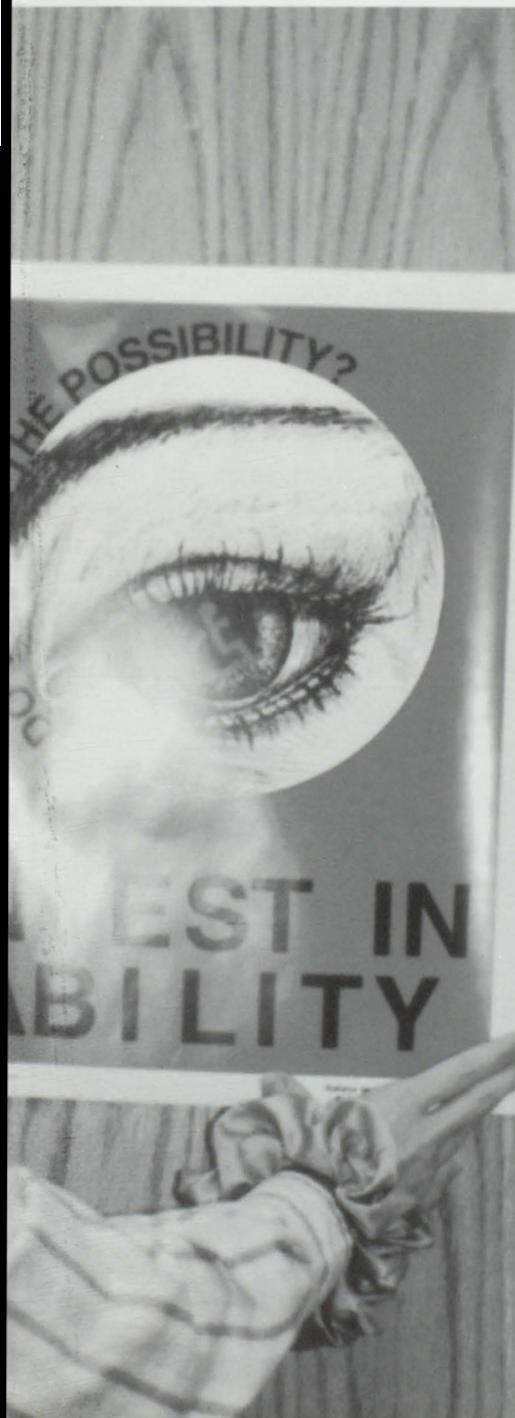

Careful... John Gray slowly adds the finishing touch to his picture. Watch out Leonardo DiVinci!

Art Projects... These art students are proud to display their projects. Matt Bryd, Sean Clark, Ashley Howell, Jamie Howell, Jared Keener, and John Janes all worked hard to earn their A's.

What do you think... Chris James asks for Willie Jackson's opinion on his art project. Even the best of students needs help sometimes.

All Smiles... Peter Stevens and Johnathan McCall smile as they show off their "Bay Bear Fan Chair." What devoted fans!

Happy Halloween... Mandy Kleinatland, Darrell Rider, J.W. Joiner, and Amber Livingston pose with their Halloween art projects.

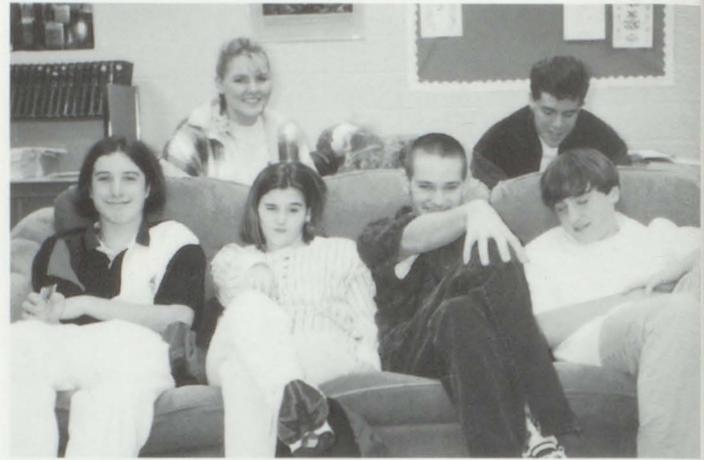

Have some pumpkin pie... Tonya Blackburn and Candi Huffaker enjoy their estover art project.

Academic Resource

This gifted education program offers BCHS's students advanced courses that better develop their abilities and encourage creative thinking. These students endure long research papers, projects, and they give excellent presentations. Most AR students participate on the Model U N Team.

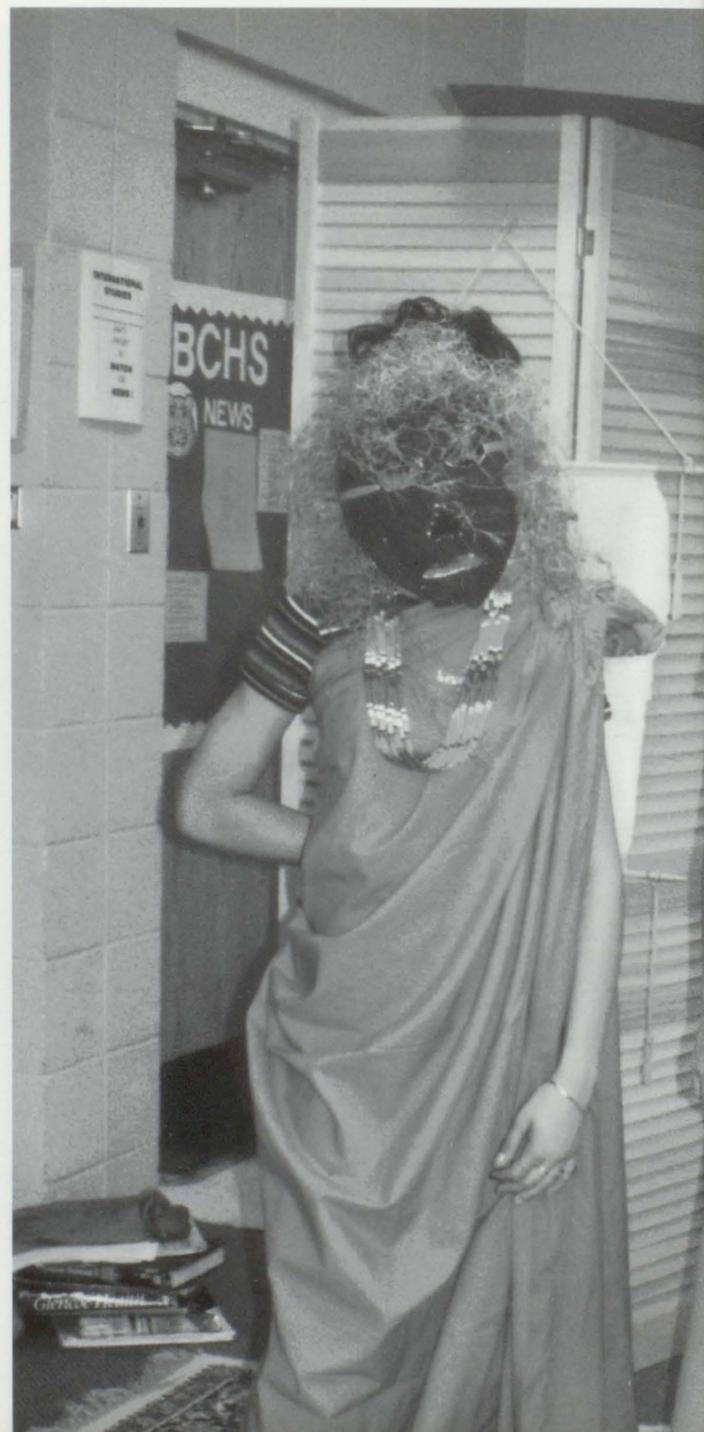

Sassy...Nick Snyder, Sarah Mee, Daniel Tuttle, Chad Fetters, Christina Brown, and Jim Hinote enjoy the soft AR sofa in lieu of hard desks.

All together now... These characters came together for a group snap shot to capture their works of art.

Who would these creatures be... These AR students are dressed as the characters of Antigone.

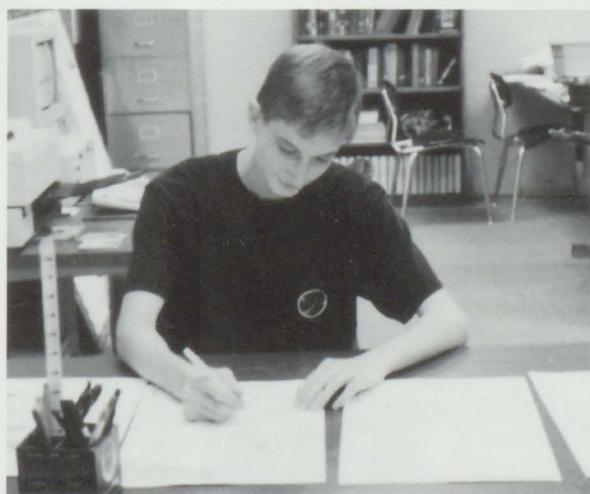

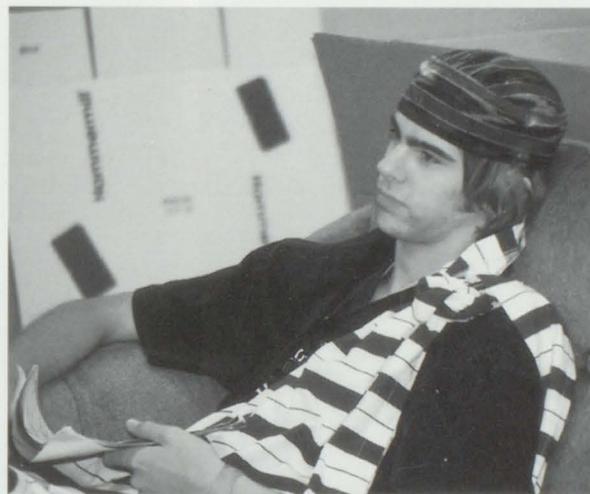

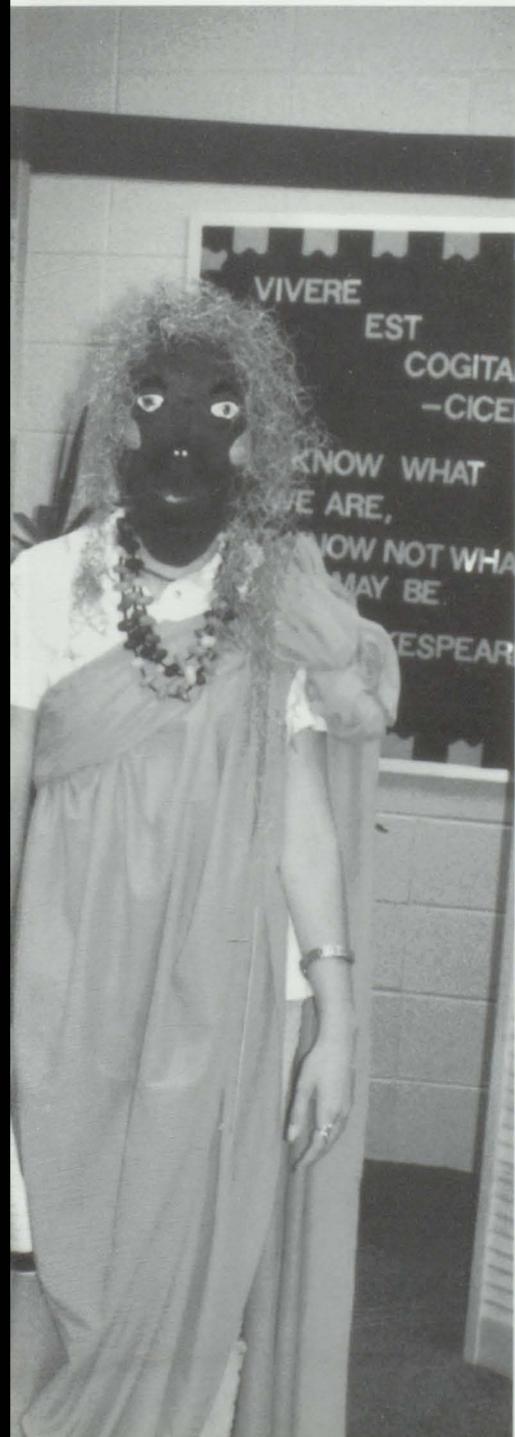

Merry Christmas... Tonya Stewart takes time out of her busy schedule to pose for a picture. Everyone needs a little break during Christmas time.

All smiles... Jessica Kersh, Carl Jones, Shane Sharp, David Cox, Tonya Stewart, and Chris Anderson gather for an AR party.

In the air... Ben Denton demonstrates the fine art of juggling in AR class.

Is it over yet... Michael Mee sits back and waits out the rest of the period. Keeping up with assignments can be very difficult.

Decisions, decisions... Ben Yawn is using his creative thinking to make this his best research paper yet. Ben is just hoping he meets all the requirements.

Nap Time... Antigone character, Shane Sharp, curls up in a chair for a nap. AR can wear these characters out.

JROTC

top: Tommy Palmer, Kerry Clewell, Kelly Wilson, Jonathan Owens, Travis Clopton; middle: Wynter Crook, Charlie Hall, Veronica Jackson; Nina Lambert; bottom: Krista McCarey, Deshun Rogers, Lakeshia January

The BCHS Air Force Junior ROTC claims to "Build Better and More Productive Citizens." This claim is a reality. Sgt. Clewell and Col. Hank see to it that these kids tow the line: they stay busy at pep rallies, football games, banquets, parades, and at competitions during the year; they also are responsible for taking care of "Old Glory" every day.

Up, up, and away!!! JROTC students get an idea of what flying a C-130 flight would be.

We won!!! Stephanie Russell, Nick Vinson, Lee Anne Grdjan and Vince Ruta show off the victories of '96-97!

1st row: M.Craver,S.Taylor,R.Gaines,L.January,N. Griffin,J. Waldrop,
2nd row: B.Decker,M Jones,D Johnson,A.Mason,C.Stephens,C.Cole-

C.Baggett, C.Quinley, M.Mason, M.Buckley, 4th row: C.Irby, Sgt.
Clewell

Dance fever... Amanda Booth and Vince Ruta, top right, were elected
Queen and King of the 1996 Military Ball.

March 2, 3, 4... Presenting the flags at pep rallies is just one of the privileges of being in JROTC at BCHS!

Oral Communications

Oral Communications helps students with public speaking by teaching them the proper ways to present themselves in a speaking situation. O.C. is now a required subject for all tenth grade students. Although they dislike the idea of standing in front of their peers to speak, most students end up liking the class.

I don't know??? Miranda Powell questions Jeremy Williams's computer abilities. She's a smart girl!

Work, Work, Work... Jamin Collins works hard on her O.C. project in Mrs. Koepf's class. Hard work pays off.

I'm coming down now... Brett Morrow gives warning before he attempts to come down from his presentation.

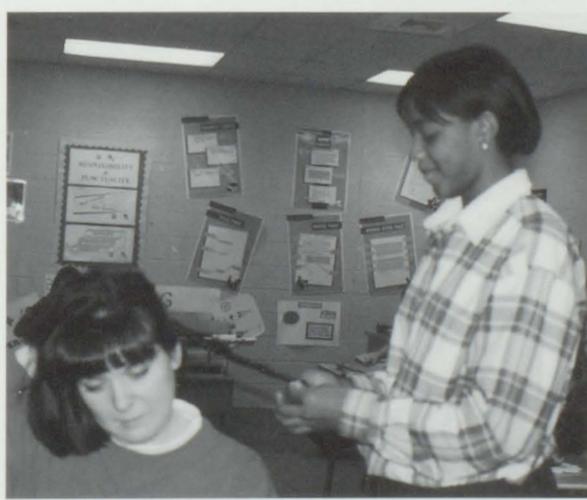

Watch out!!! Zachary Lane sits as far away from the "kitty." Maybe he's smart to do so!

Drink it up... Nema Etheridge chugs down the fountain favorite from Sonic while Stephani Lores enjoys her food.*

Almost done... Tori Kyles waits patiently as Staci Couch demonstrates how to add a hair extension. So that's how it's done!*

Perfect!!! Leandra Crook uses Mrs. Meredith as the subject of her presentation. Who's next?*

Go, Mrs. Hudson!!! Mrs. Hudson gives tree climbing a try. Don't hurt yourself, Hudz.*

Foreign Languages

Fiesta!!! Tom Sanks has had just about all the excitement he can stand for one day. He says, "Let's get back to the classroom. I would rather work than eat!"

Goethe, a German philosopher, once said: "A man who is ignorant of foreign languages is ignorant of his own." BCHS offers students two foreign languages, French and Spanish. (English seems to be a foreign language to some students...) Mrs. Stovall and Madame Land do their best to make language-learning fun. There are pinatas, crepes, folksongs, picnics, and songs.

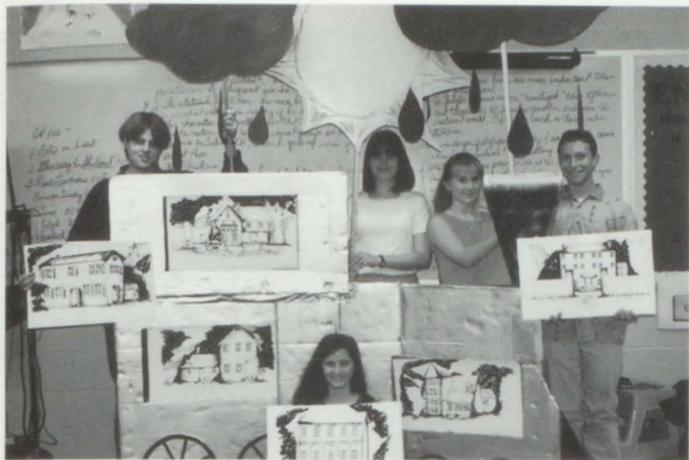

Now, Kiddies!! Eileen Dyess, Nema Etheridge, Leanne Stewart, Tonya Blackburn, Jeanne Lee McMillan, Mary Brogden, and Matt Barrett play at the French Club Picnic.

Caramba!!! The Spanish students celebrate Cinco de Mayo or Spanish Independence Day by smashing a pinata! OOh, boy!!!

Ooh, Cher!!! Kelli Lambert participates with the others as Bill Russell, a real, authentic Cajun from Louisiana coaches.

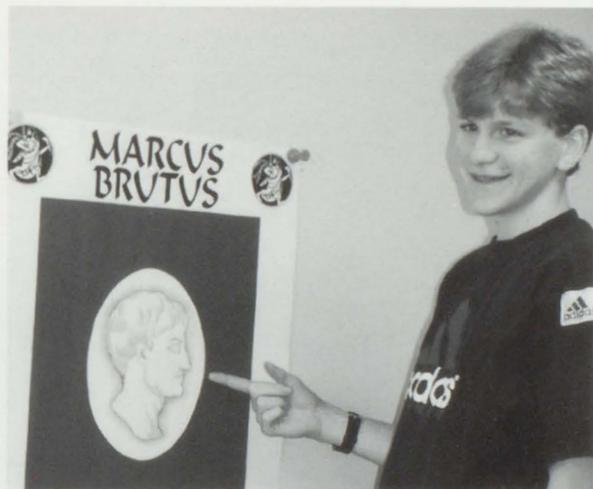

What creativity!!! Zachary Lane, Ricki Gilliland, Amber Corley, Courtney Scott, and John Stewart fulfill requirements for Mrs. Clemmons...

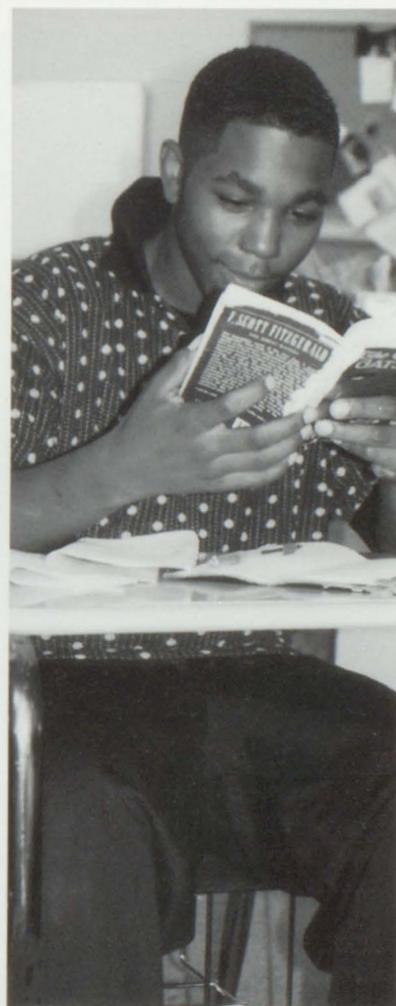

English

Research papers, essays, novels, poems, themes, plot, characterization, vocabulary, book reports.... English is a required subject, no matter what grade students are in. ACT and Exit Test pose real problems to students who haven't paid attention in this class. Don't, however, think the teacher gets off scott free here. English papers are the hardest papers to grade!

Check him out... Michael Smith uses his artistic talent to draw a perfect rendering of Brutus for a project on Julius Caesar. He's good, isn't he?

Nice clothes... Ellen Taylor, Kelly Coats, and Michael Taylor dress the parts for Jane Eyre. The glasses and pipe are a giveaway, Mr. Rochester.

Deep thought... Derek Moore finds The Great Gatsby is really a great book. He can't tear himself away.

Chorus

All I want for Christmas is...The BCHS Chorus Department gives its all as a special gift from them to us.

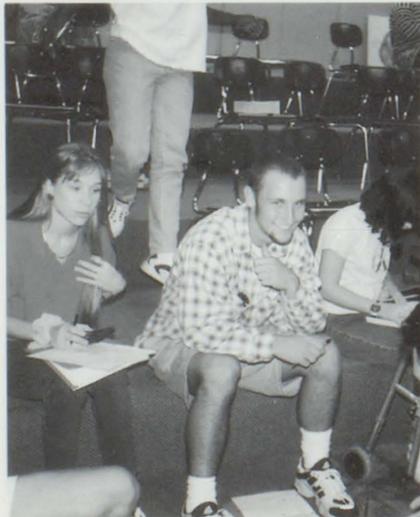

The B.C.H.S. Chorus Department is made up of talented individuals. The group had a very productive year, competed in many competitions, and excelled at everything they put their "voices" to.

What do you see...Kenosha Graves, Tijani Little, Mrs. Atkins, Joann Fischer, Melanie Parker, and Anúa Horace all point to something...but what?

Smile...The combined choir all join in for a picture. What a lively group.

Thumbs Up...Frank Brantley gives music appreciation a thumbs up. Don't you agree, Margaret?

Tabitha Cole, Mrs. Atkins, Joanne Fisher, Greg Butler, Melanie Parker, Tiffani Little, Anita Horace, and Sarah McKinley

Ladies Ensemble: M Parker, D Crawford, A Horace, V Carter, A Smith, J Fisher, T Little, J Loper, K Cushion, T Cole, M Grimard, J Little, Ms Atkins, A Johnson, T Sheffield, S Chanson, S McKinley, C Horneau, and S Russell

North Baldwin Center of Technology

Study, Study, Study... Early morning tests are no problem when one studies. Just ask Katrina Lamar.*

Time's a tickin... Will Plato puts the finishing touches on his alarm clock with his soldering iron.*

DECA

Marketing Education students enjoyed an exciting year in DECA. DeCa is a national co-curricular organization for students interested in retail, wholesale, or service careers. Highlights of the year included the following:

DECA officer candidate campaigning and election including a formal initiation and installation ceremony. Daily activities for new members were sponsored during initiation week.

Winning first place in the Baldwin County Fair with an exhibit promoting Marketing NBCT.

Winning first place in the BCHS Homecoming Parade with a float entry.

Sponsoring "Red Ribbon Drug Awareness Week" at NBCT. School wide activities conducted by DECA included drug education programs, graffiti contests, crazy hat contests, pumpkin head contests, "BOO" penny contests.

Raised $350 for the NBCT school van fund.

Conducted numerous fundraising projects to carry out DECA projects and community service activities.

31 DECA members attended "DECA Day" at Auburn University. Students participated in leadership training seminars.

Sponsored needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas, providing food baskets and gifts for children.

Planned and hosted Alabama DECA District Conference at Faulkner State Community College. 600 DECA members from Southwest Alabama participated in the contests.

8 members from NBCT were first place district contest winners.

10 members and the chapter advisor attended the Alabama DECA Career Development Conference held in Mobile, AL.

Sponsored a school wide essay contest on "What I Like About NBCT".

Sponsored numerous guest speakers and field trips for DECA members to help develop vocational and leadership skills.

Promoted NBCT Pride T-shirt sales with flyers and office display.

All caged up... Mandy Kleinatland and Camey Byrd help load the drink machines for the school store. As DECA members this is one of their many responsibilities.

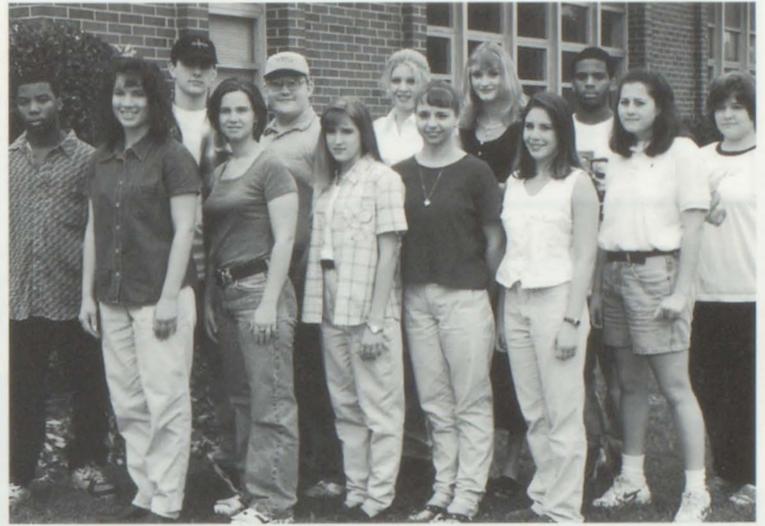

Waaar Eagle Hey!!! Jennifer Clayton shares some quality time with Auburn University's "War Eagle" during DECA day at Auburn University.

Student Council

Student Council members probably work harder than any other club members on campus. They sponsor Homecoming, the Homecoming Dance, Supper with Santa, Student/Teacher Volleyball Game, and Kiss the Seniors Goodbye. They are also in charge of morning announcements and birthday announcements. During the year our Student Council plays host to District meetings, keeps an on-going scrapbook, and competes wholeheartedly in Student Council Convention. Mrs. Brogden took over as Sponsor this year and gladly welcomed Mr. Beam to help her. Under the leadership of those two and Shanna Agerton, President, the BCHS Student Council is one club of which we are proud! We at BCHS thank the Student Council for its dedication.

May I help you??? Kim Williams helps distribute refreshments at one of the many meetings. BCHS has one of the most active Student Councils in the county.

Does it ever end?? Student Council President Shanna Agerton probably did not know she would "sell her soul" to the club. She did an excellent job as club president.

Merry Christmas!!! Student Council members help spread holiday cheer; their efforts are not confined to Christmas, however, as they collect money to feed the needy at Thanksgiving also.

Homecoming... Student Council sells T-shirts as a fundraiser. This year's shirt reflected the theme: "Flashback: Signs of the Times."

Key Club

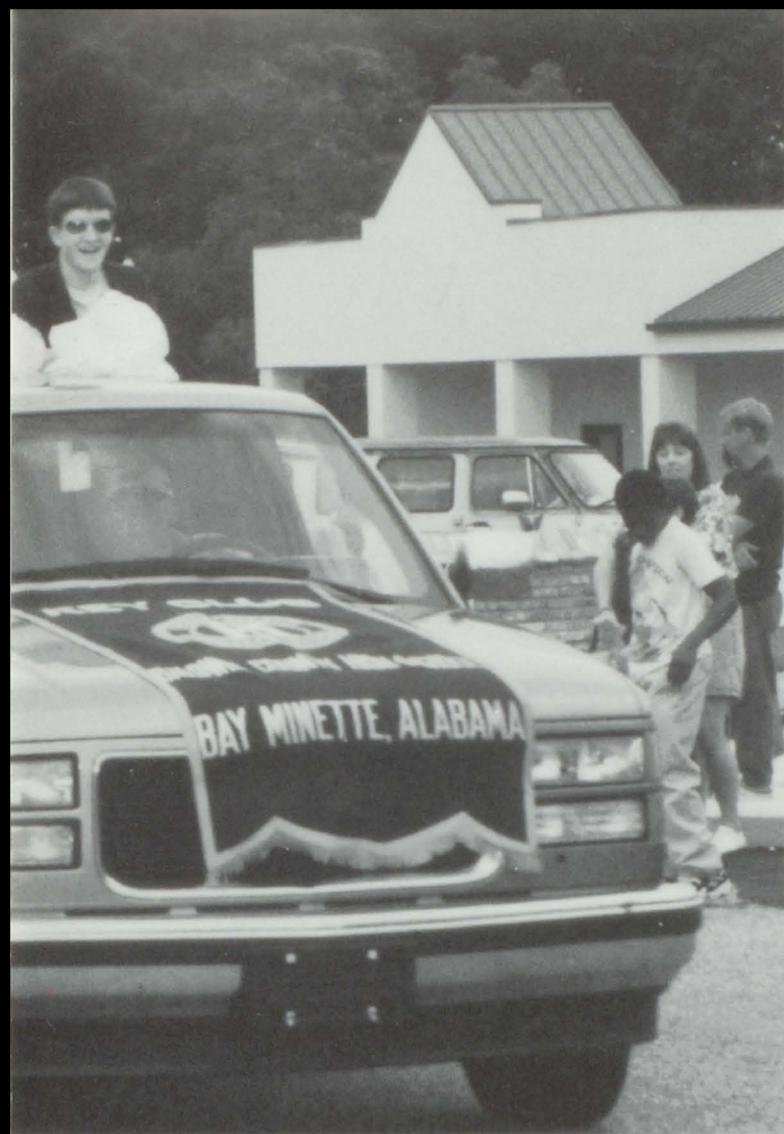

Key Club is a service organization; the goal of the club is to improve the community, the school, and the quality of life of those who are needy. During the year Key Club sponsors stadium clean-ups after football games, Toys for Tots during holidays, food drives, and blood drives. The BCHS chapter is an active one in both county-wide and state-wide projects. Membership in Key Club is based upon stringent rules. Those students who do not fulfill their obligation to the club find themselves wishing they had tried just a little harder. Brock Goodwin, under the sponsorship of Ms. Marie Still, acted as President this year. It came as no surprise to anyone that Brock did a superior job in this position.

Need a toy??? Toys for Tots is one of many service projects Key Club sponsors. Brooke Shackelford readies the toys for delivery; some needy kids will be ever thankful to the generous students at BCHS.*

Yikes!!! Jamie McNeely waits his turn to give blood. He may be having second thoughts here! He knows, however, just how much good comes out of this donation, so he'll go along with it!*

Watch out!!! We're coming through! Sean Clark, Brock Goodwin, Ben Denton, and Will Cabaniss have fun at the Kids' Day Parade.*

A Helping Hand... Kayla Morries and Kiley Kolb help clean the stadium Saturday morning after a home football game so we'll be ready for next week's game!!!*

Trick or Treating for cans gives a whole new meaning to Halloween for Brooke Stephens and Jeni Denton.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is yet another service organization at BCHS. This year, under the sponsorship of Ms. Shirley Scott, Ms. Fran Pridgeon, Ms. Pam Scott, Mr. Alan Blackmon, Ms. Jan Hayes, and Miss Vicky Hankins, the club stayed busy with Extended Academics, NHS Convention, the Womanless Wedding, and many other projects.

I get it now!!! Carjetta Crook takes time to help out a youngster at Extended Academics. NHS students are required to volunteer their expertise!

Do you understand... A young middle school student finally understands her math with the help of Michelle Chandler and the Extended Academics Program.

Aren't they pretty??? Matt Fischer, Aaron Prosser, and Josh Caldwell make beautiful (?) girls at NHS's Womanless Wedding.

The winner is... Candice Hastings, Brooke Shackelford, Jennifer Helms, and Mrs. Pridgeon worked really hard to make the Celebrity Raffle the success it was.

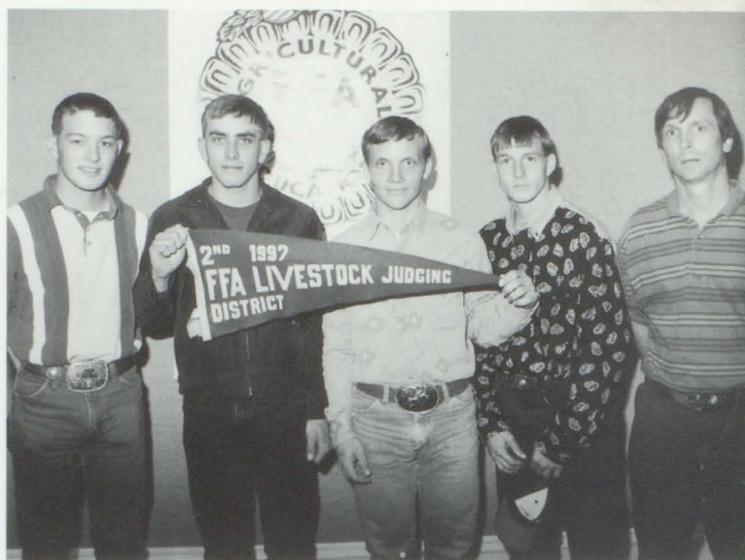

Happy campers... The students who went to NHS Convention had tons of fun, but it was also a great learning experience. Work and play DO mix sometimes.

Thanks for the help... Tajuana Johnson receives a genuine "Thank you" from the student she is tutoring. That thanks is worth more than actually getting paid for the work!

Future Farmers of America

FFA has had a very successful year. One of its accomplishments is a completed garden in the rear of the school grounds. This club has received many awards for its members' hard work and dedication. Go, guys!

District FFA Winners-The Livestock Career Development Team for the Bay Minette FFA Chapter won second place during the recent Southwest District Eliminations. Members are Jarrod Jones, Vincent Ruta Billy Williams, Curt Smith and teacher Allan Williams.

Brandon Weekly won first place in the Public Speaking Event during the recent Southwest Alabama District FFA Eliminations. He chose as his topic "RBST, Recombinant Bovine Somatotropin."

District FFA Winner-The Agricultural Construction and Maintenance Team from the Bay Minette FFA Chapter won second place during the recent Southwest District Eliminations. Members are Jason Brown, Jarrod Murray, Matthew Jones, and teacher Allan Williams.

Future Homemakers of America

This year's F.H.A. members participated in a great number of activities. Preparing the delicious food for the Senior Tea and entertaining residents at Oakwood Nursing Home on Valentine's Day are but two of many. F.H.A. members work diligently to prepare themselves for futures as homemakers.

Lending a Helping Hand... These members of FHA put their cooking skills to use while helping the Senior Class. Latoya Dulaney, Stacey Thomas, Miranda Daniel, Kay Homan, Kasey Jernigan, and Stacey Stevens prepared some food for the seniors and their parents during Honor Night for Seniors.

Tonya Byrd, Melinda White, Sherri Jackson, Dana Stacey, Nikki White, Kim Williams, Latricia Hinman, Amy Hilburn, Natausha Smith, Brandis Atchison, Shee Williams, Wendy Majors, Amy Hall, Travis Clopton, Gemma Fardon, Christina Brown, Bridgette Gaines, Kristen Armstead, Constance Coleman, Latoya Dulaney, Clifford Bradley

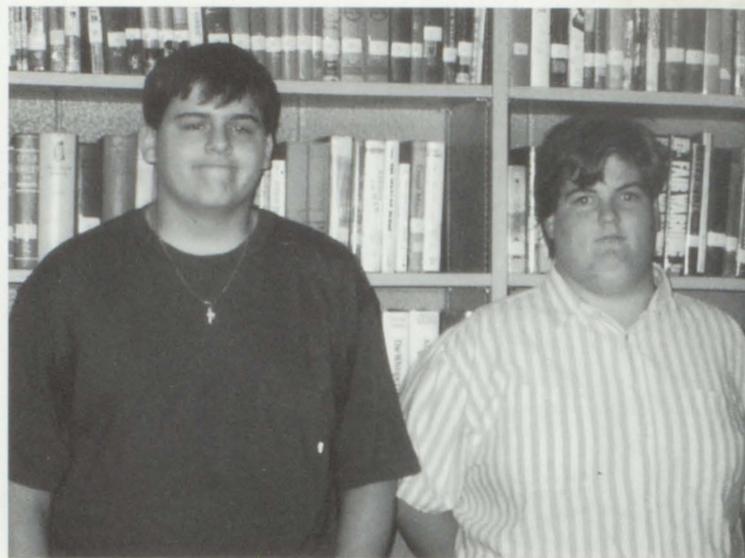

Look at me... Brandon Kernells wins first place. Just goes to show that guys can cook. Maybe there are some real men around after all.

Just clownin' around... Pam Marshall, Mendy White, and Mrs. Carpenter entertain the residents at Oakwood Nursing Home during Halloween.

Chess Club

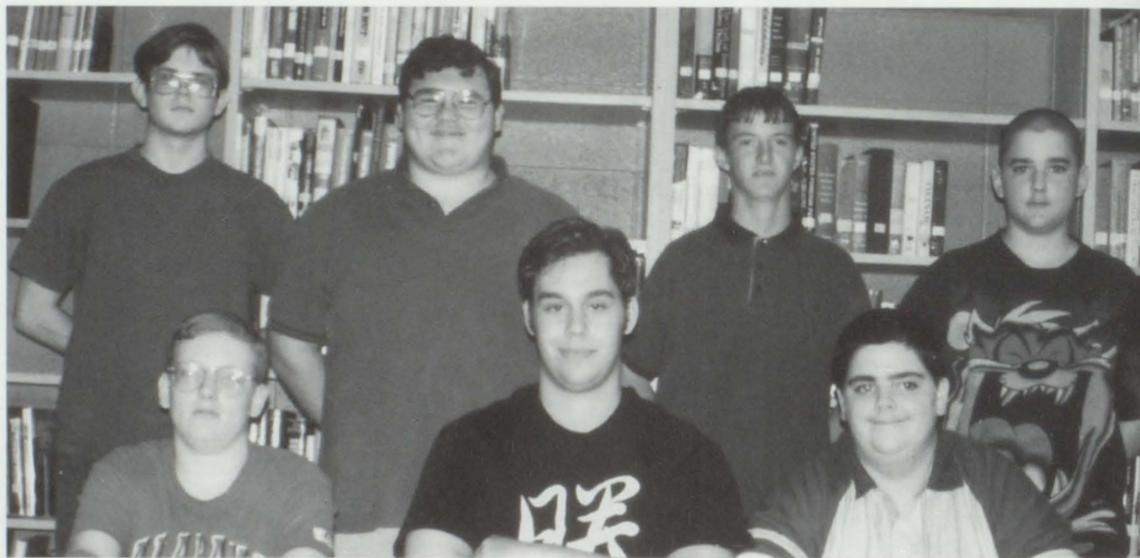

For those students with a competitive edge, chess just might be a game that they would enjoy. It's not a game for the weak in mind, however. Strategy, patience, and gut instinct play important factors in the outcome of this challenge!

Fearless leaders... Seniors Sam Vernor and Jeremy Shiver lead the team by demonstrating strategies necessary for winning.

1996-97 Chess Team:

1st row: Wilton Miller, Joe Marshall, Chris Anderson; 2nd row: Bailey Booth, Quintin Stafford, Calvin Phillips, Joseph Overstreet

French Club

Laissez le bon temps rouler! As usual, Madame Land worked really hard to make learning French simple and enjoyable for her students. French Club members learned how to cook crepes in the home ec lab, learned some Cajun folk tunes from Cajun entertainer Bill Russell, and participated in the Annual French Club Picnic under the oaks during class. Madame Land's efforts helped make this year this year a memorable one.

Eat, drink, and be merry... Amber McDowell, Natausha Smith, Candice Foreman, and Bridgette Hicks enjoy themselves at the picnic, a time to relax and have fun!

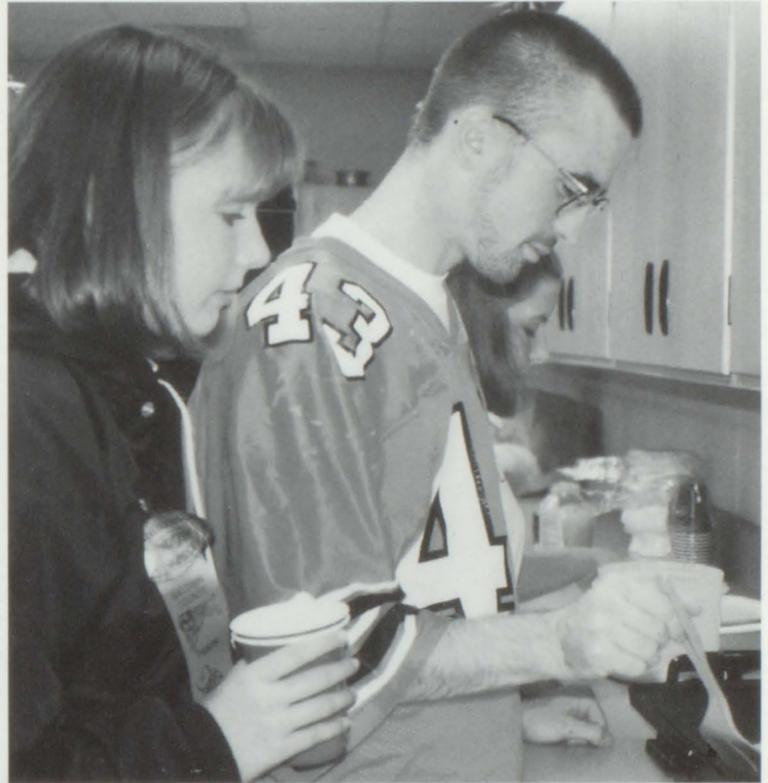

I'm hungry... Sabrina Jackson fixes her plate and gets ready to eat. There's plenty of food for everyone at one of the French Club Picnics.

Red Rover, Red Rover, send Matt right over... After eating, club members play field games, the highlight of the Picnic!

Is THAT mine??? Amy Bryars waits for Chef Charles to finish preparing her crepe. Nothing to it, is there, Charles? French class is more fun when it's held in the kitchen!!!

Thousands of screaming fans in the stadium, adrenaline pumping, cheerleaders dancing, band playing. All of these people and all of this commotion are occurring for one reason: the Friday night football game is about to begin.

O

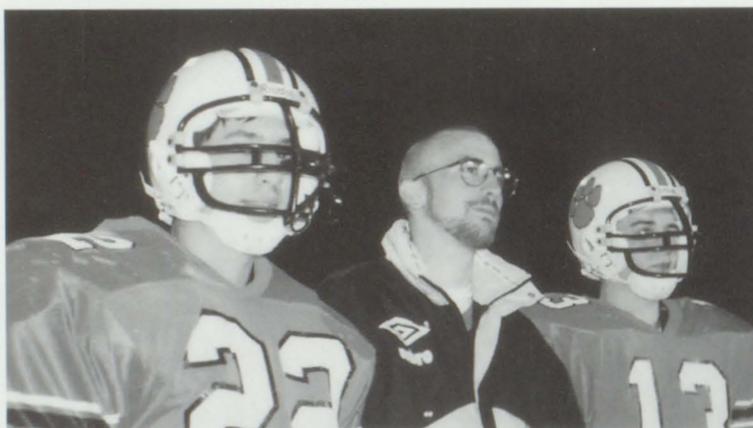

The team has trained hard - lifting weights, running sprints, and practicing until dark. All of this preparation ends in a wonderfully predictable manner ... another successful football season for the Baldwin County High School Tigers.

O

Team Support ... John Collins, Charles Flowers, and Joe Landenwich support the players on the field while taking a break from the action.

t

Coach Ford, what makes a successful football season? "Talent is important, but players who believe in teamwork are more important."

b

What is the best thing about playing football? "Being on the field and listening to the crowd scream."
Bobby Joe Shiver

Breakin' Loose ... The Varsity cheerleaders attempt to hold up the run-through as the mighty Tigers rush onto the field.

l

What was your favorite part of the football season? "Being able to represent my school on the football field was the best part."
Thaddeus Palmer

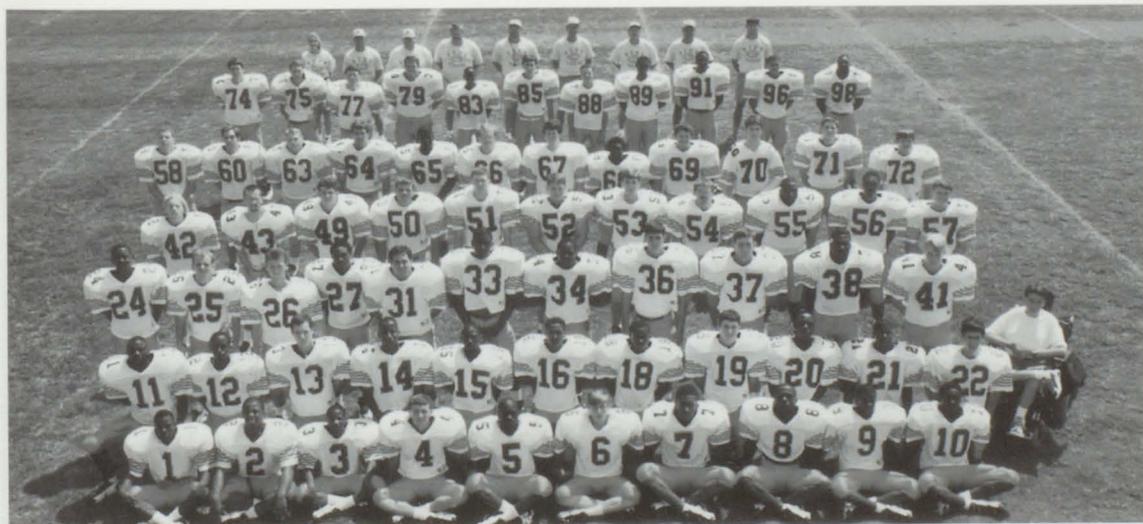

l

It's up and it's GOOD ... Joe Landenwich drills another P.A.T. through the "uprights." Thaddeus Palmer takes the snap and holds for the kick.

High Five ... Thaddeus Palmer and Darrel Gandy congratulate each other after a Tiger touchdown. Darrel made an outstanding comeback after an injury at the beginning of the season.

Baldwin County High School students have always shown a lot of school pride. Our football team is one of the many things that we are so proud of. They earn our respect and awe through their field feats throughout the football season. Their fancy footwork, extreme speed, and heart are just a few of the reasons that we love our Tiger's SO much.

Down. Set. Hike...Tigers offensive line gets down into stance and prepares to block the opposing Daphne defensive line.

Bald Babes...Chuck Kernells, Tommy Horn, Jerry Shiver, Sean Clark, Bobby Joe Shiver, Joe Hill, Jarrod Jones and Matt Byrd show their team spirit by shaving their heads.

What will you miss most about not playing football next year? The whole atmosphere during the football season and playing football with all my friends.
Matt Byrd, 12th

What was your favorite game of your Senior year? My favorite game was the Daphne game. It was our last game, and I started realizing that I wouldn't play with all the guys on the team again!
Willie Wilson, 12th

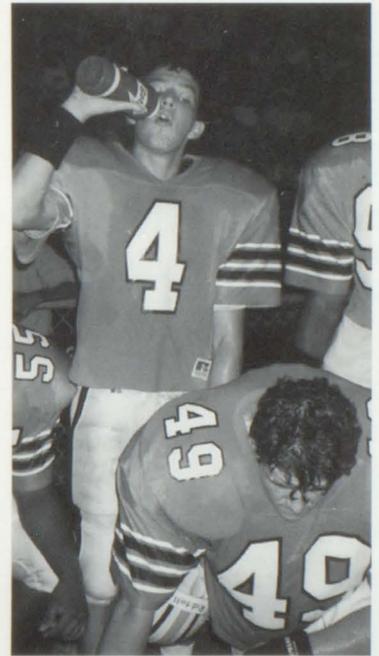

Coach Ford, how do you feel about this football season? "A little disappointed, but the future looks bright!"

Super Man...Darrel Gandy dashes through the line and heads toward the end zone. Darrel had a very productive senior year.

Give me some time... Jarrod Jones is trying to listen to instructions from Coach Koziol while also trying to get a water break. How can you miss THAT mouth, Jarrod?

Bobbin' and Weavin'! #10 Thaddeus Palmer avoids the oncoming Daphne defense. He did a great job after stepping up and assuming the role of starting QB.

Team Huddle... Players listen attentively to Coach Koziol's instructions for the next play. Come on, Tigers!!

Excitement and fun are just part of being a cheerleader. Precision and hard work are also involved. The '96-'97 Varsity Squad met the challenges facing them through countless hours of practice and determination to do their best. They were rewarded for their hard work by earning high rankings at competitions and by lifting school spirit at pep rallies and at games.

Sunroofs rule... Amity Rider and Renee Robertson find that getting the run-through to school is almost impossible.

UCA All-Stars... Melanee Robertson and Susan Thompson flew to London during Christmas as All-Stars!

*Mrs. Ford, what part of being Cheerleader Sponsor is the most rewarding?
 "Spending time with the girls on a personal level."*

Melanee Robertson, what will you always remember about this year? " Sarah Foster fell flat on the floor at a basketball game."

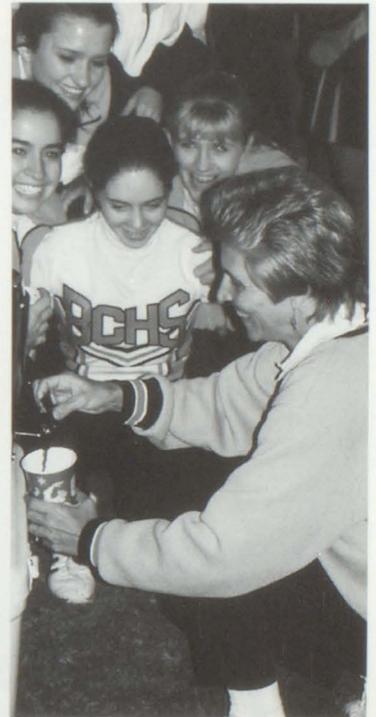

Susan Thompson, what's it REALLY like inside that Tiger suit? "Hot, but G-R-E-A-T!!!"

The Volleyball Team had a very successful season. Their hard work at practice paid off in the way they played their games. All players knew the only way they could win was by working together, and the volleyball team did just that. Their dedication paid off as they beat arch rival Daphne to win the County Championship.

Congratulations!

Lgot it!!! Each player keeps her eyes on that ball or else.

Jennifer Wilson, Lauren Paul, Latoya Baker, Latoya Morrissette, Rhonda Mims, Sarah Beth Cabaniss, Sara K. Green, Sophie Hofman, Courtney Scott, Dusty Franklin, Jennifer Helms, Amanda Morris, Abby Eady

Coach Scott, What is the key to a successful volleyball season?

"Practicing hard and playing as a team."

Sophie Hofman, what will you miss most about playing volleyball at B.C.H.S.?

"All of the friends I have made."

Lauren Paul, what is the most memorable game of the season?

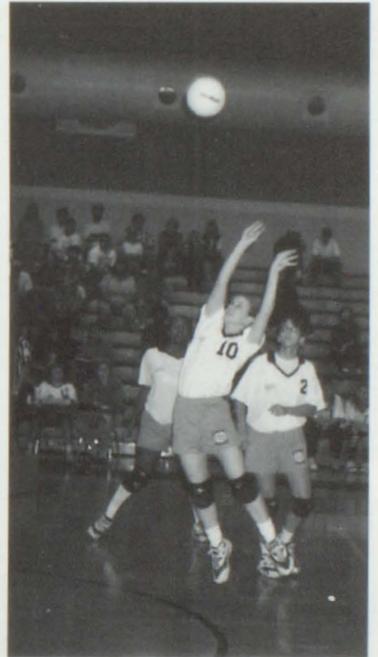

The Daphne game

Get It Out... Latoya Morrisette attempts to block a Fairhope spike while Amanda Morries gives support.

The Baldwin County High School Basketball program struggled a bit this year. This temporary slow-down was due to the fact that both the boys' and girls' teams were in the process of rebuilding their squads. Both teams, however, have very promising potential for next season. Most of the starters will return next year, and those who do graduate will leave spaces open for some well-needed talent from the Junior Varsity teams.

Foul on Who??? Lauren Paul questions a call by the referee during the Murphy game.

Good hustle... The mighty Tigers get down and dirty in their fight for the ball against the all-time rival of B.C.H.S. ... the Fairhope Pirates.

*Coach Kenamer, What was the toughest game this year?
"Definitely Moss Point."*

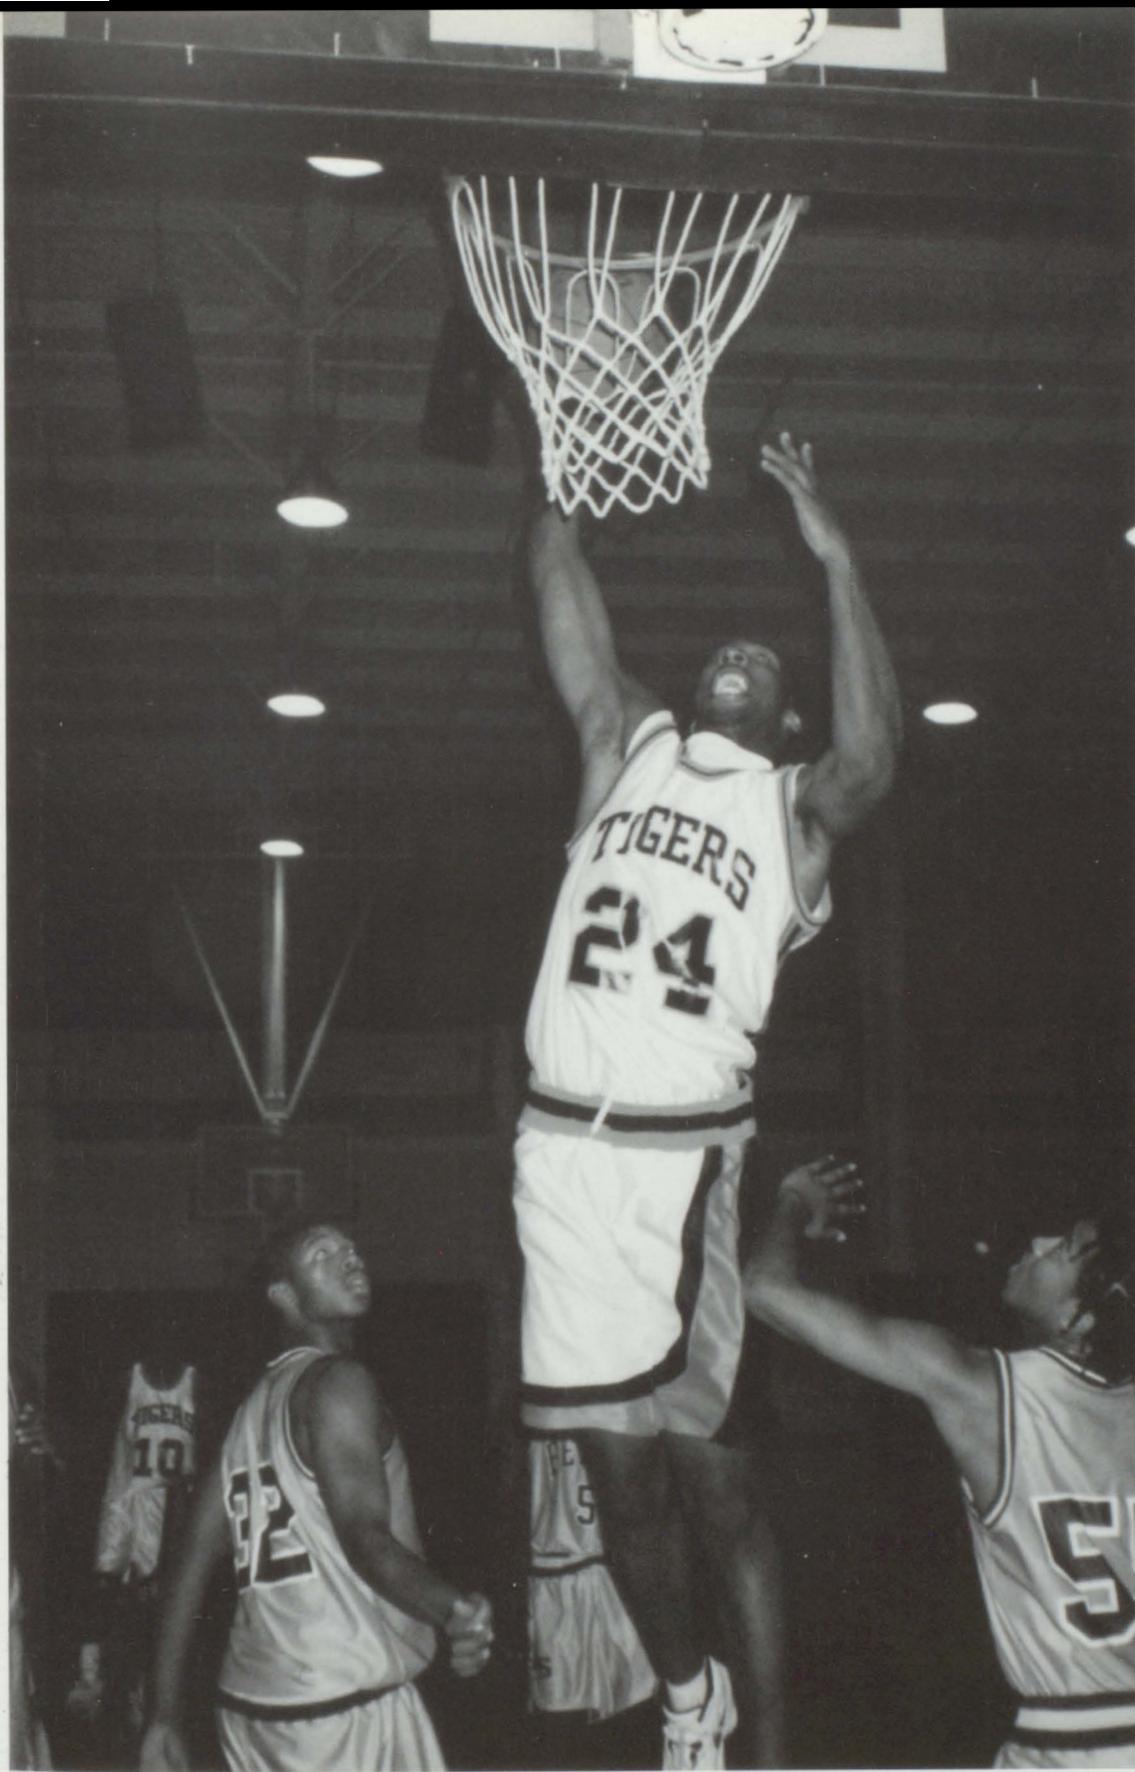

*Natasha Burt, What was the best part of the team?
"Telling jokes on the bus."*

*Rebecca Cottrell, what goes through your mind when you're playing basketball?
"Just about everything."*

Hang Time!!! Alton Moore goes up for a dunk over a Robertsdale defender

The girl's Varsity and Junior Varsity Soccer teams had very impressive seasons. Though their records may not show it this year, they played hard and accomplished many goals. The Junior Varsity team will be sending many talented and well trained athletes to fill the empty places on the Varsity team that were left by the seniors. Soccer is on the move in Bay Minette! Watch out Fairhope! Stay out of our way Daphne! We'll catch up to you yet.

Coach Scott, what is your opinion of this season? "I think the girls did very well against some stiff competition."

Coach Cobb, what did you enjoy about coaching this year? "The players are a great group who learn quickly. I can't wait until next year!"

Friends, Fun, & Soccer ...

Friends make preparing for a game a lot of fun. Let's just hope they don't forget to concentrate on the game.

Get open !!! Haylee Gordon looks for an open teammate when trying to make a quick "throw".

Tears of Defeat ... Losing a game is never easy. Here, Senior Sarah Beth Cabaniss is helped off the field by teammate Kelly Godbey.

Just a few more minutes ... These girls take advantage of their half-time break. The rest is greatly needed after thirty minutes of running.

Smiling faces ... One of the most important things to remember in any game is that you're there to have fun ... and to win if it works that way.

The Baseball Team had a successful year, finishing second in the area and making the playoffs. Under the leadership of Coach Wright, the boys helped BCHS maintain its reputation as being a team to reckon with. Our senior boys accepted the challenge to lead, and the underclassmen followed their direction. Baseball is strong at BCHS, and it seems that nothing will change THAT!

L to R: Zak Luckey, Bucky Page, Tom Hartner, David Rhames, Jason Smith, Frank Brantley, Chris "Stick" James, Daniel D'Olive, Stacy Boykin, Garth Turpen, Chris Rieben, Blake Hall, Brian Aaron, Micheal Dorough, Kendrell Wills, Jamie Lyles, Benjamin Long

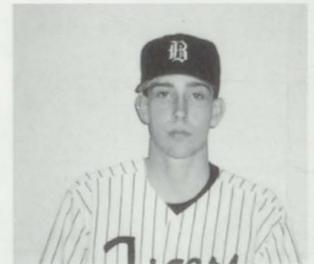

1,2,3-TEAM... After one of the many victories, the team comes together to have the "after game talk.." When they work as a team, they win as a team.

What made this year different?
"I had a young team; we lost lots of players last year, but these boys stepped up and had a good season."

Coach Wright

What did you enjoy about this year?
I was a senior and I enjoyed just being with my friends and playing the game.
Stick James 12

What did you like best about playing baseball?
"Just being with my friends and having fun playing."
David Rhames

Let's Go, Boys... Joe Hill gets his teammates pumped up to play. We needed a lot of leadership from the seniors, and that's what they gave.

Just One Sip... Frank Brantley gets a drink. Playing hard makes one thirsty; he needs something to keep him going.

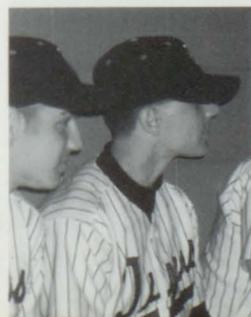

Put Me In, Coach... Stick James waits anxiously to play. As one of our good pitchers, he played well for the Tigers, and helped them to a winning season.

Get A Hit... The Tigers watch on as a player is up at bat. Teammates cheering each other on helps a player to perform his best.

This year's softball team had a good season. As proof of this effort, they finished third in the area. All of those long hours of work and practice paid off in the end.

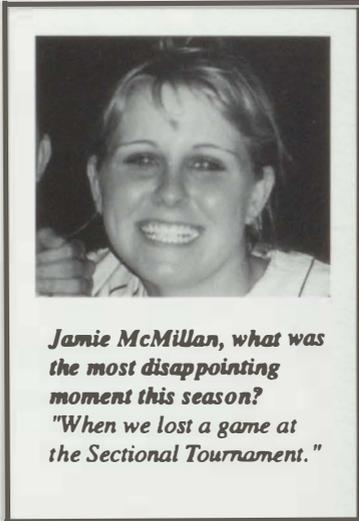

Group Hug... Members of the Varsity Softball Team obviously enjoy each others' company.

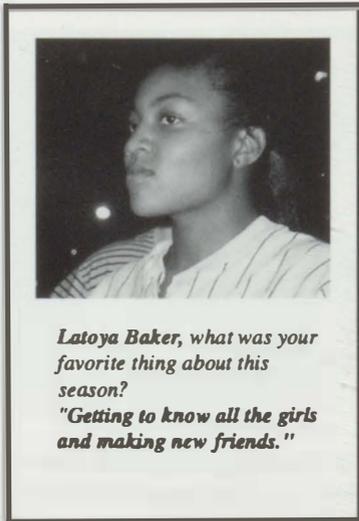

Get ready... Kenosha Graves gets set to field a ground ball.

What made coaching special this year? "I had a good group of girls who listened and worked hard for me." Coach Roberts

Jamie McMillan, what was the most disappointing moment this season? "When we lost a game at the Sectional Tournament."

Latoya Baker, what was your favorite thing about this season? "Getting to know all the girls and making new friends."

Deep thoughts... Tasha Burt sits quietly in the dugout while concentrating on the game.

Listen up... Kristy Livermore has a little talk with the umpire during warm-ups.

Go, Go, Go!!! Tasha Burt gets the green light from the 3rd base coach and heads for home.

Teammates... Lauren Paul and Amanda Morries share the few spare minutes they have before the BIG game. Friends can make sports even more fun.

Mouthful... Kenosha Graves attempts to smile with a mouthful of sunflower seeds.

Because Track is a sport as much for individual achievement as it is for team achievement, participants must be motivated from within. There are no screaming fans, practices are boring and repetitious, and meets are very long. Most students are not dedicated enough to participate in a sport such as this one. The few who do stick with the team, however, find great personal satisfaction.

Track Team-Bridget Boykin, Rachael Knight, Chacarra Stevens

Running for Victory... Rachael Knight and Bridget Boykin give it their all. A lot of their time was spent getting in shape for a meet.

Run, Rachael, Run... Rachael Knight races for the finish line. She was definitely one of the best runners on the team.

At lightning speed... Emmett Bailey pounds the track as he pushes himself to win.

Jump High... Kevin Thompson flies through the air; the further, the better.

On your Mark... Bridget Boykin gets set to race. It's important to stay focused in order to win.*

Heave Ho... Wes Boyett hurls the shotput as far as he can, Will he set a new BCHS record?*

Going the Distance... Rachael Knight and Bridget Boykin prove that long hours of practice can really pay off. To run and be good, you have to be in shape.*

Stretch It Out... Emmett Bailey, Rachael Knight, and Bridgett Boykin make sure that their muscles are thoroughly stretched before the races.*

Taking it in stride... It comes down to a race to the finish line. Every second counts in a sport like track.*

The Boys' and Girls' Tennis teams had very productive seasons. Both teams played great and made their presence known in the county. The two teams placed a total of three players on the all-county list. Much credit is due to coaches Weaver and Warfield.

Give it up... Amy Bryars and Sean Clark give a high five after an awesome doubles set at the annual tennis cookout at Halliday Park.

I'm ready... Haley Horn and Janie Peavy look ready for anything. Haley and Janie were both seeded very high on the team this year.

*What was the best thing about the sectional in Gulf Shores this year?
Spending time with all my friends on the team.
Meredith Rhodes 9th*

*What was the funniest thing that happened to you this year while on the tennis team?
"Making jokes about Haley Horn while eating at Taco Bell."
Laura Gee 10th*

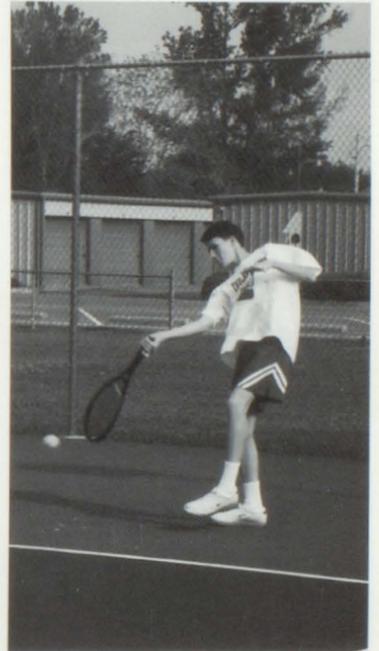

*What was the best part of being first seed this year?
"It was good because all of my hard work has paid off."
Susan Thompson 11th*

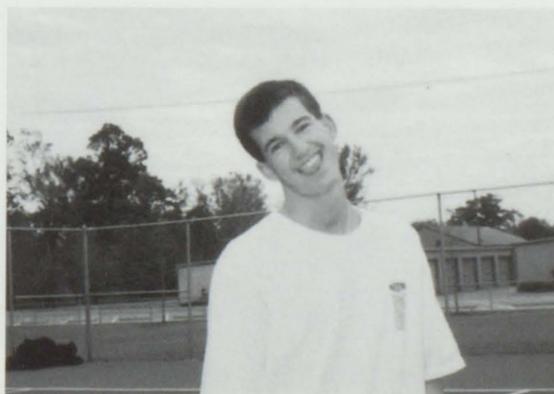

Music To My Ears... Marcus Garrett, Matt Byrd, and Bryan Wiggins play their TENNIS RACKETS!!! Man, what people will do just to have their picture taken.

Brains vs. Brawn... Shane Glasgow is not only an active member of AR, but he's got an awesome forehand, too.

Boys' Varsity Tennis: Jeremy Phillips, Bryan Wiggins, Marcus Garrett, J.W. Joiner, Eric Scott, Matt Byrd, Josh Walker, Shane Glasgow.

YUCK!!! J.W. Joiner shows his thoughts about laps after practice.

The Boys' and Girls' Golf teams both had very successful seasons this year. All the hard work and practice paid off as everyone had fun and enjoyed playing golf. It wouldn't have been so great without the support of Coach Jaye Koziol and Coach Kirby Weaver.

Shh... Matthew Dunning is lining up his putt. Quiet please!

Lining it up... Haley Horn carefully lines up her putt to the hole. Tiger Woods has missed. Will she?

Misty Franklin, what do you like about playing golf?
"I like golf because it is very intriguing, challenging, and enjoyable."

Brian Penna, how did you feel to be the only senior on the Boys' Golf Team?
"Like I had to carry everyone on my back."

Katie Sedberry, what did you like about golf?
"Working with the team and having fun."

Pep Talk... Haley Horn and Sophie Hofman prepare each other for the big golf game while choosing their clubs.*

The look of a Pro... With Brian Penna's attitude, we will soon see him again on the PGA Tour.*

Got it !!!... Katie Sedberry smiles happily when she gets the ball in the third hole.*

The Players-Dustin Draime, Jaye Robertson, Brian Penna, Jeremiah Kolb, and Matthew Dunning.*

Making it Perfect... We catch Jaye Robertson practicing his swing. It takes a lot of practice to be good at golf.*

The Junior Varsity Baseball and Softball teams had great seasons this year. Coach Bush did a great job coaching, as did Coach Roberts. This superior coaching obviously paid off. Both teams had winning seasons.

Playing baseball or softball is about a lot more than whether or not one wins or loses, however. It, as with any sport, is about sweat, tears, hard work, determination, teamwork, and practice. It's about playing just for the pure love of the game. It's living in one of the simplest forms.

Coach Bush, what did you enjoy most about coaching J.V. Baseball? "I enjoyed getting to know the players and helping them further their success in this game."

Coach Roberts, why do you enjoy coaching? "I enjoy helping the girls improve their skills and being a positive influence in their lives."

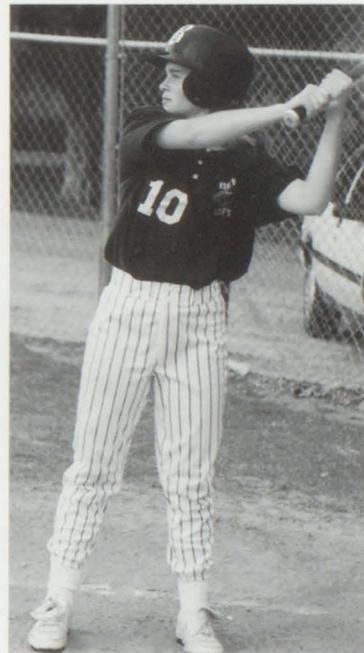

Quinn Middleton, what part of baseball do you enjoy most? "I enjoy the thrill of playing the game and the opportunity to be with my friends."

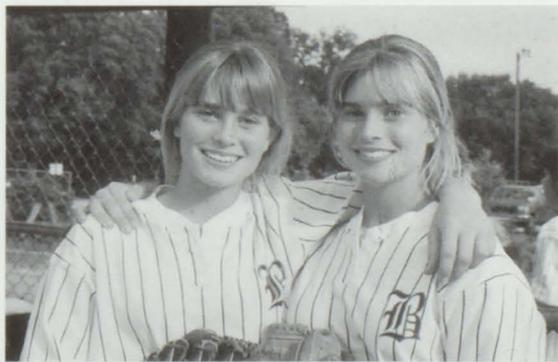

Strike three. You're out! ...
Beth Donald waits patiently for the pitch. She did great playing catcher this year. It's not an easy job!

Batter, Batter, SWING ...
Jamie Roberts eyes the ball closely, hoping to get a hit. She hit well for the young Lady Tigers.

Teamwork ... The J.V. Tigers go back to the dugout, hoping to have a good inning at the plate. Their superior hitting played a big part in their many wins.

Who's Who? ... People often have a hard time telling Amy and Jamie Roberts apart. However, you can tell them apart by the color of their gloves. But who has what color?

Picture perfect... Heather Bush and Dianna Cochran show that winning isn't everything, but it DOES help the attitude.

The Cross-Country Team and the Junior Varsity Volleyball Team had very successful seasons. Two members of the Cross-Country Team earned a spot on the All-County Team, quite a feat for a sports team as new as this one is! The J.V. Volleyball Team had many talented players who will move up next year to fill empty places on the Varsity roster. The training and experience they received this year will serve them well when they move up.

Overall, Baldwin County High School has plenty of reasons to be proud and these teams are definitely two of those reasons.

Reaction Action... Nema Etheridge and Kayla Morris show varied reactions to Coach Roberts' pep talk.

Misty Franklin, what do you enjoy most about playing volleyball? "I enjoy being on the team with my friends and making new friends as well."

Sarah DeWit, why did you choose to run Cross-Country? "I wanted to try to get in shape for soccer season."

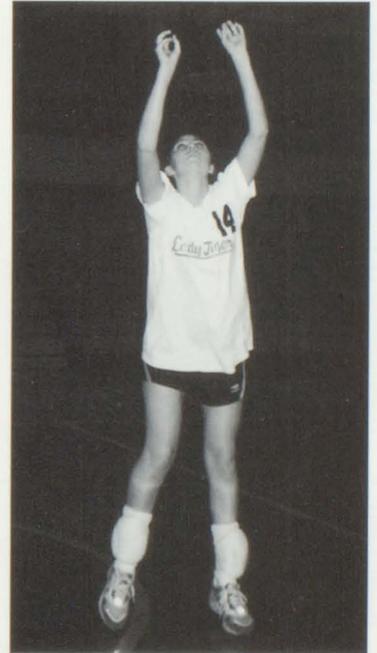

Brock Goodwin, what is the key to being good at Cross-Country? "The key to running Cross-Country is dedication."

Off to the races ... Luke Nelson and Ben Denton dash to get ahead of the pack. Luke was selected to be part of the All-County team.

Heads up ... Lacey Creppel warms up before a volleyball match. Lacey, a freshman, started on the Junior Varsity Volleyball team this year.

Huffin' and puffin' ... Luke Nelson takes long strides to place high in the race.

The Freshman Football Team and the Junior Varsity Cheerleading Squad spent hours on end practicing and training in hope of a future Varsity spot.

The members of the Freshman Football Team showed outstanding commitment in their regular attendance of practices and games. The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders exhibited their dedication through hard work, also. The Varsity football and cheerleading squad definitely have some very promising future members.

The '96-'97 Freshman Football team was coached by Coach Weaver and Coach Cabanis

Coach Weaver, what was the best thing about coaching the freshman football team? Watching the players improve as the season progressed.

Kiley Kolb, what was the best thing that happened this year as JV Captain? The times we shared together at camp and at the cheerleading party at my house.

Brooke Stephens, what was the dumbest thing you did as J.V. co-captain? Dancing in the jam -off at camp this summer.

Come on, guys... Katie Loper claps loudly as they take a break during half-time at the Homecoming game. Lucy Wade and Jessica Hadley look on in excitement.

Oh, relaxation... These guys seem to enjoy their break from playing.

Listen up, guys... Coach Blanchard discusses different strategies during half-time. Jay Armstrong and Wes Boyett pay close attention.

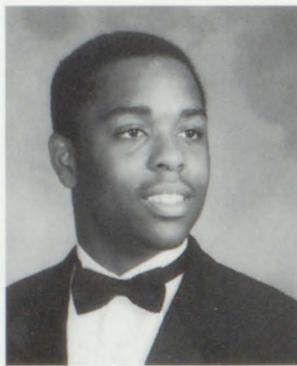

Cheesin' it... Ellen Taylor and Brooke Stephens smile happily at the camera. Cheering at basketball games can be very exciting.

Band

The Baldwin County High School Marching Band was a delight to all that had the opportunity to hear them. From half-time shows, to pep rallies, to competitions, our band entertained all and always played well. Their success came from their long hours of practice not only during the school year, but also during the summer.

Jonathan Melton, Amanda Benton, Tiffany Finch, Stewart Hollingsworth, and Beth Owens add their part to the band by playing saxophone.

Max Mahathy, Parimal Mehta, and Phillip White each play the baritone. This is yet another instrument that makes up the band.

Carolyn Gambrell and Stewart Hollingsworth take part in "creaming" Mr. Fyock. They earned this privilege when the windwood section sold more donuts than the brass section during their donut sale.

Best Buds... Sophomore band member, Jean Routon and Tabitha Davis, show just how close band members can become after spending so much time together practicing for competitions, half-time shows, and such.

Clarinet Section... Skipper Brannan, Candice Earls, Chasity Boyington, Alicia McCall, Callie Kelson, Jean Routon, Kim Valverde, Shiloh Gross, Christy Eggert, Jennifer Guy, Cynthia Bradley, Elizabeth Gambrel, Brent Powell, Tara Geranis, Lauren Geddie

Haris Gray, Alfred Ingram, Danielle Geranis, and Joshua Douvier play the trombone, while Kerry Clewell adds to the brass section by playing the French horn.

Bruce Jackson and Stacy Boykin take a break as they watch the visiting band perform during the half time show during a football game.

Logan Ganey, Quintin White, Jarrod Murray, and Booker Stuart perform on the drums for the crowd during one of the many half-time shows.

The horns that you can hear during one of the many band performances are played by David Owens, Brian Aaron, Daniel Sawyer, Justin Bishop, Jeremy Andrews, and Nick Jeffers.

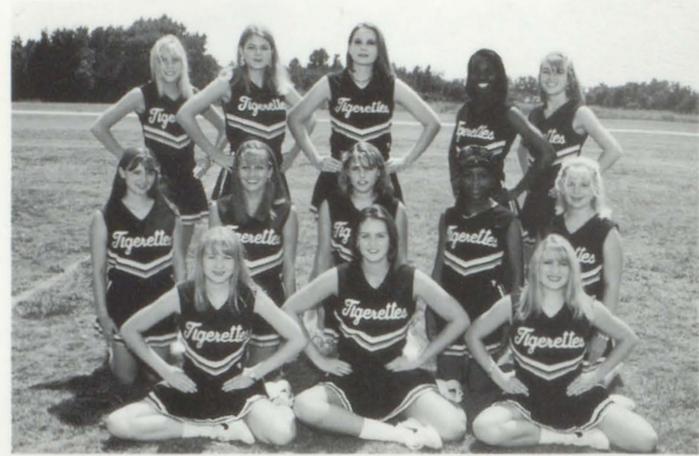

Drum Major... Josh Willis prepares to direct the band during one of the many practices that the band has during the summer. The long hours of practice pay off for our award-winning marching band.

Dancing Darlings

The Tigerettes, under the direction of Margaret Roley, received top ratings at all of their competitions and at the same time gained the recognition among their peers. The Tigerettes always add a sparkle to the half-time show during the games or the pep rallies at school.

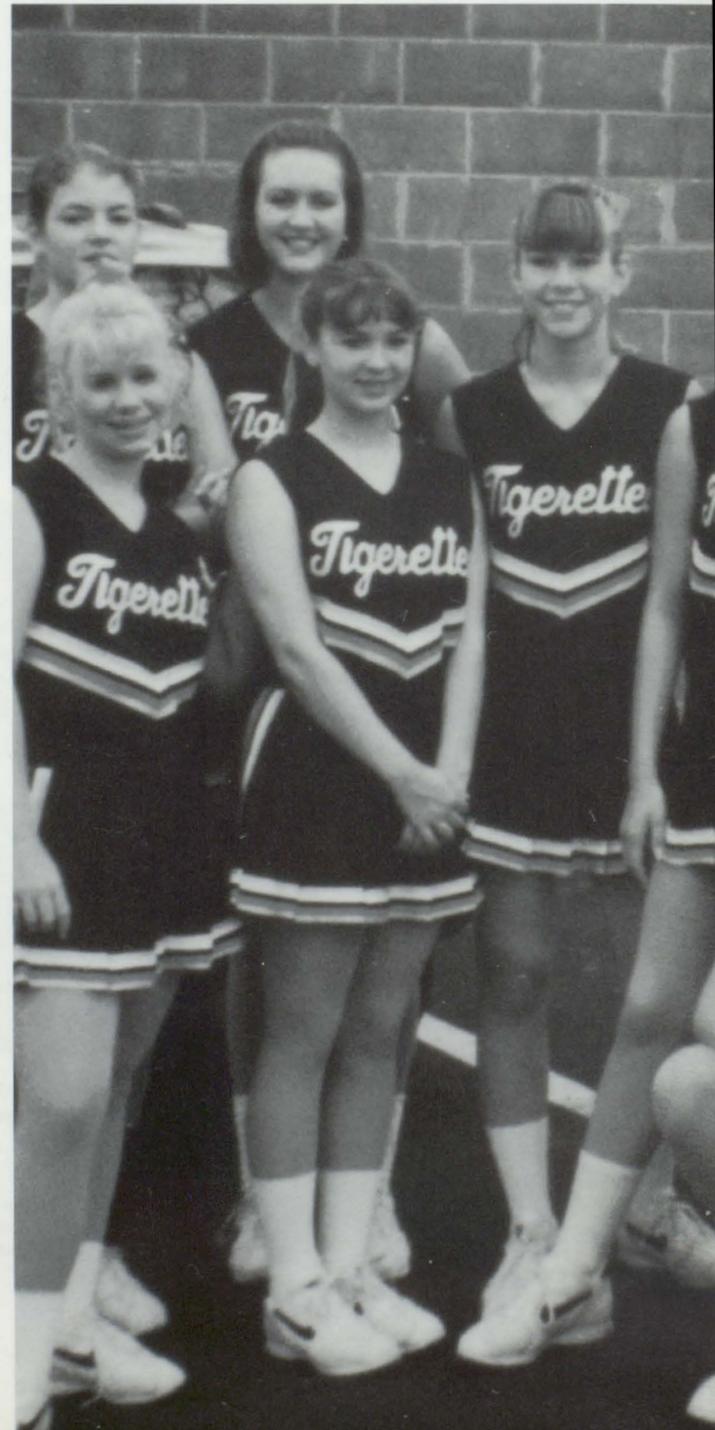

Tonya Blackburn, Emilie Denmark, Allison Tillery, Adrienne Williams, Christy Johnson, Heather Still, Ashley Boyette, Heather Smith, Anita Horace, Kelly Coats, Caroline Page, Ann Snowden, Candi Huffaker.

Ready for Action... The Tigerettes pose for a quick picture before they start to perform their camp dance.

OO-La-La... Adrienne Williams shows us her fabulous smile.

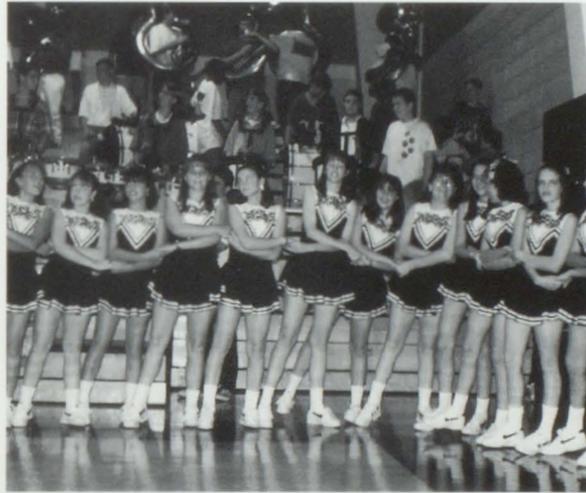

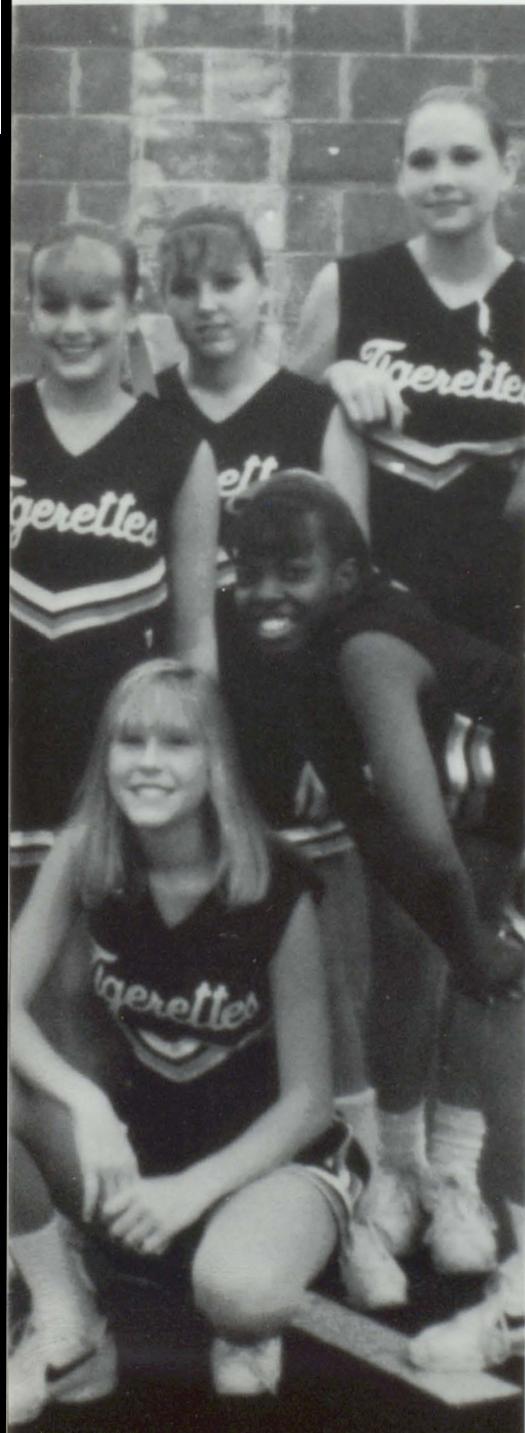

A. Corley, B. Glasgow, D. Owens, N. White, S. Tanner, M. Myrick, L. Burger, M. Powell, K. Averitt, M. Parker, J. Smith, T. Gilbert, M. Daniels, T. Johnson, C. Coleman, J. Stewart, S. Smith, C. Gambrel, J. Hastings, S. Boyington, E. Wood, T. Richerson, H. Tolbert.

Colors in a Twirl

The Flag Corp, under the direction of Margaret Roley, made the field come alive with color. Flag Corp received top ratings at all of their competitions. They put a lot of effort in their performances on the field. Many people have no idea of the time involved in putting together a precision-perfect program.

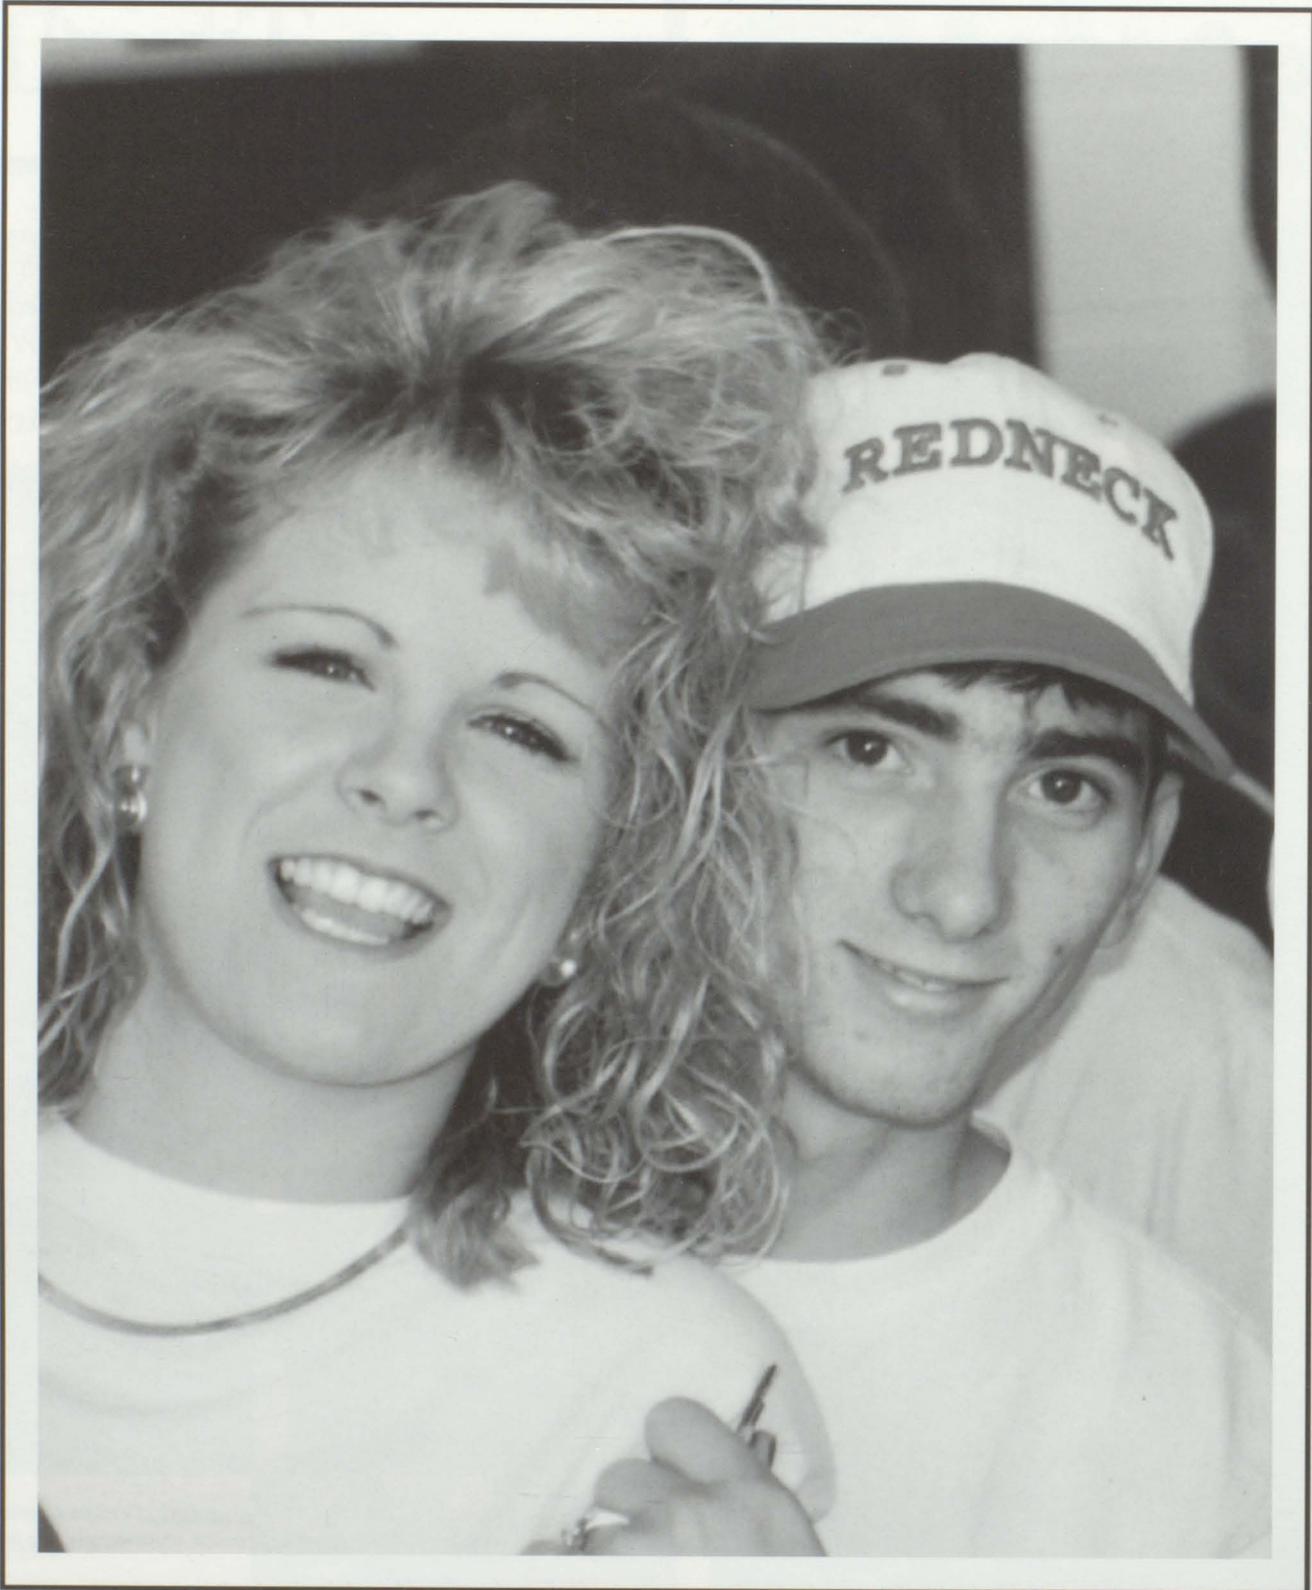

It's Our Alma Mater!The Flag Corp leads the school during a pep rally to help get everyone ready for the game.

Attention!...Carolyn Gambrel stands at attention while warming up for competition.

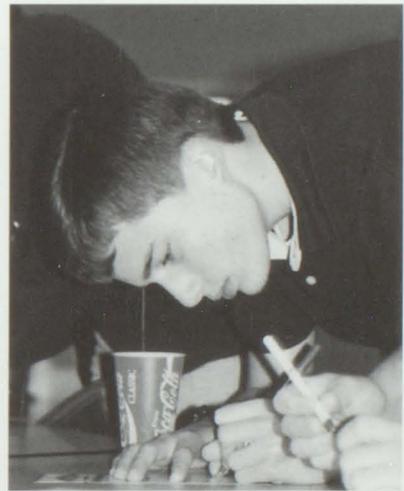

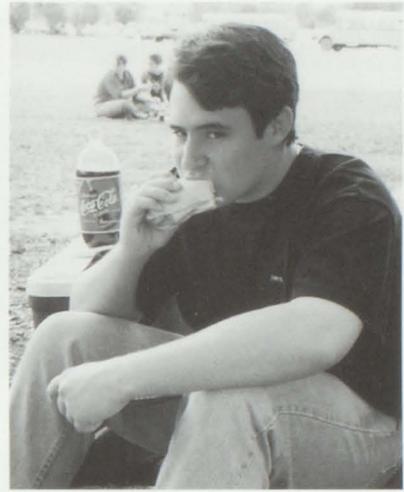

Oops, I messed up...Sara Tanner seems to be off beat a little, She'll catch back up, though.

Forever Friends

Our time in high school teaches us many things. It teaches us how to study. It teaches us how to learn. It teaches us to live in the "real world." Most importantly, it teaches us the value of friendship.

Horsin' Around ... Brian Holland and Mark Lewis love to play around in the halls.

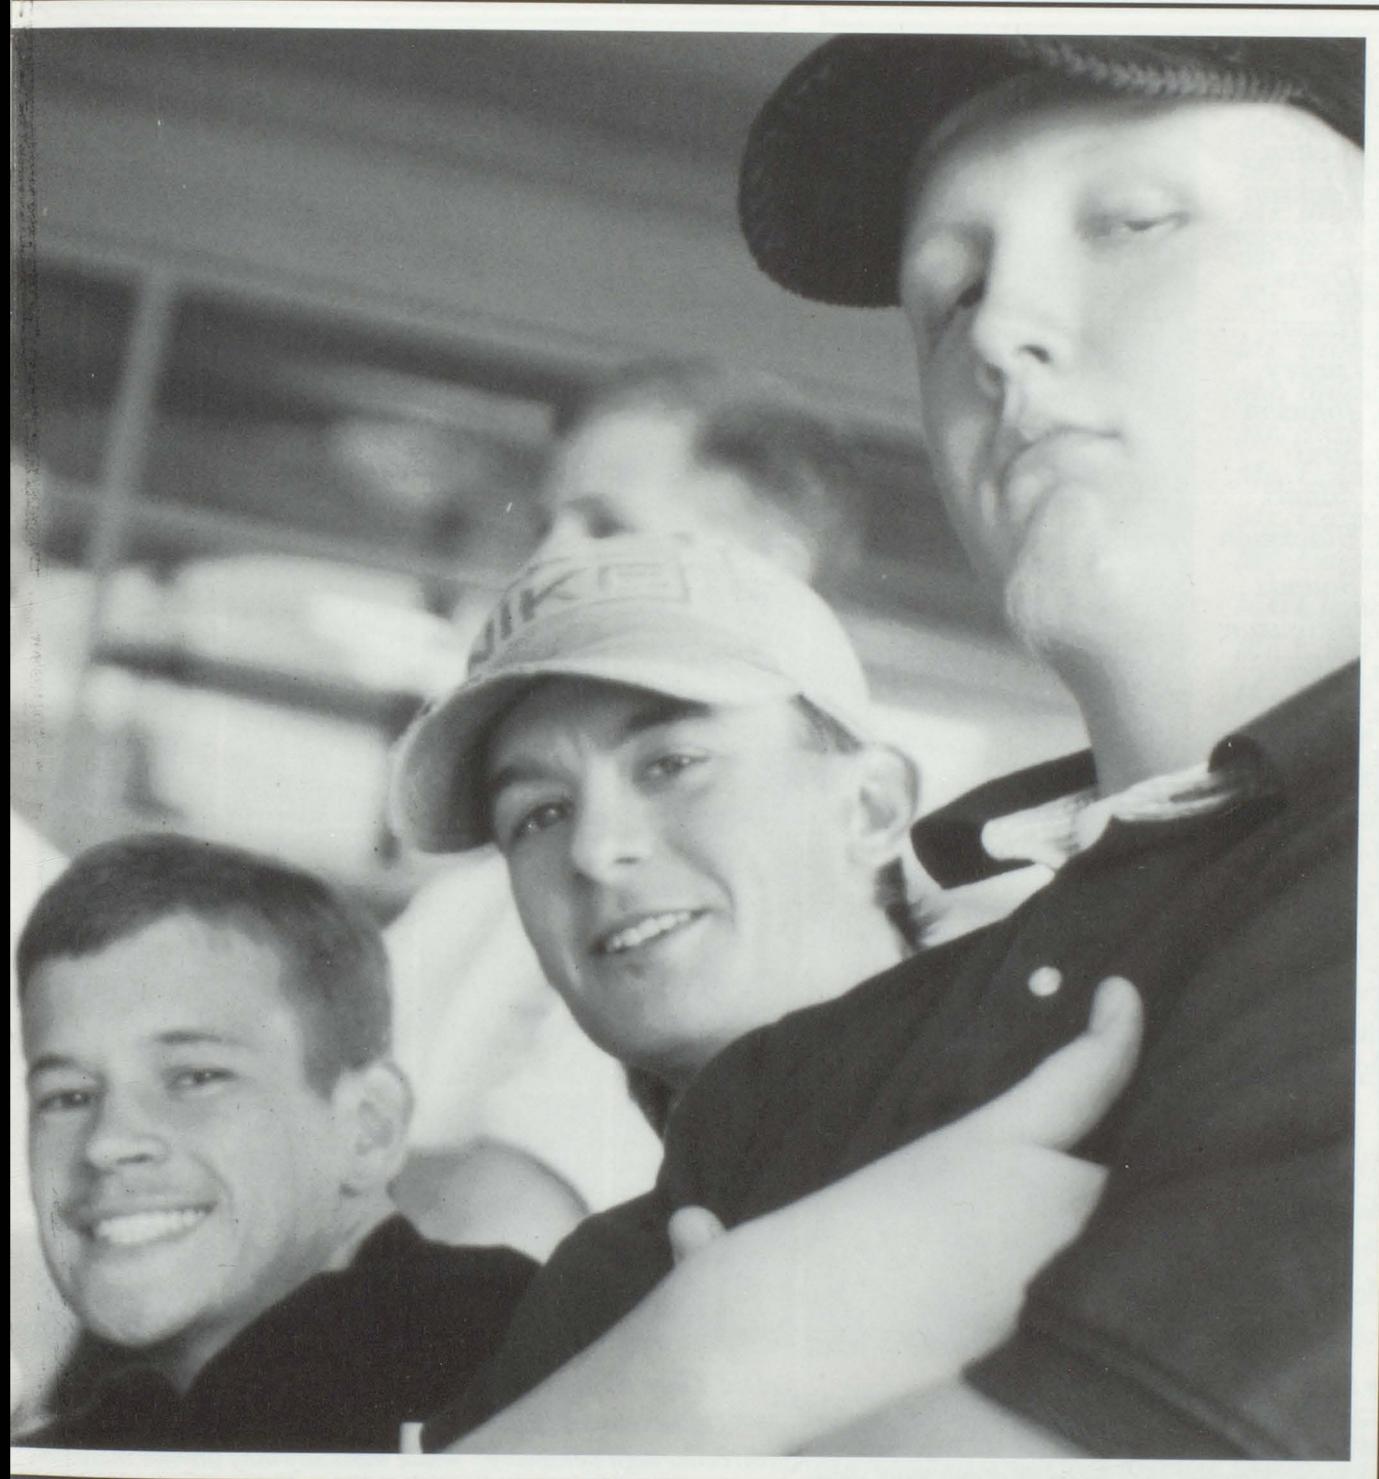

The Three Musketeers ??? Blake Godwin, P.W. Killcreas, and Isaac Ney know that they're all that, or maybe not?

Just Chillin' ... C.J. Bolling, Shee Williams, Tavera Beverly, and Mike Mason relax on a bench. C.J., is that sucker good?

Four of a Kind ... Stacie Russell, Michelle Levesque, Misty Sanks, and Courtney Grimes enjoy time together.

They Help Us Get Where We're Going !!

If you're up early enough, you may be able to catch Mr. Duck jogging through the super shiny halls of B.C.H.S. If you're not careful, Mr. Parker or Mr. Rieben will be "fixing" your misbehavior. Ms. Jackson is the one you'll have to reckon with if you can't get to school or class on time. Besides the administration or secretaries, the janitorial staff and cafeteria workers ensure that our high school is the best running school around.

Were They Sassy ???

Teachers were asked to name the subjects about which they disagreed most often with their parents. Can you believe that Ms. Fagan and Ms. Jones and their parents disagreed about the length of their skirts, while Ms. Earle, Ms. Little, Coach Koziol, Ms. Covington, Ms. Hudson, Ms. Land, Ms. Pridgeon couldn't agree upon a curfew with theirs? Coach Wright and Mr. Beam thought their long locks were fabulous while their parents thought the buzz cut looked better.

Did They Always Succeed at Being Best ?

Most teachers hate to admit they weren't always self-directed high achievers. While most say they always made A's and B's, they also say they didn't realize then how important their grades would be when they got older. Ms. Howard definitely didn't have to worry about her grades. She was the valedictorian of her Senior Class.

Faculty -

They Make Us Who We Are ...

Are they for real ???

Students are often afraid to confide in teachers; they think that teachers could never understand what they're talking about. A recent poll of B.C.H.S.'s finest may just prove to you that, despite the student body's popular opinion, teachers were once real people, too.

They Didn't All Understand Everything ...

Do you realize that many of your best teachers actually had REAL problems with some of their classes? Coach Beck admitted that ALL of his classes gave him trouble, while math was the most trouble to Ms. Marshall, Coach Blanchard, and Ms. Harris. Chemistry and physics caused panic for Mr. Luckey, Ms. Still, Ms. Goforth, and Ms. Brogden. Ms. Hayes confesses that she hated high school. At one point, she even sold her books. It was Spanish, however that gave her the most pains.

Peer Pressure ??? Been There, Done That ...

When asked about peer pressure, most teachers agree that it played a real factor in their lives. Drinking, smoking, and taking drugs were problems for teens when Coach Beck, Ms. Pridgeon, and Ms. Kern were in school, although both Ms. Kern and Ms. Bulman specify that mostly "bad" girls and boys did these things. Ms. Land found great pressure in a class where she had to decide whether to help others cheat or not.

They Teach Their Hearts Out

And They Do It for Us!!!

They Just Wanted to be Liked...

Being in the "in crowd" meant following certain dress codes to Ms. Harris, Ms. Cassidy, and Mr. Luckey. Mr. Blackmon chose to be independent, but he admits the pressure to conform was great. Would you be surprised to know that Ms. Brogden felt no peer pressure? Her explanation is simply, "Our convictions were STRONG on right and wrong." Coach Koziol and Ms. Land both agree that pressure to disobey parents was strong. Tell the truth. Are their problems different from our problems??? Nah.

They Know Their Stuff and More!!!

You'd be Surprised to Know How Much They Can Do!!!

So Why Are They Here???

It's plain to see that teachers aren't in the profession because of the money they get paid... What's interesting about teachers is that they were all kids one time in their lives. Most of them understand our problems better than we think they do. Give them a chance... We'll be the winners!!!

See Ya Later, Alligator ! Ms. Shirley Scott taught business classes and co-sponsored National Honor Society during her many years at B.C.H.S.

After A While, Crocodile! Ms. Annie Hall helped many confused students find their way through the library. She retired after teaching eons at B.C.H.S.

Ms. McMillan and Mr. Beam cut a rug at Prom. We KNOW they didn't come just for the food????

What qualities do you think Mr. and Miss B.C.H.S. should exemplify?

"Mr. and Mrs. B.C.H.S. should be people who are responsible and who strive to do the best in what they do till the end."

Matthew Jones, 12th

"They are both two of the nicest people I know. I think this quality exemplifies our senior class leaders."

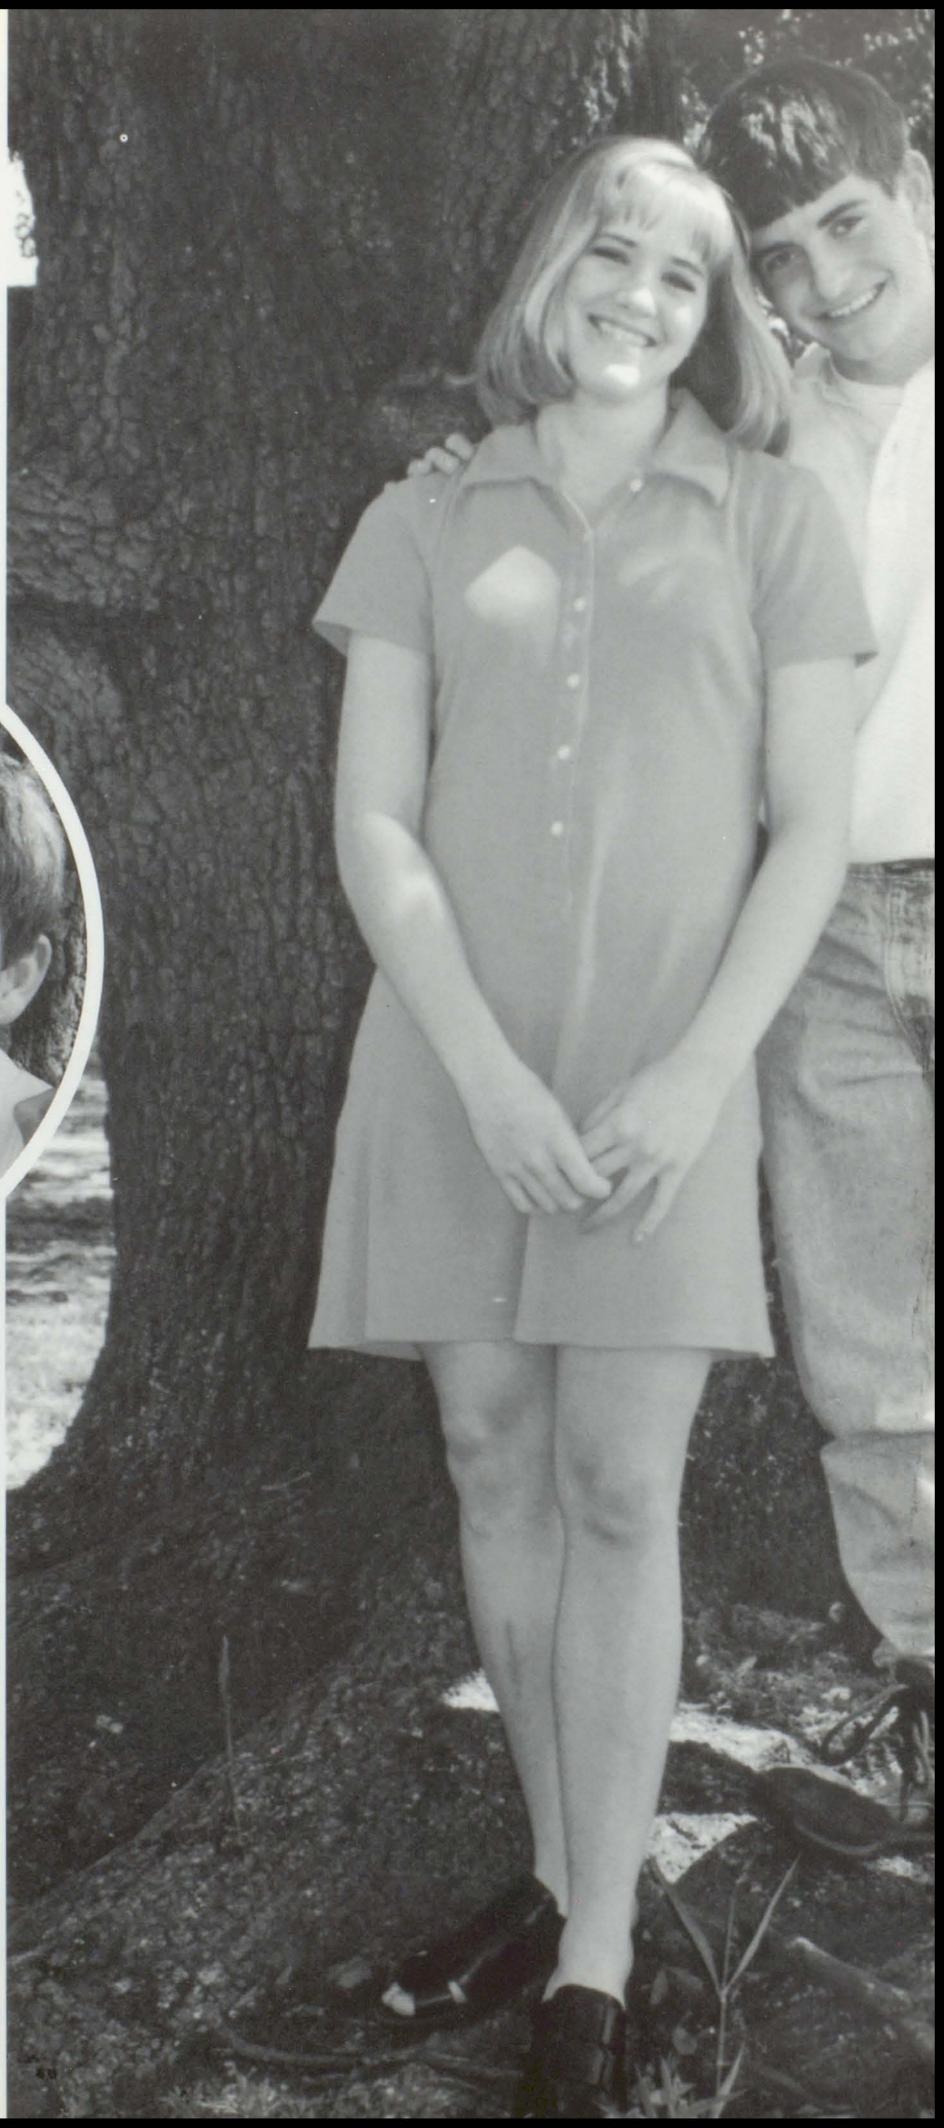

Adrienne Cooper, 12th

"They both take whatever they do seriously and do the very best they can. After all, isn't that what B.C.H.S. is all about?"

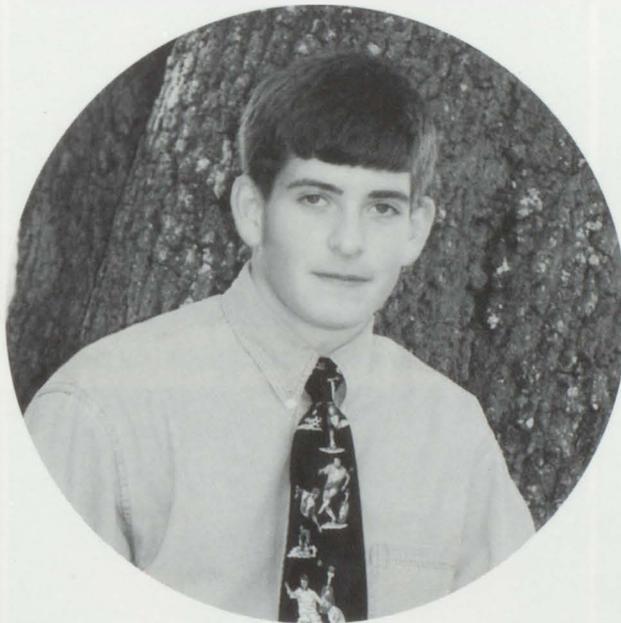

Charles Flowers, 12th

"Through all their years in school, they've never given up anything they've set out to do."

Ann Snowden, 12th

Mr. & Miss B.C.H.S.

Brock Harrison Goodwin

On March 25, 1997, at the First Annual Senior Breakfast Brock Goodwin was honored in front of the entire senior class when he was named Mr. B.C.H.S. 1997. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Goodwin. Brock is the Key Club president, vice-president of National Honor Society, and is on the Tiger T.V. staff. He has been on the Honor Roll all four years and was also voted most likely to succeed. Along with his academic responsibilities he also finds time for athletics. He is a three year member of the Varsity Soccer Team and a member of the Cross-Country Team. Brock also serves on the Youth Council at the First United Methodist Church.

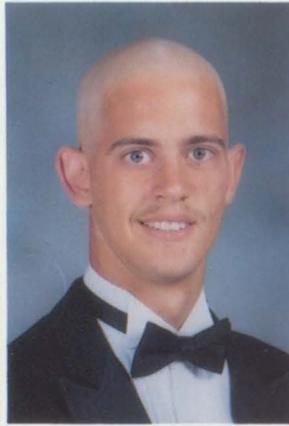

Cara Brooke Lovett

Brooke Lovett received the highest honor that a senior female can receive when she was named Miss B.C.H.S. 1997. Along with being president of National Honor Society, she is also a Key Club Favorite and a member of the American Technology Honor Society. She has been on the Homecoming Court for four years and she was a freshman class favorite. Her classmates voted her Most Likely to Succeed, and her 4.0 grade point average and scholastic achievements support that vote. Brooke is an active member in her youth group at Northside Assembly of God. She has been a Varsity Cheerleader for three years, serving as captain for one year. She also competed on the Varsity Track and Varsity Tennis teams.

Who's Who has been a tradition of the Senior Class for many years. As has been the custom, the seniors nominated the candidates for each category. The winners were chosen by majority vote. The seniors did a good job of choosing the people who are suited best for each category. This year the Who's Who were presented at the 1st Annual Balcoala Breakfast. The breakfast was sponsored by the Yearbook Staff, the first of a brand new B.C.H.S. tradition!

A Perfect Fit

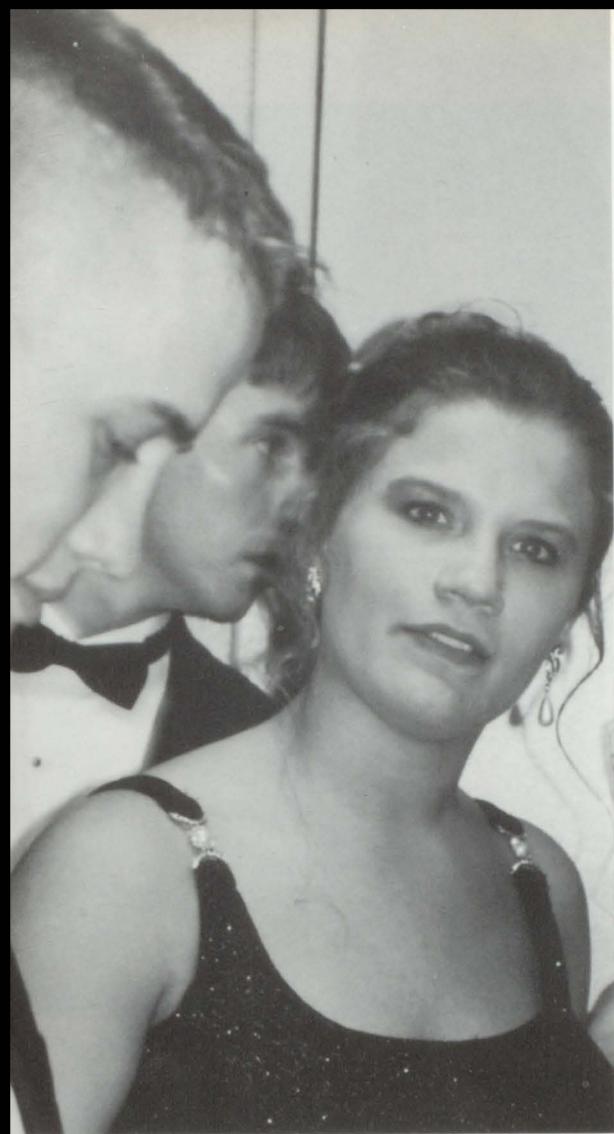

Of all the events during the senior year, the Prom comes second only to Graduation. But being second doesn't dull any of the luster that encompasses Prom night. From traditions decades old to a few new practices, this year's Prom committee and Prom attendants adapted the event to a perfect fit. Take Ivory Joe Bolden for example. Whether it was country, rock, or rap, he was kickin' it his way. Ivory Joe wasn't alone in his enjoyment. Just check out what a few of his fellow seniors were up to.

Pause under the arch... Mark Lewis and Joy Hammond ready themselves for Senior Lead-outs. It is an important but sometimes dreaded activity that is part of Senior Prom.

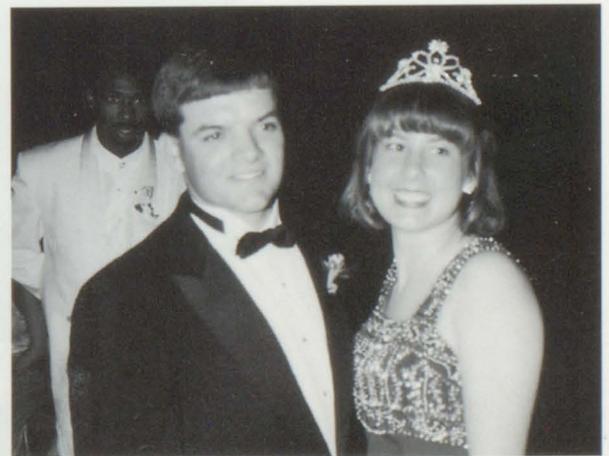

Wee Doggies! ... Handsome cowboy Kiley Barnes shows off his different type of style to the rest of his class.

Lost in your eyes ... Laura Craig and her date await their chance to be seen at Prom. This is one of the most memorable moments in the senior year.

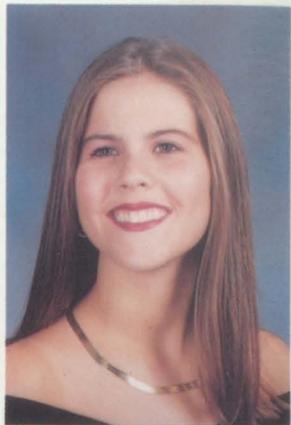

Ya betta watch out ... Tomeckia Van, Eva Williams, and Natausha Smith cut loose on the dance floor. If you're not swinging with them, you had better stand back.

King and Queen of the Hill... Prom King and Queen Joe Hill and Amy Bryars share a special slow dance. Simply unforgettable.

Over the edge... Dawanda Mims and Gavin Finley peer over the balcony to see all of their fellow prom-goers make their entrance.

Senior Breakfast

On March 25, 1997, the seniors were treated to a breakfast by the annual staff. They were asked to bring their parents to enjoy this delicious meal that was so graciously prepared by Mrs. Conway and her staff. The feature speaker was Mayor Rickey Rhodes. After breakfast, senior Who's Who winners were announced, and Brock Goodwin and Brooke Lovett were named as Mr. and Miss B.C.H.S. This, the First Annual Senior Breakfast, was the first breakfast of its kind at B.C.H.S. It promises to become a much valued, much anticipated tradition.

Hello, Ladies ...

Mrs. Wyman and her daughter Chrissy Brooks enjoy the First Annual Senior Breakfast with friend Brandy Mahathy. The fact that parents attended made the breakfast extra special.

Waiting and Waiting and Waiting ...

James Mantlo, joined by his mother, waits patiently to get his breakfast. Though the line was slow, the food was worth it!

What did you enjoy the most about the Senior Breakfast?

"I enjoyed the bacon."

Chris Geck, 12th

What did you enjoy the most about the Senior Breakfast?

"I enjoyed the food, missing economics, and listening to the mayor's inspirational speech."

Eric Chastang, 12th

Hungry Men... Darrell Gandy, Reggie Fields, and Nick Graves make the most of the food at the Senior Breakfast. After all, it's free!

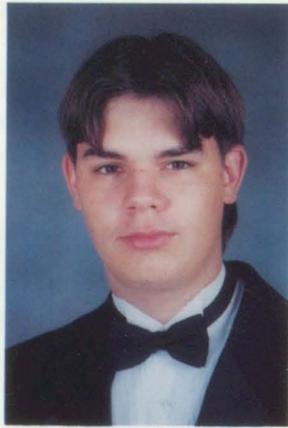

Get off my back... Mrs. Helms does her best to ignore her always joking daughter, Jennifer Helms. Somebody is going to get it when she gets home.

I love you, Mom!... Jonathan Scott does the "family thing" by spending time with his mother at the Senior Breakfast.

GOOD Cookin'... Tabitha Rolin and parents sample the items that Mrs. Conway and her staff prepared. Mmm-hmm, good!

Seniors at Their Best...

I feel dizzy ... Sandi Donald looks a little sick after having her veins drained. This is a typical reaction to giving blood.

And the beat goes ... Band members know that paying attention is important. Here, Ron Hannah gets ready to play.

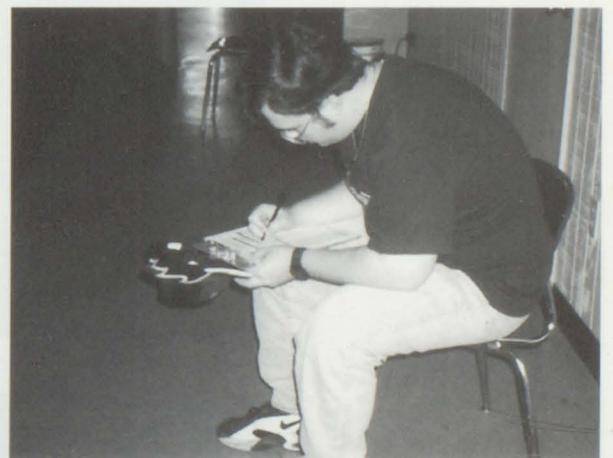

Slam dunk ... Travis Jenkins enjoys playing basketball. Maybe he will be a "pro" someday. You never know!

It's a what? ... Canidice Hastings, Aquincia Stevens, and Jessica Hinote proudly show off their artistic creations.

Way Groovy, Man... Lots of hard work went into making this "totally outa sight" senior float. "Tigers Have Flower Power Over Choctaw" took first place in the Homecoming Float Competition.

Sweet Dreams... Tired out from all of the responsibilities of being a senior, Charles Flowers takes a much-needed nap during break.

You want to know what??? ... Michael Bryars goes over his donor form. The questions can get kind of personal.

Buck Shot... Brandon Weekley shows off his latest kill. Hunting is also a popular pastime among seniors.

Friends 4 Life...

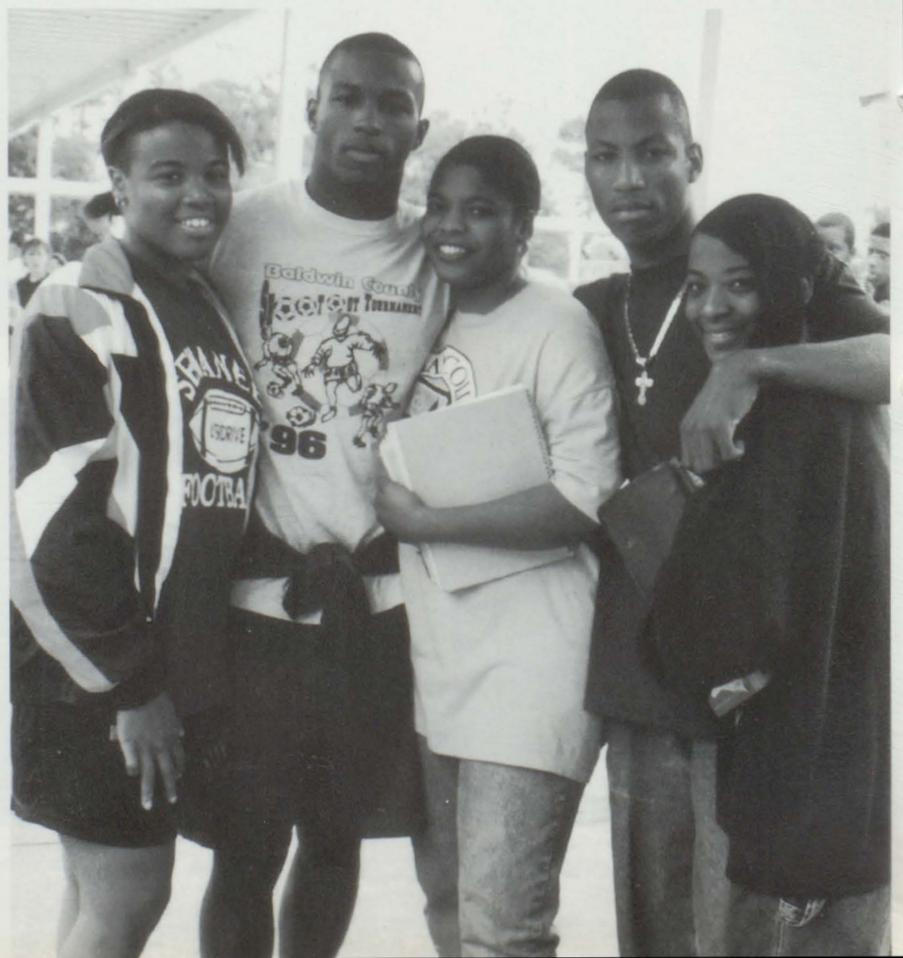

Santa's Helpers... No matter what the season you can't tear Laura Craig, Tabitha Robin, Jennifer Lindsey, Valerie Stewart, Tonya Stewart, and Heather McKinley apart.

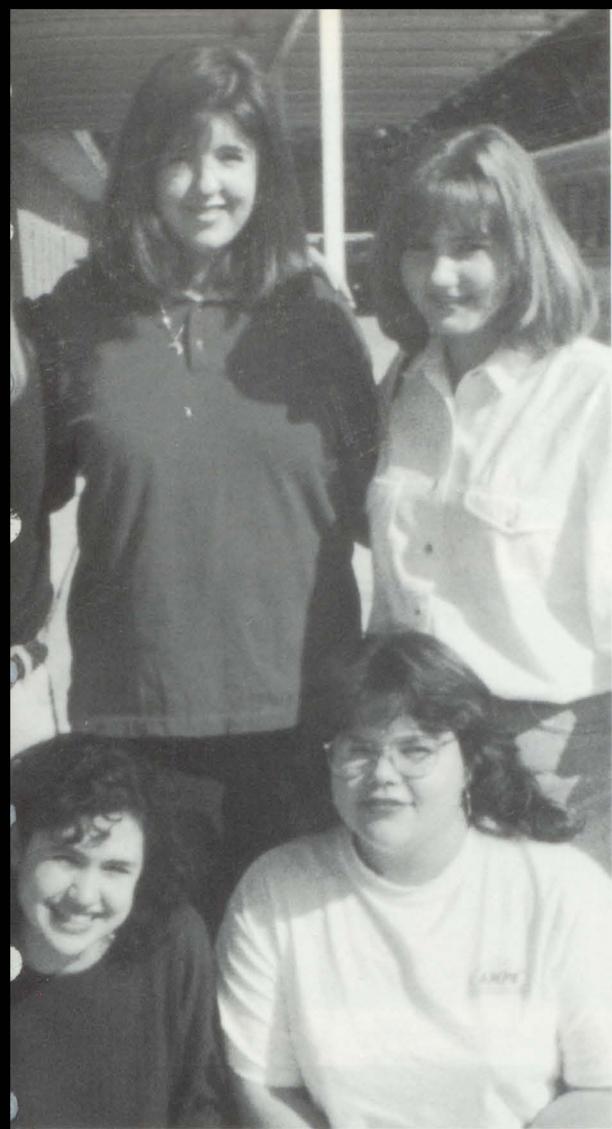

My Buddies and Me... Heath Bryars, Quintin White, Kiley Barnes, Kasey Williams, Neil McKinley, and Bobby Dunn all together at break and lunch.

Supreme Sisters... Jamaica Howard, Sheree Salter, Eva Williams, Willona German, Tomeckia Vann, and Shemeka Benjamin are dressed to kill for prom.

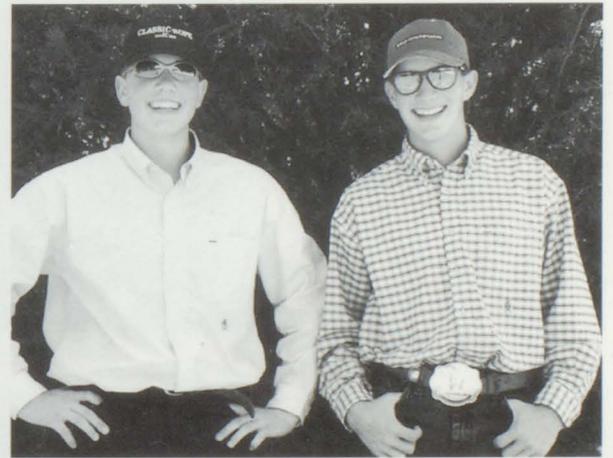

Can You Feel the Love... Rhonda Mims, Darrel Gandy, Carjetta Crook, Derrick McCall, and Dawanda Mims show how close seniors can get in their last year together.

Best Buds... Everyone wishes he could have friends as close as Stacey Stewart, Crystal Jaye, Tracey Stewart, Jackie Vinet, and Jaclyn Thibodeaux.

The Seven of Hearts... Nicole Byrd, Ashley White, Brooke Hodges, Debbie Goins, Krissie Nall, Emily Richerson, and Kristin Singley's hearts have grown together.

Rodeo Stars... T-3 Horn and Jarrod Jones can be seen in their rodeo outfits almost every day. They're two cow-boys that will be roping the wind together.

Labor Day Fun... Some of the seniors took a day to relax and have fun. Spending time with friends is a favorite pastime they all enjoy.

Stressin' Seniors !!

I'm outta here... Willie Wilson shows off his senior shirt for the camera. He looks really excited about getting "outta here."

Is anyone THAT smart?.. Eric Chastang explains a physics problem to another anxious student. He seems to be a great teacher... his ACT scores reflect excellence!

What should I do?.. Joetta Barnes looks over a catalog for Tuskegee University. They have offered her a $3500.00 a year scholarship for four years.

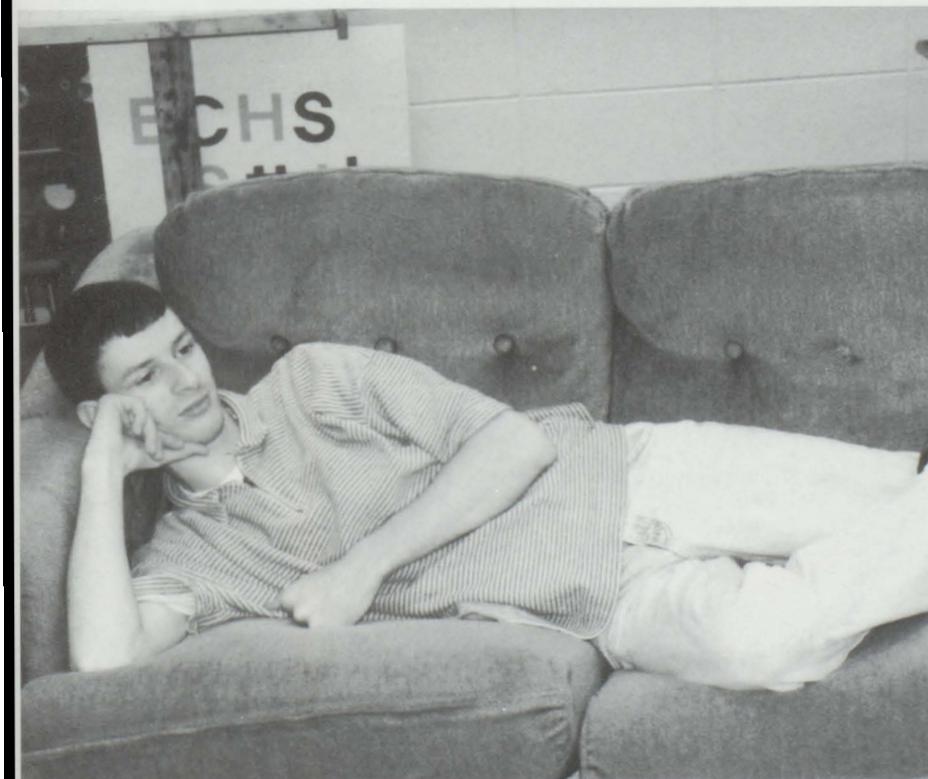

Will work for money... Jake Branum holds out his pockets showing how much money he doesn't have. Senior expenses add up quick---good thing he has a job!

I Promise... Sarah Beth McDonald and Myca Young sign the Prom Promise together at recess Friday before Prom. The choice not to drink gives them one less thing to worry about on prom night.

Is it worth it?... John Wiggins looks at the receipt for his class ring. He spent over $300.00 on his, while Mrs. Brogden spent around $20.00 for hers when she was a Senior. My how the times have changed.

ACT woes... Kim Cox fills out her ACT papers to get ready for the next testing day. Kim plans to attend Stillman College in which she needs a 22. Good Luck, Kim!

Resting?? ... Keith Earls takes a minute to relax from his busy schedule. How does he have the time?

Monkey do, you made it!! It's been a long time, but you're finally there. We are very proud of you; now, go out and take the very best life has to offer. As you go, have fun, be careful, be good to yourself and others, and always remember what Paw Paw said: "It's okay to make mistakes, as long as you learn something." We will always be here when you need us, and we love you more than you can know.

Compliments of E.E. Ball and Harold A. Koons, III

Here's a group of friends who are very close, And of their senior year they made the most.

Jarroed Jones, likes to rodeo, And Brandon Weekley has no middle toe.

Josh Caldwell is a soccer freak, Amanda Morris was Queen for a week.

Amber and Amber have the same name, And they love each other just the same.

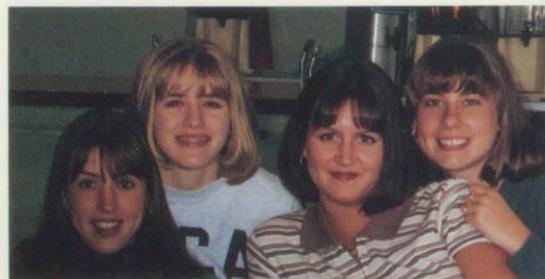

Erin and Brooke are seeing each other more, And Bryan Wiggins works at Burris' fruit store.

Stick James likes his Nike shirt, And Candi Huffaker likes to flirt.

Melanee, Brooke, and Jennifer are tied for number one, T-3 is a jokester, and always has his fun.

Jake and Kasey always fight, But within one week, they make things right..

J.W. Joiner has a nice jeep, Willie Wilson's horn has a Dukes of Hazard beep.

Shanna and Leslie are best friends,
A helping hand, Brock always lends.

Amy and Joe have been dating for years,
And Sean Clark wishes he could rope steers.

Caroline Page is on a dance team,
Sometimes Skipper is just plain mean.

He's not always mean, and he has a nice smile,
Sarah Beth was a cheerleader for just a while.

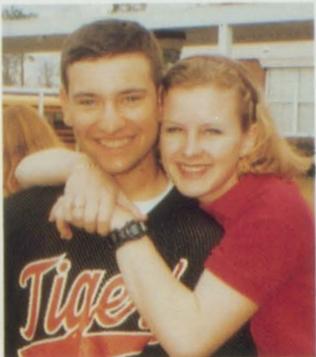

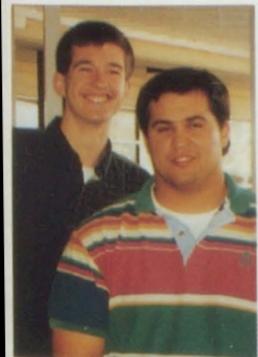

Kevin's nickname will always be Catfish,
And to be on the Pro-tour is Brian Penna's wish.

Boyfriends galore Jessica has had,
Seldom, if ever does Matt Byrd get mad.

Charles Flowers shaved his head,
Matt Fischer's grew, a lot longer instead.

Little River is where Ann lives,
Whatever you ask, Sarah DeWit gives.

To everyone else we all may be strange,
But the friendships we've made will never ever change.

CONGRATULATIONS,
SENIORS!

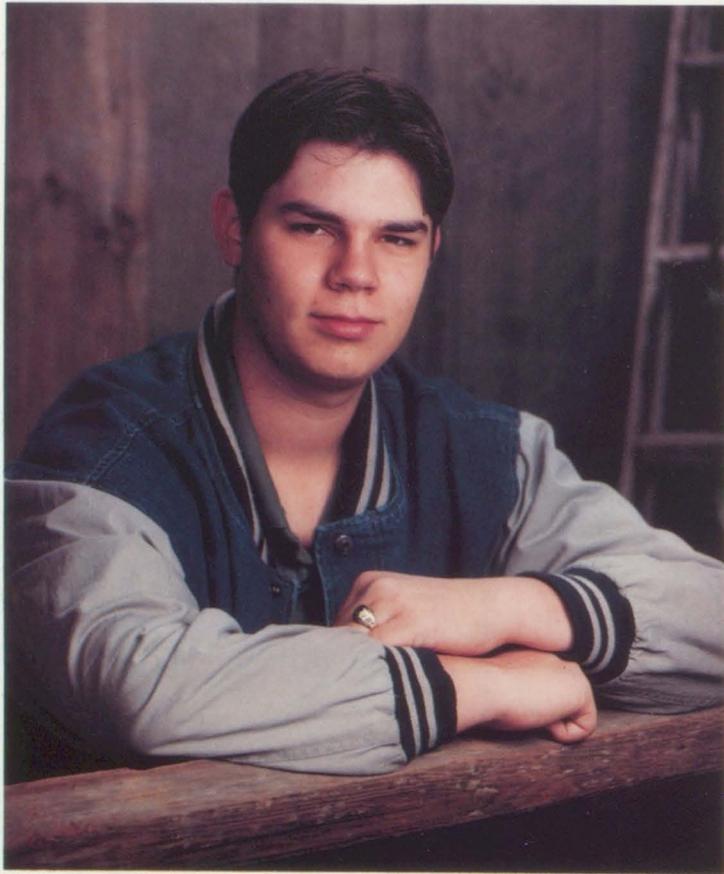

'97

What have you found to be the biggest challenge in Mrs. Pridgeon's class?

I wish that I did not know as much as I do about computers because everyone always wants me to fix something or do something that I really hate doing. Computers are really bad on your sun-tan too!

Dear Amber Taylor,

My daughter. My friend. I have had the pleasure of watching you grow from a beautiful baby into a beautiful, self-confident young woman. I have admired you as you've made intelligent decisions to stand firm against peer pressure and to accept the responsibility for your own education. No matter what life dishes out, you accept the challenge and grow from it. Throughout undergraduate and graduate school, you and Haley willingly and cooperatively became my support team. You have been a wonderful sister to Haley and an outstanding role-model for her. Your smile, your laughter, and your sunny disposition brighten any room you enter. Amber, Mama is so proud of you! I pray God will continue to give you wisdom and that He will guide and strengthen you in all you seek to do. I pray other mothers experience the same joy and love you have given me.

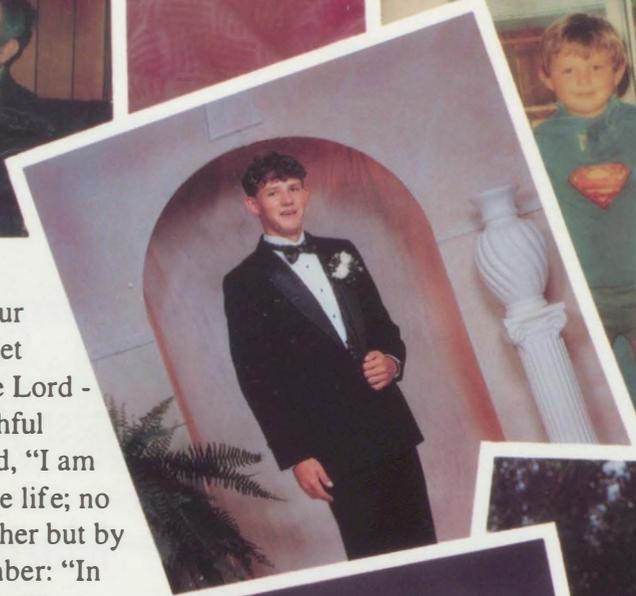

*I love you, Baby,
Mom, Haley, and Dad*

Where There's Willie, There's a Way!

Willie Wilson,

We will always be your greatest fans - never forget that! Walk worthy of the Lord - above all things be a faithful Christian. For Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father but by Me." John 14:6. Remember: "In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths." Prov. 3:6. Be valiant, compassionate and honorable. Unto thine ownself be true. Christ in you the hope of glory. Always live by the 1611 King James Bible and the Lord will lead and protect you. You are precious to us.

We love you world without end,
Mom, Dad, Shannon, and Grandparents
Remember the good times -
remember me, Willie

Josh Willis,

Although we are very proud of your accomplishments, we are infinitely prouder of the wonderful person you are becoming. Your dad and I thank God for the gift of your presence in our lives.

We love you,
Mom and Dad
